In Memoriam

Leo Nomellini

Defensive/Offensive Tackle (1950-63)

TERRY DONAHUE

College Football Hall of Fame

When Dick Vermeil left UCLA to become the head coach of the Philadelphia Eagles in 1976, the Bruins hired a 31-year old former walk-on defensive tackle to replace the energetic Vermeil as their new head coach.

All Terry Donahue did was become the winningest coach in UCLA and Pac-10 history. During his 20-year tenure he went 151-74-8 overall and 98-51-5 in conference play. His teams went 8-4-1 in bowl games and claimed three Rose Bowl championships. He is one of only two coaches in college football history (Bobby Bowden) to win eight consecutive bowl games. He coached 34 first team All-Americans and more than 100 of his players were selected in the NFL draft.

Add up all the accomplishments and it's no wonder Donahue was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame last year. The Southern California native was a member of the Class of 2000 that included Marcus Allen, Dan Dierdorf, Michael Haynes and John Elway, among others.

ORGANIZATION

OWNER

With more than 25 years experience in the field of sports management and real estate development and operations, Denise DeBartolo York serves as chairman of The DeBartolo Corporation and oversees the Corporation's portfolio, including the five-time world champion San Francisco 49ers. Headed by Denise, the corporation is ranked in the top 50 of this year's Working Woman Top 500 Woman-Owned businesses in the country.

DeBartolo York, who previously served as Executive Vice President of Personnel and Corporate Marketing/Communications for The Edward J. DeBartolo Corporation (EJDC), was instrumental in the development of the corporation's employee programs and communications tools. Based on her accomplishments, she was elevated to the position of Vice Chairman in April 1994. After the death of her father, Edward

J. DeBartolo in December 1994, DeBartolo York was named Chairman. In February 2001, the assets of her father's estate, including EJDC, were equally distributed between Denise and her brother, Edward Jr., with Denise retaining ownership of the San Francisco 49ers, among other resources and properties.

When the Corporation owned the Pittsburgh Penguins of the National Hockey League (1981-91), Denise was one of only a few female executives in the league. She was team President when the Penguins won their first Stanley Cup title in 1991. During three seasons as Pittsburgh's President, DeBartolo York helped the Penguins post a 113-106-21 record and qualify for the Stanley Cup playoffs twice. She also was instrumental in allowing the city of Pittsburgh to host the NHL All-Star game for the first time ever, January 21, 1990. Denise and her father have been widely recognized as the individuals who saved hockey in the tri-state area by establishing a championship caliber organization and drafting star players like Mario Lemieux (1984) and Jaromir Jagr (1990).

In addition to her business responsibilities, DeBartolo York gives generously of her resources and time to numerous charitable and community organizations, including the recent contribution of $500,000 to the women's athletic programs at Youngstown State University and the development of the DeBartolo Stadium Club, also at YSU. Just this year, she made a significant contribution of $1 million to St. Mary's College for building construction and renovations. As a member of Ursuline Sisters Financial Advisory Board, DeBartolo York assisted them in developing and implementing a massive fundraising drive in 1991 for the construction of a new preschool, kindergarten and adult education center. In 2001, Denise has once again taken the lead in a second fundraising effort for assembly of an additional school building for inner-city children, by providing leadership and several million dollars of financial assistance.

Along with her husband, John York, and the San Francisco 49ers, DeBartolo York was of paramount importance with the Mills Corporation and YMCA being awarded the "Pier 27 to 31" project in San Francisco, bringing affordable recreational activities on the waterfront for citizens of all ages in the Bay Area. She also has given substantial financial support to many youth organizations in San Francisco, including a $300,000 donation to the Police Athletic League's youth center at Hunter's Point.

She supports the Marie Denise DeBartolo York and the Denise & John York Foundations' intent to utilize grant funds to provide help for the poor, the underprivileged and the needs of children. Additionally, she is committed to the efforts of the 49ers Foundation, helping hundreds of organizations and awarding well over $1 million of financial support to Bay Area agencies.

Continuing her father's tradition of a strong belief in education, Denise has awarded over $150,000 in scholarships to high school seniors in the Mahoning Valley (OH), through the Edward J. DeBartolo Memorial Scholarship Foundation, which was established upon his death in 1994. Additionally, she is the campaign chairman and major donor for the Youngstown Diocese Catholic Education scholarship league, and chairman of "Operation Education," a fundraising effort by Youngstown's Catholic High Schools. Through her generosity and commitment, she was financially responsible for the Chapel at Cardinal Mooney (OH) High School, among other structures and renovations.

In 1991, she served as the chairperson for MADD's (Mothers Against Drunk Driving) Project Red Ribbon Campaign and is currently involved with the efforts of the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children. She was recognized for the contribution of three additional classrooms and library to St. Charles Elementary School in Boardman, Ohio. As a major contributor, she is responsible, among other projects, for the new concourse at Fellows Riverside Gardens in Mill Creek Park, located in Youngstown. In keeping with her tradition of commitment and kindness to children, she has made generous donations to Todd Children's Hospital, also in Youngstown.

DeBartolo York began her career with The DeBartolo Corporation after graduating from St. Mary's College at Notre Dame. She and her husband, John York, are the parents of two sons and twin daughters.

NOW THAT'S A STREAK!

The 49ers closed the 2000 regular season having scored in 403 consecutive games, including the postseason. The streak is by far the longest in NFL history. Dallas scored in 248 consecutive games from 1970-85 to rank second. Cleveland had a 274 game scoring streak from 1950-71 but that did not include postseason games. The second longest current streak is 162 consecutive games by both Minnesota and Green Bay.

SCORING STREAKS

1.	San Francisco (1977-curr.)	403
2.	Dallas (1970-85)	284
3.	Oakland (1966-81)	241
4.	New Orleans (1983-97)	220
5.	Kansas City (1963-76)	186

John York

DIRECTOR/OWNER'S REPRESENTATIVE

As Director/Owner's Representative of the San Francisco 49ers, the DeBartolo Corporation's largest asset, John York is the fundamental source providing oversight between the company's home office in Youngstown, Ohio and the 49ers in San Francisco. He has been instrumental with the rebuilding of the 49ers and putting a senior management team in place to run the operations of the franchise on a day-to-day basis.

Since stepping into a leadership role with the 49ers in 1998, York has had to handle a variety of issues to clearly define the vision and direction of the organization. He joined forces with Bill Walsh, John McVay, Terry Donahue and Steve Mariucci to guide the team through a difficult salary cap crisis. He also is credited with forming a dynamic management team headed by Peter Harris, a highly successful business leader, as team President/CEO.

Aside from his duties with the 49ers, York doubles as the President of the DeBartolo Corporation, where he oversees the day-to-day operations of the corporation's portfolio. A member of the Board of Directors, York is essential in steering the DeBartolo Corporation's other business responsibilities while maintaining interests in several other ventures, including an investment firm based in Youngstown, OH, and a software systems organization in Nashville, TN.

York, a successful entrepreneur with a multi-faceted business background, has a proven record for developing turnkey operations. In 1982, he founded DeYor Laboratories in Youngstown, OH. From three employees, York molded a 500-person operation with facilities in three states. With revenues between $25 and $30 million annually, his business was considered among the largest in the Midwest. DeYor Laboratories was sold to Corning, Inc. in 1993.

Bringing this expertise to the DeBartolo Corporation, York assumed the position of Senior Vice President/Director of Racing Operations in December 1994. York successfully instituted programs designed to streamline operations and enhance the overall value of the racing portfolio. He developed the inaugural DeBartolo Racing Challenge in 1997, tying together the Derbies at Thistledown, Remington Park and Louisiana Downs for three-year olds. The single winner of the three DeBartolo races collected a $1 million bonus. Thistledown in Cleveland, OH, and Remington Park in Oklahoma City, OK, were sold to Magna International, Inc., in 1999. Seeing the value in the DeBartolo Challenge, Magna has continued this tradition and invited York to sit on their Board of Directors. Since 1995, York has been a director of Equibase, providing statistical racing information to the industry and patrons.

In addition to his business acumen, York is noted for his generous support of youth activities and education. Through contributions of time and resources, he has actively participated in many worthwhile community organizations. Just this year, a $500,000 contribution was made to the Youngstown State University women's athletic programs. He serves on the Science Advisory Council at the University of Notre Dame and also was selected to be a member of Youngstown State University's Search Committee for a new athletic director.

York also has given substantial financial support to many youth organizations in the San Francisco Bay Area, including a $300,000 donation to the Police Athletic League's youth center at Hunter's Point. He, along with his wife, Denise, and the San Francisco 49ers, was instrumental with the Mills Corporation and YMCA being awarded the "Pier 27 to 31" project, bringing affordable recreational activities on the waterfront for San Franciscans of all ages. Also in San Francisco, he is a member of the Board of Directors for the Committee On Jobs, a coalition of the city's largest private employers who work together to promote good public policy.

York currently holds the position of Vice President for the Boardman Community Baseball Association, an area baseball league for children ages five through 18. He was instrumental in the construction of "Fields of Dreams," a local baseball complex comprised of 20 baseball fields, and has participated in local youth basketball programs as a coach and organizer.

Supporting local education, York was recognized in 1996 for his generosity and guidance in the renovation of the library at St. Charles Elementary School, as well as the addition of three new classrooms in 1997. In the spring of 1999, York donated a new math and science building at his alma mater, Little Rock Catholic High School, which celebrated a grand opening this year. Also this year, he sponsored the medical ethics symposium during the Third National Undergraduate Bioethics Conference at the University of Notre Dame.

A native of Muskogee, OK, York graduated magna cum laude from the University of Notre Dame in 1971. After receiving his doctorate from Stritch School of Medicine at Loyola University in 1975, York underwent seven years of post-doctorate training at such prominent universities as Loyola of Chicago and Vanderbilt. An accomplished writer and lecturer, York has numerous presentations to his credit. He also belongs to several professional societies, including the American Society of Clinical Pathology, International Academy of Pathology and the American Medical Association.

Peter Harris

PRESIDENT/CEO

Peter L. Harris, an accomplished businessman and Bay Area resident, was named President and CEO of the San Francisco 49ers July 12, 2000. He is the eighth President in team history.

Harris came to the 49ers with a reputation as a successful business leader, developed over 20 years as a CEO. He is considered one of the creators of what is known today as "entertainment retailing," creating interactive and entertaining experiences for customers while they shop.

He began his career in Southern California at Gemco Department Stores, a subsidiary of Lucky Stores. He spent 18 years with the company, rising to CEO at the age of 36. Gemco grew to $2.2 billion in sales with 18,000 employees during his leadership.

Harris is best known as the CEO of FAO Schwarz in New York. He and an investor partner purchased FAO Schwarz in 1985 when the company was floundering. With a focus on the customer and the creation of an interactive retail shopping experience, the beloved toy store chain moved back to the position it holds today as the world's preeminent retailer of fine toys and gifts for children. The chain was sold in 1990 and Harris remained CEO until joining the 49ers.

After FAO Schwarz, he moved back to Northern California where he entered the Silicon Valley technology sphere and became CEO of Accolade, an entertainment software developer and publisher. He helped re-capitalize and re-position the company and built a new management team.

From 1995 until joining the 49ers, Harris served as CEO of The Picture People (formerly Expressly Portraits), headquartered in Foster City, CA. Their business concept creates children's and family portraits in a fun, friendly, interactive mall store environment. He built the company into a successful 300-store chain and sold the operation in 1999 to Hallmark, remaining as CEO until joining the 49ers.

Harris serves on the boards of many major public companies: The George Lucas Education Foundation, the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce and a private grammar school. He also is active in three non-profit children's wellness organizations. Most recently, he was appointed to the Board of Directors for the Bay Area Sports Organizing Committee, making him an active participant in San Francisco's bid for the 2012 Olympic Games.

A native of Stockton, CA, Harris was born December 17, 1943. The oldest of four siblings, he has two sisters and a brother, all of whom live in the Bay Area. Harris prepped at Lincoln High in Stockton, where he was a three-sport athlete in football, basketball and baseball. He earned all-city honors at center and linebacker as a junior and senior.

Harris played football and baseball at Whittier College, where he graduated with a degree in business administration in 1965. He and his wife Jan, have three boys, Michael, David and Richard.

Terry Donahue

GENERAL MANAGER

Terry Donahue, in his third season with the 49ers, was named General Manager of the team May 2, 2001. His responsibilities will include coordinating all aspects of football operations, including personnel decisions, the college draft and training camp, as well as being instrumental in the daily management of the organization.

Donahue was hired by the 49ers in 1999 as Director of Player Personnel and was elevated to Assistant General Manager prior to the 2000 season. While being groomed by Bill Walsh to take over the General Manager post, Donahue's primary duties included managing the 49ers scouting and draft activities in addition to coordinating the team's pro personnel department.

Donahue joined the 49ers after spending three years (1996-98) as the lead college football analyst for CBS Sports. Prior to going into broadcasting, Donahue enjoyed a Hall of Fame coaching career at UCLA. He became the winningest coach in Pac-10 history, posting a 151-74-8 (.665) record during a 20-year (1976-95) head coaching career with the Bruins. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2000.

During his two-decade reign, Donahue built UCLA into one of the top programs in the country. The Bruins finished in the Top 20 12 times and cracked the Top 10 five times under Donahue's direction. He registered a 98-51-5 (.653) conference record and guided the Bruins to 13 bowl games, including four Rose Bowls, and five Pac-10 championships. The 98 wins are the most in conference history, and he posted a winning record against every Pac-10 opponent. Donahue had an 8-4-1 record in bowl games and is one of only two coaches in NCAA history to win eight consecutive bowl appearances. Bobby Bowden is the other.

He made six appearances in the Rose Bowl, including one as a player, one as an assistant coach and four as a head coach. He guided the Bruins to three Rose Bowl championships as a coach and was inducted into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame in 1997.

UCLA produced 34 first-team All-Americans and had 14 players selected in the first round of the NFL draft during Donahue's tenure. He will be inducted into the UCLA Hall of Fame as a member of the Class of 2001.

The Southern California native went to UCLA as a walk-on and started two seasons (1965-66) at defensive tackle. After graduating in 1967, he became defensive line coach at Kansas before returning to UCLA as offensive line coach in 1971. At age 31 he assumed the head coaching position when Dick Vermeil resigned to coach the Philadelphia Eagles in 1976.

Donahue was a starting linebacker at Notre Dame High in Sherman Oaks, CA. After playing freshman football at San Jose State, he attended L.A. Valley College before enrolling at UCLA, where he earned a bachelor's degree in history in 1967. He later added a master's degree from UCLA in kinesiology in '77.

Terry was born (6-24-44) in Los Angeles, CA. He and his wife, Andrea, have three grown children: Nicole, Michele, and Jennifer; and one granddaughter. The Donahues live in Los Gatos, CA.

Les Schmidt

CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER/CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

The 49ers landed one of the Silicon Valley's true business leaders when Les Schmidt was named Chief Operating Officer and Chief Financial Officer January 29, 2001. He brings more than 20 years of company building experience to an organization that is committed to leadership in a competitive business environment that is increasingly influenced by technology.

As COO, Schmidt will oversee the day-to-day business operation of the 49ers, which will include insurance, legal matters, stadium operations and ticketing, among others.

Schmidt has been instrumental in building several Bay Area companies over the last two decades, including Quokka Sports, The Learning Company, MECON, Inc. and Applied Immune Sciences.

Most recently, he served as Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer for Quokka Sports, a digital sports entertainment company that produced real time coverage of sporting events, with the idea of changing the way fans experienced sports. Quokka gained notoriety by creating and managing the nbcolympics.com web site during the 2000 Summer Games in Sydney, Australia.

Schmidt brings with him an extensive background in finance. He graduated from Antioch College in Yellow Springs, OH, with a degree in political science and economics in 1976. He earned his master's degree in taxation from Golden Gate University in 1981, and, following graduation, began his career as a certified public accountant at Coopers and Lybrand in San Jose.

After four years (1981-84) at Coopers and Lybrand, Schmidt served as CFO (1984-87) for Applied Immune Services, a venture-backed start-up research and development company that specialized in bio-medical devices.

From 1987-93, he was the CFO for The Learning Company, an innovator and developer of educational, foreign language and home office productivity software. He was promoted to COO in 1994 and remained in that capacity until 1996. Under Schmidt's leadership, The Learning Company generated $350 million in annual revenues. He managed 700 employees in four locations and was responsible for product development, finance, legal, marketing, customer support and operations.

In 1997, Schmidt was named President/CEO of MECON Inc., a publicly-traded health care services provider. Following the two-year tenure at MECON, Schmidt was named Executive Vice President/CFO for Quokka Sports.

Born 7-31-54, Schmidt is a native of Newton, KS and attended Shawnee Mission West High in Overland Park, KS. He and his wife Joanne have three children, Caryn (12), Bryan (9), Taylor (6).

John McVay

VICE PRESIDENT/DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

John McVay is in his 20th season with the 49ers. As Vice President/Director of Football Operations he is responsible for managing many aspects of football operations, including contract negotiations, preseason scheduling and salary cap management, among many other duties. He returned to the 49ers in October of 1998 and has orchestrated the team's extensive efforts to get under the salary cap in each of the last three years.

McVay spent 17 years (1979-95) with the 49ers with administrative responsibilities, including Vice President and General Manager, Director of Player Personnel, Director of Football Operations, Vice President for Football Administration, Administrative Vice President and Assistant to the President. During his tenure, the 49ers claimed five Super Bowl titles, three with Bill Walsh and two with George Seifert. He was named

The Sporting News NFL Executive-of-the-Year in 1989, following the team's fourth Super Bowl.

He came to the 49ers after three seasons with the New York Giants (1976-78) and two years as the Head Coach and General Manager of the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League, where his teams were 24-7 during the 1974 and '75 seasons. During his tenure with the Giants, McVay was elevated to head coach after seven games in 1976 and he led the Giants to three consecutive wins over long-time nemesis the Washington Redskins. McVay retired from the 49ers February 1, 1996 and returned to the team October 20, 1998.

McVay's coaching career included nine years of high school football in Ohio: three years at Lancaster High, one year at Franklin High and five years at Canton Central Catholic High, where he compiled a 41-7 record.

From the prep ranks, he became an assistant on Duffy Daugherty's Michigan State staff (1962-64) before taking over at Dayton prior to joining the WFL. He was Head Coach (1965-73) and Athletic Director (1972-73) at Dayton, where he led the 1966 Flyers to their first winning season (8-2) in 10 years.

Born in Bellaire, OH and a product of the famous high school football town of Massillon, OH, McVay was an All-Ohio center as a Massillon schoolboy. He was elected to the prestigious Massillon Hall of Fame in 1994.

An All-Midwest selection as a center at Miami University (known nationally as the "Cradle of Coaches") in Oxford, OH, he played for both Woody Hayes and Ara Parseghian. Hayes awarded McVay Miami's last available football scholarship, and John went on to become a team captain for the Redskins and ironically wore number 49. He is a member of that school's athletic Hall of Fame.

McVay's three sons all followed in his collegiate football footsteps. Jim, the Executive Director for college football's Outback (Steakhouse) Bowl in Tampa, FL, was quarterback/safety at Dayton; John Jr. played safety for Miami; and Tim, who was captain at Indiana, also played safety.

John, and his wife, Susan, live in Granite Bay, CA.

GROUND FORCE

San Francisco is the second rated rushing team in the NFL over the last three years with 6,440 yards:

Denver Broncos	6,656
San Francisco 49ers	6,440
Oakland Raiders	6,281
Pittsburgh Steelers	6,273
Jacksonville Jaguars	6,225

Bill Walsh

CONSULTANT

Bill Walsh, the man who took over a losing San Francisco 49ers team in 1979 and built it into the most successful NFL franchise over the last two decades, will provide his knowledge, experience and eye for talent to the 49ers as a Consultant. He stepped down as Vice President/General Manager May 2, 2001.

Walsh returned to the organization as Vice President/General Manager January 20, 1999 with a plan to correct San Francisco's salary cap problems and restock the roster with young, talented players. Under his leadership, the 49ers landed 11 players in the 2000 draft, including five rookie starters on defense, and have trimmed the salary cap overruns to manageable levels without sacrificing too much talent. It was the second time the Hall of Famer was able to right the 49ers ship.

Under Walsh's direction the 49ers experienced heights of victory never reached prior to his arrival as head coach in 1979. He was appointed the team's General Manager in 1982 and ascended to the role of President in 1985. During this period, Walsh was responsible for all major organizational decisions. During the 10-year tenure (1979-88), Walsh laid the foundation of success that the 49ers have achieved over the last 20 years, including the beginning (1983) of an unprecedented streak of 16 consecutive 10-win seasons.

Walsh was at the helm of one of the greatest success stories in the history of professional sports. In 1979, he took over a team that went 2-14 the previous season and transformed it into a Super Bowl champion in just three seasons. Under Walsh's direction, the 49ers won three Super Bowl titles (1981, '84 and '88), made seven NFC postseason appearances and claimed six NFC West division championships. He was twice named NFL Coach-of-the-Year (1981, 1984) and was later named NFL Coach-of-the-Decade for the 1980s.

Walsh became one of only 14 coaches in the history of professional football to be elected to the Hall of Fame, when he was enshrined in 1993. He compiled a .617 winning percentage with a 102-63-1 career record that included 10 wins in 14 postseason games. He was the first coach in team history to reach the 100-win plateau.

Walsh's first collegiate head coaching job came at Stanford in 1977, where he directed the Cardinal to a 17-7 record and captured wins in the Bluebonnet and Sun Bowls during his two-year tenure. Walsh returned to Stanford in 1992 and promptly led the Cardinal to a 10-3 record that concluded with a New Year's Day win over Penn State in the Blockbuster Bowl. It was the school's first New Year's Day bowl game victory in 21 years. He remained at Stanford through the 1994 season.

In 1994, Walsh was instrumental in the establishment and management of the World League of American Football, now known as NFL Europe. He has continued to serve the league as a consultant and representative in various NFL ventures.

Walsh's impact on the coaching industry is apparent by the rise of former assistants, players and people who have come under his influence, including Dennis Green, Mike Holmgren, Mike Shanahan, Ray Rhodes, Jeff Fisher, Sam Wyche, Rod Dowhower, Bruce Coslet, Sherman Lewis, Brian Billick, Gary Kubiak, George Seifert, Jon Gruden, Paul Hackett, Tom Holmoe, Dwaine Board, Bobb McKittrick, Bill McPherson, Tom Rathman, Harry Sydney and Tom Lovat.

In 1987, Walsh created the Minority Coaching Fellowship program that has produced, among others, Tyrone Willingham, Stanford's current head coach, Marvin Lewis, Baltimore's defensive coordinator and NFL assistants Bobby Turner, Don Martin and Don Treadwell. The NFL later adopted this Fellowship as a league-wide program.

After 10 seasons with San Francisco, Walsh joined NBC Sports in 1989 and teamed with award-winning announcer Dick Enberg for three seasons as the network's top analyst on NFL and Notre Dame telecasts.

Walsh earned a bachelor's degree (1955) and a master's in education (1959) from San Jose State. He is author of two books Finding the Winning Edge and Building a Champion.

Walsh and his wife, Geri, are the parents of three grown children: Steve, Craig and Elizabeth.

Ed Goines

VICE PRESIDENT OF BUSINESS AFFAIRS/GENERAL COUNSEL

Edward T. Goines is in his first season as Vice President of Business Affairs and General Counsel for the 49ers. In this capacity, Goines will oversee the 49ers' legal matters, provide strategic counsel to senior management and assist in growing the team's sales and marketing relationships.

Goines brings approximately 10 years of business and legal experience to the 49ers. Over the past decade, Goines has held senior positions in the legal and business affairs departments of several industry-leading companies, including Ticketmaster, Mattel, Inc., and Major League Soccer, L.L.C.

Most recently, Goines served as Vice President, Assistant General Counsel and Chief Privacy Officer of Ticketmaster Corporation, the world's leading ticketing service provider, selling 83 million tickets valued at more than $3.2 billion in 2000. While at Ticketmaster, Goines was responsible for the legal and business aspects of the company's online ticketing operations, including negotiation of Internet license, sponsorship and media agreements and establishing the company's consumer privacy standards.

Prior to Ticketmaster, from 1997-2000, Goines was Senior Counsel for Mattel, Inc., principally involved in negotiating and drafting license and sponsorship agreements relating to Mattel toys, software and other entertainment products involving the Barbie and Hot Wheels brands. He also managed the international prosecution and enforcement of Mattel's trademarks, copyrights and other intellectual property. In 1996-97, Goines was in-house counsel for Major League Soccer, L.L.C., responsible for structuring the soccer league's licensing and sponsorship arrangements and leading its anti-counterfeiting efforts.

In 1992, Goines began his legal career in the Los Angeles office of the Cleveland, Ohio-based national law firm of Baker & Hostetler. He is a graduate of the U.C. Berkeley-Boalt Hall School of Law and a 1988 graduate of Stanford University where he received a degree in political science. Born 12-29-65, Goines is a native of Hot Springs, AR.

David Goldman

VICE PRESIDENT OF BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT

David Goldman is in his first year as Vice President of Business Development for the 49ers. He will oversee several areas of the 49ers business operation, including sales and marketing, public and community relations, special events and game day presentation. He also will assist with the stadium development plans.

Goldman joins the 49ers with 14 years of experience in marketing and public relations, including the last six with the National Football League, where he has served as the Director of Club Marketing.

During his six years with the NFL, Goldman gained extensive experience with stadium development working closely with ownership groups in Tampa Bay, Cleveland, Tennessee and Houston to identify marketing opportunities, sponsorship and fan support during their transitional periods. He was instrumental in creating an effective stadium presentation in each of those cities, including Raymond James Stadium in Tampa, the site of Super Bowl XXXV.

Goldman joined the NFL in 1995 as a Senior Manager for Club Marketing. He was promoted to Director of Club Marketing in 1998. Providing support and business development ideas to each of the NFL's 32 clubs, Goldman was involved in team uniform design, sponsorship sales and local marketing program establishment.

Prior to the NFL, the Philadelphia native served for three years (1993-95) as Marketing Manager for TL Partnership in New York, where he worked extensively on sales initiatives and national retail for Pepsi.

After graduating from Fairleigh Dickinson University with a degree in marketing in 1987, Goldman worked for the Philadelphia 76ers as a marketing and public relations assistant in 1988. He was an Account Supervisor for the public relations agency Alan Taylor in New York from 1988-92, handling the event planning for specialty sports like pro beach volleyball, auto racing, arm wrestling and boxing. In 1992, Goldman joined the management team of former heavyweight champion Riddick Bowe, assisting Rock Newman with promotions and marketing. His initial exposure to the NFL came as a public relations/marketing intern for the Washington Redskins in 1986.

Born (2-5-65) in Philadelphia, PA, Goldman grew up in Cherry Hill, NJ and attended Cherry Hill High West. He and his wife, Deborah, reside in Menlo Park, CA.

Bill McPherson

DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

In 1999, Bill McPherson made the transition from the coaching staff to administration, taking over as the Director of Pro Personnel. McPherson handles the research of player movement and evaluation of talent in the NFL, as well as assisting with game plan formulation. He retired from coaching following the 1998 season.

McPherson served 20 years (1979-98) as an assistant coach for the 49ers. One of the most respected teachers in the game, his coaching capacities included assistant head coach, linebackers coach, defensive line coach, defensive coordinator and defensive assistant.

A defensive tackle at Santa Clara in the early '50s, McPherson began coaching in 1956 at his high school alma mater, San Jose's Bellarmine Prep (1956-62), following U.S. Army service in Korea.

He later was the defensive coordinator and defensive line coach at Santa Clara for 12 years (1963-74) before moving to UCLA as defensive line coach (1975-77).

At UCLA, he worked with Dick Vermeil, whom he later joined as an assistant with the Philadelphia Eagles (1978) as linebackers coach for one year before joining the 49ers in 1979.

"Mac" was inducted into Santa Clara's Athletic Hall of Fame as a player and coach (1984) and was appointed to the University's Board of Fellows in 1989. He holds a business degree from Santa Clara ('54) and a teacher's certification (secondary degree) from San Jose State ('58).

Born (10-24-31) in Santa Clara, CA, Bill and his wife, Elsie, have five grown children: Michael, Claire, Joanne, Marianne and Patrick, who works for the Denver Broncos as an Offensive Assistant. The couple lives in San Jose, CA.

Dominic Corsell

FOOTBALL OPERATIONS/SALARY CAP COORDINATOR

Dominic Corsell is in his 11th year with the San Francisco 49ers and his seventh as Football Operations/Salary Cap Coordinator.

In his current position, Corsell acts as the liaison between football operations and the team's business office. He is responsible for the management of player salaries as they relate to compliance with NFL salary cap rules, and the research of player movement and contract developments within the league in order to forecast league market values and trends. He also assists General Manager Terry Donahue and Director of Football Operations John McVay in player contract negotiations and general football administration.

Corsell spent six years working for the DeBartolo Corporation as an audit supervisor before joining the 49ers business office in 1990. He is a 1984 graduate of Youngstown State University with a bachelor's degree in business administration and accounting.

Born (8-11-61) in Youngstown, OH, Dominic, and his wife, Donna, reside in San Jose, CA.

DOUBLE DIGITS

Bill Walsh produced seven 10-win seasons during his 10-year NFL head coaching career. Reaching double-digit wins 70 percent of the time is the second highest success rate by an NFL coach in league history. George Seifert has produced eight 10-win seasons during his 10-year tenure.

MARIE P. DeBARTOLO SPORTS CENTRE

In loving memory of their mother, Marie P. DeBartolo, San Francisco 49ers' Owner Denise DeBartolo York and her brother, Edward J. DeBartolo Jr., dedicated the team's training facility and office complex in August 1988.

Situated on an 11-acre site in Santa Clara, CA (approximately 40 miles south of 3Com Park), the complex provides players, coaches and staff with all the necessary components for daily practices, weekly game preparations and general overall operations in one functional, state-of-the-art setting.

From its master blueprint to the smallest of details, the facility exemplifies the DeBartolos' strive for perfection and drive for superiority. It also reflects their dedication to the organization and first-class standard for operating procedures.

Three natural grass practice fields, with underground drainage and watering systems, allow for workouts in all Northern California weather conditions.

A two-story, 52,000 square-foot building (more than three times the space the 49ers had in Redwood City) houses all offices and facilities with the exception of the ticket and stadium operations, which remain at 3Com Park. Located upstairs at the facility are offices for coaches, administration, marketing, business operations, public relations, pro scouting and college scouting.

The ground floor contains a spacious dressing room area with 60 permanent lockers and allocations for extra (portable) lockers to be used during mini-camps when squads are larger.

A well-equipped weight room and training area downstairs accommodates both preventative and rehabilitative conditioning. A 30-by-40-foot hydro-therapy indoor swimming pool is also available.

Also located downstairs are numerous meeting rooms, each featuring a video cassette projector, allowing players and coaches the opportunity to analyze previous games, practice sessions and upcoming opponents.

Media facilities include two interview rooms, a sizable workroom, alongside a 120-seat auditorium and conference room (wired for live television broadcasts from the site), making the set-up ideally suited for weekly press conference coverage and daily reporting duties. Located just outside the media workroom is a canopied patio area used for team meals, press luncheons and other team-related activities.

UNBEAT-A-BOWL

With a 5-0 mark in the Super Bowl, the 49ers own the best record in the history of the NFL's biggest game. San Francisco is one of four unbeaten teams in Super Bowl play, and the only unbeaten in multiple appearances. The Chicago Bears, New York Jets and Baltimore Ravens are each 1-0. The 49ers are 5-1 in league title games if you count the 21-7 loss to Cleveland in the 1949 AAFC Championship Game.

Steve Mariucci HEAD COACH

Steve Mariucci enters his fifth season as the head coach for the San Francisco 49ers. The former college quarterback has posted a 35-29 (.547) record during his tenure with the 49ers. He is the 13th head coach in team history.

During his four years with the 49ers, Mariucci has had to deal with enormous turnover on the roster. In the 2000 season he started as many as seven rookies on defense, including five at one time. Despite the constant change and adversity, Mariucci has not only maintained a positive disposition, but has directed one of the most explosive offenses in the NFL. Since 1997, the 49ers rank third in the NFL in total offense, trailing only Denver and Minnesota. His teams have led the league in rushing twice (1998-99), ranked number one in total offense in 1998, averaged 24.0 points per game during his four years and have been efficient in handling the football. The 49ers have averaged just 1.578 turnovers per game since Mariucci took over, ranking him fourth for fewest giveaways per game in NFL history.

Mariucci set an NFL record for the fastest start at home in league history, winning his first 18 games, eclipsing the 13-0 mark John Madden had with Oakland in 1969-70. Overall, Mariucci has a 25-9 mark at 3Com, including playoffs. He is one of only three coaches in league history to win 12-or-more games in each of his first two seasons, and his 25 wins in those two seasons rank as the second-best two-year mark in league history, trailing only George Seifert's 28-4 record.

Mariucci's 2000 team was highlighted by the individual performances of Jeff Garcia, Charlie Garner and Terrell Owens. Garcia set a team record with 4,278 yards passing and earned his first career Pro Bowl nomination. Garner earned his first trip to Hawaii after finishing with 1,142 yards rushing, including a team-record 201 yards at Dallas and a career-high 687 yards receiving. Owens was named First-Team All-Pro after posting a team-high 97 receptions for 1,451 yards and 13 touchdowns. He shattered Tom Fears' 50-year NFL record for most catches in a game with 20 for 283 yards vs. Chicago. Owens joined Garcia and Garner as a Pro Bowl selection as well.

The 2000 49ers ranked fourth in the NFL in total offense and were one of only two teams (Indianapolis) to have a 4,000-yard passer, 1,000-yard rusher and 1,000-yard receiver. Defensively, the 49ers' young crew improved over the last half of the season. In the last six games, the defense allowed opposing offenses fewer than 10 points on three occasions, including the team's first shutout since 1998. CB Ahmed Plummer, one of seven rookies who started at least one game for San Francisco in 2000, earned All-Rookie honors from two separate publications.

In 1999, Mariucci directed the league's top rated rushing offense for the second consecutive year with 2,095 yards rushing. The 49ers became the first team since 1991-92 (Buffalo) to lead the NFL in rushing two years in a row. Defensively, two players, Bryant Young and Lance Schulters, were invited to the Pro Bowl. Young also was named Comeback Player-of-the-Year by Associated Press after a remarkable recovery from a career-threatening leg injury suffered against the New York Giants (11-30-98).

Despite a disappointing 4-12 season, Mariucci was able to resurrect a running game that lost Pro Bowler Garrison Hearst before the season began. Under Mariucci's guidance, newly-acquired RB Charlie Garner's 1,764 yards of total offense ranked second in the NFC and third in the NFL. His 1,229 rushing yards ranked fourth-best for a single-season performance in team history.

Mariucci's 1998 squad had the NFL's top-rated offense and became the only team since the merger in 1970 to lead the league in gross passing yards and rushing yards in the same season. The 49ers led the league in nine different categories, including total offense, rushing yards, gross passing yards and first downs, while breaking four team records. San Francisco led the NFL and set a team record with 6,801 yards of total offense, breaking the previous mark (6,435) set in 1993. They led the NFL and set a team record with an average of 425.1 yards per game, the second best in league history. The 49ers also set team records and led the NFL with 2,544 yards rushing and 381 first downs.

In addition to team accomplishments, Mariucci's 1998 troops put together a number of outstanding individual performances, including five Pro Bowl selections. Garrison Hearst led NFC running backs in three rushing categories: longest run (96t), yards in a game (198) and average yards per attempt (5.1); Steve Young threw a career-high 36 touchdown passes and completed 322-of-517 passes for a career-high 4,170 yards; and Young and Jerry Rice combined to become the NFL's all-time QB-WR scoring tandem, breaking the record of 79 held by Dan Marino and Mark Clayton.

In his inaugural year, Mariucci posted a 13-3 record in 1997 and led the 49ers to the NFC West title for the 13th time in a 17-year span, tying a league record (Chicago Bears) in the process for fastest to a division title by sealing it up in Game 11. He became one of 13 head coaches since the NFL-AFL merger in 1970 to lead his team to a division title in his first season, and only the fourth to accomplish the feat directly out of the college ranks. Mariucci is the only head coach ever to lead his team to the NFC Championship Game one year removed from college and is one of only three active head coaches (George Seifert and Dick Vermeil) to have coached two Pro Bowl QBs, two Pro Bowl RBs and two Pro Bowl WRs. With 13 regular season wins in his first season, Mariucci ranked second all-time in wins for a rookie head coach. He established an NFL record for consecutive wins by a rookie head coach with an 11-game winning streak.

Mariucci joined the 49ers staff January 16, 1997 after spending one season as head coach at the University of California. In 1996, he led a young Cal team to a 6-5 regular season record and a trip to the Aloha Bowl. His implementation of the West Coast offense helped the Bears average 457.6 yards per game, including a school record 321.5 through the air. Also under Mariucci's guidance was Kansas City's 1997 fourth-round pick, Pat Barnes, who set eight Pac-10 records and 30 Cal records.

Prior to joining the Cal staff, Mariucci was quarterbacks coach for the Green Bay Packers from 1992-95, tutoring the likes of three-time MVP Brett Favre, Mark Brunell, Ty Detmer and Kurt Warner.

During his college days, Mariucci led Northern Michigan on the greatest turnaround in college football history. After posting an 0-10 record in 1974, Mariucci directed the Wildcats to a 13-1 record and the 1975 NCAA Division II National Championship. The two-time All-America quarterback (1976-77) was voted the team MVP for three consecutive seasons, establishing 14 school passing records prior to his graduation in 1977.

Steve began his coaching career at his alma mater (1978-79), serving as the quarterbacks and running backs coach, then moved on to Cal State Fullerton as the quarterbacks and special teams coordinator (1980-82). For the next two seasons, Mariucci was the assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at Louisville (1983-84) before accepting his first pro position in 1985 with the USFL's Orlando Renegades as receivers coach. Later that fall, he had a brief stint at the Los Angeles Rams as quality control coach, and then transferred to the University of Southern California in '86 to accept the receivers/special teams coordinator post.

After a year at USC, Mariucci spent the next five years at Cal as the team's wide receivers and special teams coach (1987-89), then as offensive coordinator (1990-91). In 1991, his offense led the Bears to a 10-2 record and a No. 7 national ranking. Mariucci joined the Packers in 1992 and spent four seasons as quarterbacks coach under Mike Holmgren. Mariucci was elected into Northern Michigan University Hall of Fame in 1988 and elected into the Upper Peninsula of Michigan Hall of Fame in 1995.

A native of Iron Mountain, MI, Steve was born November 4, 1955. He and his wife, Gayle, have four children: sons, Tyler (11-28-84), Adam (8-23-86), Stephen (2-3-89) and daughter, Brielle (9-19-95).

Mariucci's coaching background: 1978-79 (Northern Michigan), 1980-82 (Cal State-Fullerton), 1983-84 (Louisville), 1985 (Orlando Renegades, USFL), 1985 (Los Angeles Rams), 1986 (Southern California), 1987-91 (California), 1992-95 (Green Bay Packers), 1996 (California), 1997-curr. (49ers).

JERRY ATTAWAY PHYSICAL DEVELOPMENT COORDINATOR

Jerry Attaway, in his 19th season as coordinator for physical development, supervises the team's weight/exercise training and the dietary/nutritional needs of the players.

Attaway came to the 49ers following five years in a similar capacity at the University of Southern California (1978-82). During his first three years at USC, he was the assistant offensive line coach, as well as coordinator for physical development.

A product of UC Davis and Sacramento State, Attaway transferred to Sacramento State after an injury ended his football career.

Collegiately, he served as an assistant coach at UC Davis (1970-72), the College of Idaho (1973-75) and Utah State (1976-77), prior to his

USC coaching stint.

After earning a degree in physical education and biology from Sacramento State in 1972, Attaway received his master's degree in education, with an emphasis in guidance and counseling, from the College of Idaho in '74. He often conducts health workshops that focus on weight loss and nutrition.

Born in Susanville, CA (1-3-46), Jerry and his wife, Cheryl, live in San Jose, CA.

Attaway's coaching background: 1970-72 (UC Davis), 1973-75 (College of Idaho), 1976-77 (Utah State), 1978-82 (Southern California), 1983-curr. (49ers).

TOM BATTÀ TIGHT ENDS

Tom Batta is in his third season with the 49ers as tight ends coach and in his 18th year as an NFL coach.

Batta's 2000 tight ends squad included fourth-year player Greg Clark, who again established a career-high in receptions (38). Clark improved on his previous career-highs, which he set in 1999, under the tutelage of Batta.

San Francisco represents the fourth team Batta has worked for during his NFL coaching career, which began in 1984 as defensive line coach for the Minnesota Vikings. He served as special teams coach for Bud Grant in 1985 before taking over as tight ends/special teams coach under Jerry Burns from 1986-91. Batta handled special teams on Dennis Green's staff from 1992-93.

After a 10-year stint in Minnesota, Batta joined the staff of the Indianapolis Colts in 1994 as special teams coach and was moved to tight ends/quality control coach from 1995-97. He was quality control coach for Pittsburgh in 1998.

Batta entered the collegiate coaching ranks at Akron University in 1973 after leading Warren Harding High in Warren, OH, to a state championship. He moved to Colorado as defensive line coach from 1974-78. He served as defensive coordinator at Kansas (1979-82) and North Carolina State (1983) before jumping to the NFL in 1984.

Before becoming a coach, Batta played three years on the offensive and defensive lines for Kent State from 1961-63. He earned his bachelor's degree in health and physical education at Kent State and a master's in education at Akron.

Batta was born (10-6-42) in Youngstown, OH. He and his wife, Liz, have two grown sons, Jeff and Tom.

Batta's coaching background: 1973 (Akron), 1974-78 (Colorado), 1979-82 (Kansas), 1983 (North Carolina State), 1984-93 (Minnesota Vikings), 1994-97 (Indianapolis Colts), 1998 (Pittsburgh Steelers), 1999-curr. (49ers).

CHRIS BEAKE DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Chris Beake is in his second year as a defensive assistant coach with the 49ers, following one season as the team's defensive quality control coach. He spent the previous year as a pro personnel assistant with the team.

Beake assists linebackers coach Richard Smith, working this past season in the development of the 49ers young linebackers Julian Peterson and Jeff Ulbrich.

Beake was a Civil Engineer Officer for the Air Force from 1995-98, designing and managing contract work at Eglin Air Force Base in Florida, among others. While a lieutenant, Beake was a graduate assistant coach for the Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs, CO, where he assisted the defensive coordinator and helped with the defensive backs from 1994-95.

A graduate of the Air Force Academy in 1994, Beake earned his bachelor's degree in civil engineering. He received a master's degree in business administration from the University of West Florida in 1997.

Born (9-10-72) in Kansas City, MO, Beake and his wife, Andrea, reside in Mountain View, CA.

Beake's coaching background: 1994-95 (Air Force), 1999-curr. (49ers).

DWAINE BOARD DEFENSIVE LINE

One of the 49ers' all-time sack leaders, Dwaine Board is in his 12th season with the team, his eighth as defensive line coach. Board spent four years as the team's defensive line assistant, working primarily with the team's nickel defense and the "elephant" spot, a combination lineman-linebacker, prior to his promotion in February of '94.

In 2000, Board's defensive line was anchored by veteran DTs Bryant Young and Brentson Buckner, who combined for 16.5 sacks. Board, who lost DE Junior Bryant to a neck injury in the third game of the season, tutored rookie linemen Cedric Killings, John Miley and John Engelberger, who started the final 13 games in place of Bryant.

DT Bryant Young was the bright spot of Board's 1999 defensive line. Returning to the starting lineup after a career-threatening injury in '98, Young was voted Comeback-Player-of-the-Year by Associated Press and was invited to his second Pro Bowl. His 11.0 sacks in '99 moved Young into fifth place on the 49ers all-time sack list with 48.0.

Under Board's tutelage, the 1998 defensive unit recorded 51.0 sacks to rank second in the NFL. Individual performances included Chris Doleman who tied for second in the NFC and third in the NFL with 15.0 sacks. In 1997 Board was a factor in developing the NFL's Defensive Player-of-the-Year in Dana Stubblefield, who led the team with a career-high 15.0 sacks.

A member of three world championship 49er teams, Board recorded 61.0 career sacks and eight more in the postseason from 1979-88. His four tackles, two sacks and constant pressure in Super Bowl XIX, earned him Defensive Player-of-the-Game honors in San Francisco's 38-16 win over Miami.

A graduate of Franklin County (VA) High, Board was a three-time All-America selection at North Carolina A&T and a fifth-round draft choice of the Steelers in 1979.

Following his release by Pittsburgh, Board signed with the 49ers and registered a team-leading seven sacks as a rookie in '79. He retired following the '88 campaign, after joining the Saints midseason.

Born in Rocky Mount, VA (11-29-56), "Pee Wee" and his wife, Lynne, have three daughters: Camille (6-11-89), Allie (1-21-91) and Tessa Raine (3-22-95). The family lives in Redwood City, CA.

Board's coaching background: 1990-curr. (49ers).

BRUCE DEHAVEN SPECIAL TEAMS

Bruce DeHaven is in his second year with San Francisco. He joined the 49ers coaching staff after spending 13 seasons with the Buffalo Bills.

In his first season, DeHaven helped with the development of second-year P Chad Stanley. Over the last five games he improved from 38.3 yards a punt to an average of 42.0 yards. The coverage units were filled with new faces. Six special teams players totaled double-digit tackles in 2000, and three of those six were in their first year with the 49ers.

During his tenure in Buffalo, the Bills made four consecutive Super Bowl appearances, won six AFC East championships and appeared in 20 playoff games. In those 13 years, DeHaven helped develop two of the greatest special teams players in NFL history: Mike Pike and Steve Tasker. Under DeHaven's tutelage, Tasker was invited to seven Pro Bowls as the AFC's Special Teams Player and was voted the 1993 Pro Bowl MVP. In 1996, The Dallas Morning News, in a ranking of the 19 most important statistical categories, named the Bills special teams unit the best in the NFL. His 1991 punt coverage unit led the NFL in fewest punt return yards allowed, the lowest total since the NFL changed the rules allowing only the ends to release on punt coverage when the ball is snapped. DeHaven also guided the Bills' kickoff coverage unit to a No. 1 ranking in the NFL four consecutive years (1987-90).

Prior to joining the Bills' staff in 1987, DeHaven spent the previous 15 years in various coaching capacities. He spent three seasons with the USFL as running backs and special teams coach with the Orlando Renegades (1985), special teams coach and offensive line coach for the Pittsburgh Maulers ('84), and with the New Jersey Generals as special teams and assistant offensive line coach ('83).

DeHaven served as offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator at New Mexico State University in 1982, before breaking into the pro ranks. From 1979-81, he coached at the University of Kansas, working with the defensive backs, offensive line, as well as heading up the recruiting program. He spent nine years as a high school coach prior to joining the college ranks. As an assistant at Wichita Southeast High School, he helped lead the school to three straight football titles.

An avid St. Louis Cardinals baseball fan, DeHaven was born in Trousdale, KS (9-6-48). He played eight-man football at Belpre-Trousdale (KS) High. A graduate of Southwestern College (KS), DeHaven was a basketball standout, leading the team in scoring two consecutive years. He also participated in track and field. Bruce and his wife, Kathy, have a son, Tobin Scott (3-17-97) and a daughter, Annie Maude (3-23-99). The family resides in Livermore, CA.

DeHaven's coaching background: 1979-81 (Kansas), 1982 (New Mexico State), 1983 (New Jersey Generals, USFL), 1984 (Pittsburgh Maulers, USFL), 1985 (Orlando Renegades, USFL), 1987-1999 (Buffalo Bills), 2000-curr. (49ers).

TERRELL JONES STRENGTH DEVELOPMENT COORDINATOR

Terrell Jones is in his second season with the 49ers. His primary role with the team focuses on the area of strength training.

Jones joined the 49ers full-time in the middle of the 2000 season. He had served as an intern for the 49ers for three years (1997, 1999-2000) prior to taking on the role full-time.

Before coming to the 49ers, Jones was the strength and conditioning coach at San Jose City College from 1998-00.

Born (4-25-61) in Chicago, IL, Jones was raised in Duluth, MN. He attended San Jose State and received a degree in kinesiology in 1998. He is single and resides in San Jose, CA.

Jones' coaching background: 1998-00 (San Jose City College), 2000-curr. (49ers).

GREG KNAPP OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Greg Knapp is in his seventh season with the 49ers and his first as offensive coordinator. Prior to this season, Knapp spent three seasons as quarterbacks coach, and spent the previous three years as the team's offensive quality control coach. Knapp inherits the reigns of the 49ers offense that was ranked fourth in the NFL in total offense last season.

Under Knapp's guidance in 2000, QB Jeff Garcia set a new team record with 4,278 passing yards in a single season. Garcia, who was handling the full-time starting duties for the first time in his NFL career, finished the season fifth in the NFL with a 97.6 quarterback rating. He completed 355-of-561 passes with 31 touchdowns and only 10 interceptions, and earned the NFL's Most Improved Player Award.

The quarterback front had its share of adversity in '99, but Knapp was instrumental in keeping continuity at the position. Steve Young, out for the season in Week 3, was replaced by Garcia. The former CFL quarterback started 10 games and finished the season with a 77.9 QB rating (225-of-375 passes for 2,544 yards and 11 touchdowns). Garcia closed the '99 season by completing 26-of-34 passes for 373 yards and two touchdowns at Atlanta. He posted a 98.3 rating over the final five games, third highest in the NFL.

In 1998, Knapp played a key role in Steve Young reaching career-highs in touchdown passes (36) and passing yards (4,170). Young finished the season with a 101.1 quarterback rating, ranking over 100 for the sixth time in his career.

Knapp spent nine years on the coaching staff at Sacramento State University, serving as running backs coach (1986-89), receivers coach (1989-90) and offensive coordinator/assistant head coach (1991-94).

A collegiate quarterback at Sacramento State, he was one of the most prolific signal callers in that school's history. He ranks among the Hornets' career leaders with better than 3,800 passing yards and 32 touchdown passes. He participated in training camps of the Kansas City Chiefs in 1986, the Los Angeles Raiders from 1987-90 and the San Francisco 49ers from 1992-94.

Born (3-5-63) in Seal Beach, CA, he and his wife, Starla, have one daughter, Jordan.

Knapp's coaching background: 1986-94 (Sacramento State), 1995-curr. (49ers).

BRETT MAXIE ASSISTANT SECONDARY

Brett Maxie is in his third year with the 49ers as assistant secondary coach. He joined the 49ers after spending the '98 season as a defensive backs/defensive quality control coach with the Carolina Panthers. Maxie assists Jim Mora in coaching the secondary, as well as other areas of defensive preparation.

In 2000, Maxie helped tutor the 49ers young secondary, which included four rookies - CB Ahmed Plummer, CB Jason Webster, S John Keith and S Ronnie Heard.

A 13-year veteran of the NFL, Maxie spent nine seasons with the New Orleans Saints (1985-93), one with Atlanta ('94) and two with Carolina (1995-96). Maxie was the first player to ever record an interception with Carolina and had a career-high six picks in '95 with the Panthers. Maxie closed his playing career in San Francisco ('97), finishing his career with 23 interceptions.

Maxie graduated in 1985 with a degree in biology from Texas Southern, where he played safety. Maxie originally planned to attend optometry school before signing as an undrafted free agent with New Orleans.

Born (1-13-62) in Dallas, TX, Brett and his wife, Angela, have four children: sons, Brett (7-14-92) and Adam (11-18-93), and daughters, Maya (11-21-95) and Olivia (4-15-97). The family resides in San Jose, CA.

Maxie's coaching background: 1998 (Carolina Panthers), 1999-curr. (49ers).

JIM MORA DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Jim Mora is in his fifth year with the 49ers, and third as defensive coordinator. Mora spent the first two years as the 49ers defensive backs coach.

In 2000, Mora's defense started seven different rookies, including four who started seven or more games. The 49ers young defense saw marked improvement from the first half of the season to the second half. In the first eight games, the defense allowed 30.5 points a game. In the final eight, the defense allowed only 20.5 points a game, which included the team's first shutout since 1998, a 17-0 blanking of Chicago. Mora tutored many of the young defenders, including CB Ahmed Plummer, who was named to the All-Rookie Team by Pro Football News Weekly and Pro Football News.

Despite the many line-up changes in his '99 defensive unit, Mora developed two Pro Bowlers (DT Bryant Young and FS Lance Schulters) and tutored his troops to a team-tying record five touchdowns. Young, coming back from a career-threatening broken leg (11-30-98), not only was selected to his second Pro Bowl, but was named second-team All-Pro and was named Comeback-Player-of-the-Year by Associated Press. Schulters finished second in the NFC in interceptions (6) and his 127 return yards tied for third in the NFL.

Mora's secondary unit tied for first in the NFC and fourth in the NFL with 21 interceptions in 1998, including four players who were credited with four picks apiece. During Mora's first season, the 49ers ranked second in the NFL in passing defense and were tied for second in the league with 25 interceptions.

Mora played defensive back for the University of Washington from 1980-83, appearing in two Rose Bowls with the Huskies. Following graduation, he served one season (1984) on Don James' staff as an assistant, helping the squad earn a berth in the Orange Bowl.

In 1985, Mora joined the San Diego Chargers in their pro personnel department before being named a defensive assistant in the secondary from 1986-88. He became the Chargers' defensive backs coach in 1989 and served in that capacity for three seasons.

Mora was named as the secondary coach for the Saints in 1992. During his five-year tenure in New Orleans (1992-96), the team twice led the NFL in fewest passing yards allowed (1992-93).

Born (11-19-61) in Los Angeles, CA, Mora attended Interlake High in Bellevue, WA. He is the son of Jim Mora, head coach of the Indianapolis Colts (1997-curr.) and former head coach of the Saints from 1986-96. He and his wife, Shannon, have three children: Cole (1-7-95), Lillia (8-19-96) and Ryder (1-11-99). The family lives in Los Gatos, CA.

PATRICK MORRIS OFFENSIVE LINE

Patrick Morris is in his fifth year with the 49ers, his third as offensive line coach. He spent the previous two years as tight ends/assistant offensive line coach.

In 2000, the offensive line was one of the tops in the league again. The line allowed only 25 sacks all season, which was the third lowest in the NFL behind Indianapolis and the New York Jets (20). The offensive line also helped RB Charlie Garner rush for 1,142 yards, becoming only the fourth 49ers running back to rush for 1,000 yards in back-to-back seasons. It was also the line's fourth straight year with a 1,000-yard rusher.

Despite a season filled with rotating offensive linemen in 1999, Morris' line helped pave the way for Garner to achieve career-highs in rushing yards (1,229) and total offense (1,764). Behind this group, the 49ers led the NFL in rushing for the second consecutive season with 2,095 yards.

In 1998, Morris was instrumental in the development of '97 third-round pick TE Greg Clark, who he also coached collegiately at Stanford.

Prior to joining the pro ranks, Morris accumulated 19 years of coaching experience on the collegiate level. He worked at Stanford University (1995-96) coaching the offensive line (tackles and tight ends) prior to joining Steve Mariucci's staff in '97.

A 1976 graduate of the University of Southern California, Morris began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater from 1976-77. He then spent one season at Northern Arizona in 1978. Following the stint at NAU, he handled offensive line duties at the University of Minnesota (1979-82), USC (1983-86) and Michigan State (1987-94) prior to joining Stanford's staff in 1995.

Morris has been associated with five Rose Bowl victories and two National Championships during his football playing and coaching career: 1973 and '75 Rose Bowls and National Championships as a player at USC, 1977 and '85 Rose Bowls as a coach at USC, and 1988 Rose Bowl as a coach at Michigan State University.

Born in Cleveland, OH (4-7-54), Patrick and his wife, Kathy, reside in Mountain View, CA.

Morris' coaching background: 1976-77 (Southern California), 1978 (Northern Arizona), 1979-82 (Minnesota), 1983-86 (Southern California), 1987-94 (Michigan State), 1995-96 (Stanford), 1997-curr. (49ers).

GREG OLSON QUARTERBACKS

Greg Olson is in his first season as the 49ers' quarterbacks coach. Olson comes to the 49ers from Purdue, where he spent the past four seasons in the same capacity.

Olson was instrumental in the development of Purdue quarterback Drew Brees, who was a two-time Big Ten Player-of-the-Year and a two-time Heisman Trophy finalist in 1999 and 2000. Brees ended his career at Purdue in 2000 as the nation's leader in total offense (358 yards per game), taking the Boilermakers to the Rose Bowl for the first time since 1967. He owns nearly every Purdue and Big Ten passing record. In 1998 against Wisconsin, Brees set an NCAA record with 83 pass attempts and tied another record with 55 completions in that same game. In his first season at Purdue, Olson tutored

QB Billy Dicken, helping him earn All-Big Ten honors in 1997. Dicken led the Big Ten in passing and led the Big Ten and was 10th nationally in total offense with 290.6 yards per game.

Prior to joining the Boilermakers staff, Olson spent three seasons coaching the quarterbacks at Idaho, including the nation's second-rated passer in 1996, Ryan Fien. Fien and the Idaho offense were fourth in the nation in passing yards (344 yards per game) and fifth in the nation in total offense (482.4 yards per game) in 1996.

Olson, the starting quarterback at Central Washington in 1983-84, spent four seasons as the offensive coordinator at his alma mater, where he tutored current Cincinnati Bengals quarterback Jon Kitna. He also was the wrestling coach at Central Washington and led the squad to a sixth-place finish nationally in his final season.

Born (3-1-63) in Richland, WA, Olson and his wife, Lissa, reside in Santa Clara, CA.

Olson's coaching background: 1987-89 (Washington State), 1990-93 (Central Washington), 1994-96 (Idaho), 1997-00 (Purdue), 2001 (49ers).

TOTAL YARDS

Quarterback Jeff Garcia accounted for 4,692 combined yards during the 2000 season (4,278 passing, 414 rushing). With that total, he was responsible for 75.6% of San Francisco's total offense, and was the top ranked player in the NFL for combined yardage.

DAN QUINN DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

Dan Quinn is in his first season with the 49ers as defensive quality control coach. He joins the 49ers after spending five years coaching at Hofstra.

Quinn spent five years coaching the Pride defensive line, serving double duty in his final season as the defensive coordinator. The 1999 Hofstra defense ranked 24th in rushing yards allowed per game. In his first year, the Pride (Flying Dutchmen) ranked fifth in rushing defense (94 yards per game) and total defense (258.8 yards per game), and ranked sixth in scoring defense, averaging 12.5 points per game.

Prior to joining the Hofstra staff, Quinn spent one season coaching the defensive tackles at Virginia Military Institute. He also served as the recruiting coordinator at VMI. Quinn worked as a graduate assistant for the defensive line at the College of William and Mary prior to VMI.

Quinn, a four-year starter at linebacker, defensive end and defensive tackle at Salisbury State University, also was a four-year letterwinner in track and field.

Born (9-11-70) in Orange, NJ, Quinn and his wife, Stacey, reside in Santa Clara, CA.

Quinn's coaching background: 1994 (College of William & Mary), 1995 (VMI), 1996-00 (Hofstra), 2001 (49ers).

TOM RATHMAN RUNNING BACKS

Tom Rathman is in his fifth year as the 49ers' running backs coach. A nine-year veteran of the National Football League, Rathman is considered to be one of the most dedicated and consistent players to ever wear a 49ers' uniform.

In 2000, Rathman tutored RB Charlie Garner to his second consecutive 1,000-yard season and his first career Pro Bowl selection. Garner rushed for 1,142 yards on 258 carries and a career-high seven touchdowns during the 2000 campaign, joining Joe Perry (1953-54), Roger Craig (1988-89) and Garrison Hearst (1997-98) as the only 49ers running backs to rush for 1,000 yards in back-to-back seasons. Garner also was a receiving force, erasing his career-highs with 68 receptions for 647 yards and three touchdowns. Also under Rathman, third-year FB Fred Beasley continued to improve and helped Garner as his primary lead blocker. Beasley finished the season rushing for 147 yards on 50 carries, with three touchdowns. He also caught 31 passes for 233 yards and three touchdowns.

Under Rathman's direction in 1999, Garner ranked second in the NFC and third in the NFL in total offense (1,764 yards). He set career-highs in rushing yards (1,229), receptions (56) and receiving yards (535). Garner also was chosen as second alternate to the Pro Bowl. As a group, Rathman's backs led the league in rushing yards (2,095) and yards per carry (5.0).

Rathman's 1998 running back corps ranked first in the NFL with 2,544 rushing yards, also a team record. He tutored Garrison Hearst, who accomplished career-highs in every statistical category: rushing yards (1,570), attempts (310), receiving yards (535), rushing touchdowns (7) and total touchdowns (9). Hearst's 1,570 rushing yards ranked second in the NFC and third in the NFL and secured his first Pro Bowl invitation.

As a player, Rathman helped the 49ers capture two World Championships (Super Bowl XXIII and XXIV) and seven NFC West titles during his years as a 49er (1986-93). He totaled 4,392 yards from scrimmage and scored 34 touchdowns while playing in 113 games during his 49ers years. He also played one year (1994) with the Los Angeles Raiders.

A four-year letterman at the University of Nebraska, Rathman rushed for 1,425 yards and averaged over six yards per carry.

Prior to joining the 49ers staff, Rathman helped rebuild the Menlo College program by serving as the offensive coordinator in 1996 and coached the running backs at Serra High School (San Mateo) in 1995.

Born 10-7-62, Tom is a native of Grand Island, NE. He and his wife, Holly, have three daughters: Nicole Christine (10-25-86), Alexandra Elizabeth (2-10-89) and Samantha Lynn (5-11-92). The family lives in Redwood City, CA.

Rathman's coaching background: 1996 (Menlo College), 1996-curr. (49ers).

RICHARD SMITH LINEBACKERS

Richard Smith enters his 14th season as an NFL assistant coach and his fifth as the 49ers' linebackers coach.

The linebacking corps of the 2000 campaign were again led by 13-year veteran LB Ken Norton Jr., who extended his streak of consecutive games started to 160. Smith also tutored a young group of linebackers, including rookies Julian Peterson and Jeff Ulbrich. Peterson, despite missing three games with injury, finished third on the squad with four sacks and also grabbed two interceptions.

Smith's 1999 linebacking corps saw Norton lead the team in tackles (126), marking his fifth consecutive season with at least 125. In 1998, LB Winfred Tubbs earned a spot on the NFC Pro Bowl squad.

From 1993-96, Smith helped develop one of the league's top special teams corps in Denver, while assisting with the linebackers for two seasons (1994-95). Prior to coaching in Denver, Smith spent five seasons as special teams coach with the Houston Oilers (1988-92). During his tenure in Houston, Smith's special teams played a key role in helping the Oilers earn five consecutive playoff berths. Smith also assisted with the offensive line ('92), linebackers (1990-91) and tutored the tight ends (1988-89) with the Oilers.

In 1987, Smith spent one year at the University of Arizona coaching special teams and linebackers. Before that, he handled special teams and outside linebackers at California (1984-86). From 1981-83, Smith was defensive line coach at Cal State Fullerton, helping the Titans win the PCAA title in '83. He began his coaching career as the offensive line coach at Rio Hondo (CA) Junior College from 1979-80.

Born (10-17-55) in Los Angeles, CA, Smith played offensive line at Rio Hondo from 1975-76 before transferring to Fresno State in 1977. Smith helped the Bulldogs claim the 1977 PCAA title before graduating with a degree in physical education in '79.

Smith and his wife, Patti, have four children: daughters, Morgan (1-29-81), Aimee (2-24-89) and Whitney (8-23-91), and son, Travis (12-10-85).

GEORGE STEWART WIDE RECEIVERS

George Stewart is in his sixth year with the 49ers, his second as wide receivers coach, and 13th season as an NFL coach. He made the switch to receivers after serving four years (1996-99) as San Francisco's special teams coach.

In his first season in charge of the receivers, Stewart's crew was one of the best in the league. The receivers were led by Terrell Owens who earned his first ever Pro Bowl appearance. Owens set career-highs in receptions (97) and receiving yards (1,451) and also broke a 50-year old NFL record with 20 receptions in a game. With his 20 receptions against the Chicago Bears (12-17-00), Owens broke the previous record of 18 receptions set by Tom Fears on the L.A. Rams (12-3-50).

Considered to be one of the top assistant coaches in the National Football League, Stewart's 1999 special teams corps was highlighted by Wade Richey, who led the NFC and was third in the NFL with 17 touchbacks. He led the NFL in field goal accuracy hitting 21-of-23 (.913) and made 30-of-31 PATs.

In '98 Stewart helped develop Richey into an NFL kicker, as he finished third in the NFL and second in the NFC with 27 touchbacks. Richey also was named Special Teams Player-of-the-Week with three field goals vs. Green Bay in the NFC Wild Card Game. Stewart's 1998 kickoff coverage units improved to second-best in the NFL.

Stewart began his career as special teams coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1989-91. He also served double duty in Tampa Bay, handling the team's tight ends during three of his seasons (1992-94).

His coaching career began under the tutelage of Lou Holtz at Arkansas (1983), where he was a graduate assistant and coached the tight ends. He spent the next two seasons (1984-85) at Minnesota as offensive line coach. He later followed Holtz to Notre Dame (1986-88) before moving into the pro ranks.

An All-American and All-Southwest Conference selection as a guard at Arkansas, Stewart earned a bachelor's degree in business administration. Stewart is a native of Little Rock, AR.

ANDY SUGARMAN OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Andy Sugarman is in his fourth year with team and his second as offensive assistant. He spent his first two seasons as offensive quality control coach.

Sugarman joined Steve Mariucci's staff after spending seven years (1991-97) as an assistant to the offensive and special teams coaching staff at the University of California, Berkeley. He handles the computer operations (inputting game plans) and holds various on and off the field responsibilities for offense, including assisting tight ends coach Tom Batta. He also coordinates the scout teams for special teams coach Bruce DeHaven.

As a youngster, Sugarman was a Cal team manager while he was a student at Acalanes High School in Lafayette. His younger brother, Adam, is a cornerback at Cal.

Born 5-23-72, Andy is single and resides in San Francisco, CA

Sugarman's coaching background: 1991-1997 (California), 1998-curr. (49ers).

JASON TARVER OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

Jason Tarver is in his first season with the 49ers. Tarver will handle the offensive quality control duties.

Tarver joined the 49ers staff this season after spending three seasons as a graduate assistant coach with UCLA. In his three seasons with the Bruins, Tarver worked primarily with the defensive backfield and also assisted with special teams.

A Northern California native, Tarver played linebacker at Foothill High in Pleasanton. He was signed to play football at Santa Clara University. After the Broncos cut their program, Tarver stayed at Santa Clara but played football at West Valley College in 1994 and 1995. After a series of injuries cut his career short, Tarver spent the next two seasons as an assistant coach at West Valley in 1996-97.

Born (8-28-74) in Stanford, CA, Tarver earned a degree in chemistry from Santa Clara in 1997 and was a Phi Beta Kappa. Tarver is single and resides in Santa Clara, CA.

Tarver's coaching background: 1996-97 (West Valley College), 1998-2000 (UCLA), 2001 (49ers).

Personnel and Scouting

JIM ABRAMS

Jim Abrams is in his eighth year as a regional scout for the 49ers. He scouts the West region after spending his first two seasons as a scouting assistant.

A 1987 graduate of Kent University, Abrams served as a graduate assistant at UNLV (1988), Purdue (1989-90) and Ohio State (1991). At all three schools he served as linebackers coaching assistant.

Born in Warren, OH (10-12-62), Abrams attended McAteer High in San Francisco before attending City College (1981-82). He later transferred to Kent (1983-87), where he played free safety and earned a bachelor's degree in physical education.

Abrams and his wife, Penny, reside in Westlake, CA with their sons, Aleksandr James (8-23-95) and Sedrick Jameson (8-24-99).

JOHN BRUNNER

John Brunner is in his 11th season with the 49ers as a scout for the Midwest region.

He has 19 years experience as an NFL assistant coach and scout, including duties with Detroit (running backs coach, 1980-82), Green Bay (running backs coach, 1983), Tampa Bay (offensive coordinator, 1984), New England (scout, 1985-86) and Minnesota (running backs coach, 1987-91).

Brunner played college football at Maryland (1955-56) and East Stroudsburg State (1958-59). After earning his master's degree in physical education from East Stroudsburg in 1960, he coached high school and college football for 20 years, holding positions at Middletown (NY) High (1960-66), Villanova (1967-69), Temple (1970-73 & 1977-79) and Princeton (1974-75).

Born in Perkesie, PA (9-6-37), Brunner has seven children: Scott (former NFL quarterback), Jack, Penny, Jan, Jeff, Todd (area scout for the 49ers) and Mark. John and his wife, Pat, reside in Clearwater, FL.

TODD BRUNNER

Todd Brunner is in his second season with the 49ers as a scout for the East region.

Prior to coming to the 49ers, he spent one season with the Cleveland Browns as an area scout. He scouted the Northeast region for the Browns in 1999. Brunner came to the Browns from the Philadelphia Eagles, where he spent four seasons (1994-97) as an area scout for the Northeast region. He joined the Eagles as a scouting intern in 1992 and worked as a scouting assistant in 1993.

Brunner, a Lehigh University graduate in 1990, spent one season as a graduate assistant at Temple University in 1991.

Born (10-1-67) in Middletown, NY, Brunner is the son of 49ers area scout John Brunner. He and his wife, Nancy, have one daughter, Annie Elizabeth (2-3-99), and reside in Bordentown, NJ.

Personnel and Scouting

BRIAN GARDNER

Brian Gardner is in his seventh year with the 49ers as a scout for the Southwest region.

Prior to joining San Francisco in 1995, he spent three seasons as a scout for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

His football background includes time in the Arena Football League with the New Orleans Night franchise as both defensive coordinator and director of football operations. He also served as pro personnel director for the Washington Marauders of the professional spring football league.

Gardner played three seasons in the Arena Football League with New England, Pittsburgh and New York. He spent one season in the CFL with the Saskatchewan Rough Riders.

Gardner, 35, is a native of New Orleans. He played college football at Prairie View A&M, where he was a three-year letterman and graduated with a bachelor's degree in communications. Married, he and his wife, Vanessa, have two sons, Royal Jalvia (11-2-95) and Tyler J. (2-27-99), and live in LaPlace, LA.

JIM GRUDEN

Jim Gruden, a veteran of 33 professional and collegiate football seasons, is in his 16th year with San Francisco. Gruden is responsible for scouting the Southeast region for the 49ers.

Gruden came to the 49ers in 1987 following five seasons with Tampa Bay as director of player personnel (1984-86) and running backs coach (1982-83).

Born in Cleveland, OH, Jim joined the NFL ranks in '82, after 15 years of assistant collegiate coaching at Heidelberg (OH) College (1966-68), Dayton (1969-72), Indiana (1973-77) and Notre Dame (1978-80). He was with the Fighting Irish during Joe Montana's playing days, and at Dayton he was an assistant coach under John McVay.

Gruden and his wife, Kathy, have three adult sons: Jim (a radiologist in New York City), Jay (the Arena League's all-time leading passer and head coach of the Orlando Predators) and Jon (Oakland Raiders head coach). The couple lives in Tampa, FL.

OSCAR LOFTON

Oscar Lofton, who joined the 49ers' scouting staff in 1992, begins his 10th season with the club as a scout for the South region.

His football background includes six years as a scout for the National Football Scouting Combine (1986-92) and coaching stints at Holy Cross College (1963-66), Hammond (LA) High (1967-73) and Tulane (1973-79).

A three-sport athlete in football, basketball and track at Southeastern Louisiana, Lofton was enshrined into that school's Hall of Fame in 1960. He received his master's degree in physical education in 1966, and served SLU as athletic director (1979) and head coach (1980-85). He played three seasons (1960-61 & '63) for the Boston Patriots, missing the 1962 campaign while in the U.S. Army.

Born in McCall Creek, MS, Lofton and his wife, Billie Jean, have three grown sons (Kelly, Andy and Kyle) and seven grandchildren. The couple lives in Hammond, LA.

Personnel and Scouting

BILL REES

Bill Rees is in his first season with the San Francisco 49ers Personnel and Scouting department.

Rees joins the 49ers staff after four seasons as the Director of College Scouting for the Chicago Bears. While there, Rees oversaw a staff of six scouts and he helped produce successful drafts that generated 14 starters over the last three seasons. Prior to joining the Bears, Rees served as a regional scout for the Kansas City Chiefs. He was primarily responsible for scouting the college talent in the western United States.

The majority of Rees' experience came during his 15 years spent with UCLA (1979-93). Rees served as both an assistant football coach and as a recruiting coordinator for the Bruins, earning a reputation as one of the nation's top recruiters. While at UCLA, Rees signed 90 prep All-Americans, and helped the Bruins earn 12 bowl appearances and win five Pac-10 Championships.

Rees began his football career as an assistant with the Northwestern Wildcats for three seasons, coaching defensive backs for two seasons (1976-77) and running backs for one season (1978). He earned three letters as a quarterback at Ohio Wesleyan, and earned a master's degree in education from Northwestern in 1978.

Born 4-2-54, Rees and his wife, Susan, have three children (Danny, Meghan and Tommy).

JIM ZECHES

Jim Zeches is in his first season with the San Francisco 49ers Personnel and Scouting department.

Zeches joins the 49ers staff after spending 12 years in various positions with Washington State University. The past seven seasons Zeches has served as the recruiting coordinator for the Cougars. He originally joined the WSU staff in 1989 as defensive line coach and moved to outside linebackers from 1991-94. In addition to his coordinating duties, Zeches has coached the tight ends for the past two seasons.

A Los Angeles native, Zeches earned two varsity letters while playing center at Cal-State Northridge (1971-72). Following five years of coaching preps, Zeches served as a graduate assistant at UCLA from 1978-80 under 49ers General Manager Terry Donahue. Zeches joined Dennis Green's staff at Northwestern in 1981 coaching the defensive line until '86.

In 1987, Zeches began his 14-year tenure under Mike Price by taking the inside linebackers coaching spot on Price's Weber State staff. Zeches was hired as defensive line coach when Price was named the Cougars head coach in '89.

Born 10-4-50, Zeches and his wife, Kathy, have one son, Brian.

LINDSY MCLEAN HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Lindsay McLean, who has been an athletic trainer for 39 years, is in his 23rd season with the 49ers.

The team's head trainer since 1982, McLean joined the 49ers as co-trainer in 1979, following 11 years as head trainer at the University of Michigan (1968-78).

Besides working with Michigan's athletes (1961-62 and 1968-78), McLean also served as head trainer at UC Santa Barbara (1963-64) and San Jose State (1965-67). He was named United States Collegiate Trainer-of-the-Year in '76.

A Vanderbilt graduate (1960), McLean received his certification in physical therapy from Herman Hospital in Houston, TX in '61. He entered the training profession as an assistant at Michigan prior to joining the UC Santa Barbara staff.

McLean served as chairman of the National Athletic Trainers' Association (NATA) Certification Committee for 10 years, was a U.S. Olympic Team trainer for the '76 Winter Games and was inducted into the NATA's Hall of Fame in 1988. He also has served as chairman of NATA's sub-committee for its prestigious Most Distinguished Athletic Trainer Award.

Additionally, Lindsay has served on the NATA Grants and Scholarship Committee and served on the 50th Anniversary Task Force. He is a charter member of the Far West Athletic Trainers' Association Hall of Fame and is also a member of the Michigan Athletic Trainers' Society Hall of Fame.

Born in Nashville, TN (6-28-38), McLean is single and lives in Redwood City, CA.

TODD LAZENBY ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Todd Lazenby is in his sixth year as assistant athletic trainer. He joined the organization following five years with the HealthSouth Corporation in Orlando, FL, where he was the staff athletic trainer. During his tenure with HealthSouth (1991-95), Lazenby coordinated the HealthSouth golf program, covered high school athletics and treated patients in the clinic. He arrived with familiarity to the 49ers organization, having worked the team's 1990 training camp.

Prior to joining HealthSouth in 1991, Lazenby served as a graduate assistant on the training staff at Ohio State University in Columbus. While with the Buckeyes, he worked with a number of sports including the football, ice hockey and men's gymnastics teams, among a host of others.

Lazenby earned a bachelor's degree from Ohio State in health education and a master's degree in sports management. He is a certified member of the NATA.

He and his wife, Stevie, have a son, Caleb (8-3-95), and a daughter, Lilli (12-10-98). The family lives in Milpitas, CA.

JEFF TANAKA ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Jeff Tanaka is in his third year as an assistant athletic trainer. He spent the two previous years at the University of California, Berkeley in the same capacity.

Tanaka served four years in the professional ranks before his tenure at Cal, beginning with a training camp internship with the Los Angeles Raiders in 1994. He then spent two seasons as a graduate assistant with the 49ers (1995-96), before accepting a position as an assistant athletic trainer for the Amsterdam Admirals of NFL Europe in 1997.

After a one-year stint in Amsterdam, Tanaka spent the next three years at Cal, where he was head athletic trainer for men's basketball, the men's and women's swim teams, as well as an assistant for the football team.

Jeff received a bachelor's degree in physical education from Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo in 1994, and is in the process of completing his thesis at San Jose State University. As a student trainer at Cal Poly, Tanaka had experience with all 17 sports for the Mustangs, including football, basketball and women's volleyball. While serving his graduate assistantship through San Jose State, he was the first athletic trainer at Santa Teresa (CA) High, where he implemented the program and facility.

Born and raised in San Jose, CA (4-14-71), Tanaka graduated from Branham High. He is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association (NATA) and California Athletic Trainers' Association (CATA).

Jeff is single and resides in San Jose, CA.

KEVIN LARTIGUE EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Kevin Lartigue enters his fifth year with the 49ers, his fourth as the team's equipment manager. Lartigue served as assistant equipment manager in 1997 before being promoted to equipment manager during the '97 off-season. His background includes six years in the equipment department at his alma mater, Michigan State University.

"Tique" gained valuable experience at MSU, having spent the previous two and a half years (1994-97) as assistant equipment manager for Nick Saban's football program. Serving as student manager (1991-94) under the direction of head football coach George Perles, Lartigue was honored as Student Manager-of-the-Year in 1994.

Lartigue earned his bachelor's degree in advertising in 1994. A certified equipment manager, Lartigue is a member of the Athletic Equipment Managers' Association.

Born (11-16-67) in Lansing, MI, Kevin is single and resides in San Jose, CA.

TRADES FOR DRAFT CHOICES

Bill Walsh altered San Francisco's draft strategies by becoming the first to trade picks for additional picks. It had never been done in team history prior to Walsh's arrival. In 1975, the 49ers traded their selections in the 16th and 17th rounds for Baltimore's 15th and 16th picks in 1976. It was a straight two for two. Prior to 1980, it was always picks for players. Walsh made the change in 1980 by trading away four picks in exchange for eight. Walsh dealt selections in the first, second, third and eighth rounds in exchange for two picks in the first, a second, two thirds, a fourth, an eighth and ninth round choice. In 1986, he took the "new" strategy to another level. When the draft started on April 29, the 49ers had six picks. When it ended, they had selected 13 players, not including Roosevelt Snipes from the '95 Supplemental Draft. Walsh had acquired Larry Roberts, Tom Rathman, Tim McKyer, Charles Haley, Steve Wallace, Pat Miller, Don Griffin, Jim Popp and Harold Hallman via trades. It is a draft that has been compared with the best in NFL history.

ABOUT THE SAN FRANCISCO 49ERS FOUNDATION

The 49ers Foundation was established in July 1991 by the San Francisco 49ers as the team's community outreach division. It is dedicated to enhancing the educational, social and cultural needs of our community. The foundation offers unique resources and financial support to non-profit organizations working to enrich and strengthen communities throughout the greater San Francisco Bay Area.

Just as the San Francisco 49ers take pride in their drive for victories, the 49ers Foundation takes great pride in playing an active role in Bay Area communities. The exceptional support received from 49er fans throughout the Bay Area inspires the team to give back to the community. The foundation serves the Bay Area through active involvement in programs that enhance the quality and well-being of both youth and adults. It offers numerous community programs, in-kind services and the personal involvement of the players, coaches and front office staff. The money raised by the 49ers Foundation is allocated through grants to local Bay Area charities.

Mission Statement: To enhance the educational, health, social and cultural needs of our community by offering unique resources and financial support to non-profit organizations.

The 49ers Foundation enables individuals and corporations to make contributions often as a tax deduction to help those in need of assistance in our community. Participation in one of several outstanding events or programs through charitable donations is a win-win for everyone.

Through a combination of new and established events such as the inaugural Celebrity Ski Classic, the annual 49ers Foundation Golf Tournament and Coach Steve Mariucci's Bocce Ball Tournament, the Foundation produces events that raise money, bring players and fans together and help local charities do a better job in serving their clients.

As a 501(c) (3), the 49ers Foundation is a separate non-profit entity within the 49ers organization. The Foundation is led by a strong working Board of Directors, consisting of a dedicated group of highly successful businessmen. These Board members, whose expertise in formulating policies for national and international businesses, are devoted to productive community service.

The goal of the 49ers Foundation is to be the premier Foundation in the NFL with a focus on the educational, health, social and cultural needs of our community.

THE 49ERS ACADEMY

One program in particular that exemplifies the commitment of the 49ers Foundation is The 49ers Academy in East Palo Alto. The 49ers Academy was established in 1996 with a mission statement of "helping kids help themselves."

The 49ers Academy is a combined effort of The Ravenswood City School District, The 49ers Foundation and Costco Wholesale. The program strives to provide at risk students with the most comprehensive academic, social and emotional services to keep the kids in school and off the streets.

The 49ers Foundation offers financial assistance, along with other support that has evolved into a wonderful example of professional sports franchises becoming involved in a direct way with at risk youth.

Honor students are rewarded with trips to games and visits to practice and lunches at the 49ers training facility. This type of positive reinforcement and an association with one of the most storied franchises in sports helps motivate many kids who might have otherwise been lost along the way.

The 49ers Academy provides many different and important services such as art therapy, conflict resolution, grief counseling and mentor programs. For more information on the 49ers Academy, please visit their website at www.49ers-Academy.org

49ERS FOUNDATION EVENTS

The 49ers Foundation presents a number of fundraising events throughout the year. These events provide the money necessary to grant funds to various charitable and educational organizations throughout the greater Bay Area.

THE 49ERS FOUNDATION CELEBRITY SKI CLASSIC

The 49ers Foundation hosted its inaugural Celebrity Ski Classic in March 2001 at The Resort at Squaw Creek in Lake Tahoe, CA. As a first time event it became the most successful single fundraiser in 49ers Foundation history.

The Celebrity Ski Classic is an event where a limited number of corporate sponsors join together with celebrities from the San Francisco 49ers as well as with world class skiers and other athletes and entertainers in a wonderful relationship-building setting.

Guests participated in a fun race and numerous other activities over the weekend including live and silent auctions. The Celebrity Ski Classic provided an outstanding opportunity to meet, ski and socialize with a variety of 49er players, alumni and coaches, as well as Olympic medallists, athletes and other celebrities.

The proceeds received from the event support all the charitable activities of the 49ers Foundation.

The second annual 49ers Foundation Celebrity Ski Classic will take place March 21-24, 2002.

STEVE MARIUCCI'S BOCCIE BALL TOURNAMENT

Steve Mariucci's 3rd Annual Bocce Ball Tournament was held June 6th, 2001, at Campo di Bocce in Los Gatos, a beautiful venue dedicated to playing and enjoying the sport of bocce ball. Celebrities who have given their time and have helped raise funds for this event in the past include John Madden, Steve Young, Peggy Fleming, Michigan State basketball coach Tom Izzo, Bill Walsh, Jerry Rice and Jon Gruden. The proceeds from this event support the 49ers Foundation as well as other charities.

THE 49ERS FOUNDATION GOLF TOURNAMENT

The 49ers Foundation held their eighth annual dinner, auction and golf tournament on April 29-30, 2001. The dinner auction was held at the 49ers training facility with one of the highlights of the evening being the silent auction, which took place in the 49ers locker room. The evening also included a live auction with 49ers broadcaster Gary Plummer helping the Foundation raise a substantial amount of money.

Several students from the 49ers Academy in East Palo Alto attended the Sunday evening event at the 49ers facility. The students were given golf lessons Monday during the Foundation Golf Tournament.

The Foundation Tournament was held at the Palo Alto Hills Golf and Country Club under beautiful sunny skies and warm weather. The field included 49ers President Peter Harris, and current players Bryant Young, Ray Brown and J.J. Stokes, among others. Event highlights were broadcast on several local news channels.

Next year's golf tournament will be held on April 28-29, 2002.

SELECT COMPANY

Steve Mariucci is one of only three active head coaches to produce at least two Pro Bowl players at quarterback, running back and wide receiver. George Seifert and Dick Vermeil are the only other active coaches to do it. During his four years in San Francisco, Mariucci has tutored quarterbacks Steve Young and Jeff Garcia, running backs Garrison Hearst and Charlie Garner and wide receivers Jerry Rice and Terrell Owens as they have earned trips to Honolulu. Garcia, Hearst, Garner and Owens made first-time appearances under Mariucci's direction, while Rice made his 12th trip the year following major knee surgery. Young produced career-highs in passing yards and touchdowns in his 1998 Pro Bowl campaign.

DEFENSE WINS

When people think of the San Francisco 49ers, they tend to think of offense—the West Coast offense to be precise. However, since 1979 the 49ers have made defense their number one priority on draft day. The team has selected 108 defensive players and 91 offensive players in that span.

Did You Know...

Jeff's grandfather, Red Elder, is the former head coach at Gilroy High School. Elder played professional football for the Los Angeles Bulldogs from 1937-41 and also participated in the East-West Shrine game, 56 years before his grandson, Jeff, played in the Shrine game. They are the only known grandfather-grandson duo to play in the game.

GROUND GARCIA

Jeff Garcia is continuing in the tradition of mobile 49ers quarterbacks. Not only a threat through the air, Garcia asserted himself on the ground as well. He ran for a CAREER-HIGH 414 yards during the 2000 campaign and became only the second quarterback in team history to rush for at least 400 yards in a season. Steve Young ('90-'91, '98) is the only other quarterback to do it. Billy Kilmer recorded 400 yards rushing in 1961-62, but played running back then. Donovan McNabb (629), Rich Gannon (529), Daunte Culpepper (470) and Kordell Stewart (436 yards) were the other NFL QBs to rush for more than 400 yards in 2000.

Did You Know...

While Dana was on the set making Reindeer Games, he was working on a shot with Ben Affleck. After working all night on a scene, the director (John Frankenheimer) finally said "cut." Affleck started messing around with Dana, causing Dana to slip on some food. As he did, Dana's backhand slapped Affleck in the face, which caused him to fall and hit his head on the concrete floor and suffer a mild concussion. When they resumed filming the scene a month later, Affleck showed up on the set wearing a football helmet.

SNAP SHOT

In 2000, the 49ers took 1,096 snaps on defense, including penalties. Six rookies played more than 20 percent of the time and that does not count former starter John Keith. Ahmed Plummer led the rookie class with 996 snaps or 90.8 percent. Jason Webster took 832 snaps (75.9), Julian Peterson 651 (59.3), John Engelberger 591 (53.9), Cedric Killings 269 (24.5). Ronnie Heard played 281 snaps (25.6) and John Milem was in for 145 plays (15.2).

Did You Know...

Jason nearly quit playing football during his freshman year at Texas A&M. He played running back in high school and was a wide receiver in Pop Warner. Texas A&M recruited him as a defensive back. When he arrived in College Station, he had a difficult time adjusting to an entirely new position. He was ready to ask to switch positions or quit the team before his mother talked him out of it. He stayed with it, eventually got comfortable and became a regular after an injury forced him into the starting lineup as a freshman.

THE COACH DOESN'T FALL FAR FROM THE TREE

Bill Walsh has had a profound influence on the success of the 49ers, but he has also had a profound effect on the rest of the National Football League. Currently in the NFL, 15 of the 31 head coaches have had some influence from Walsh, the creator of the West Coast style of offense and a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Three coaches, Minnesota's Dennis Green, Seattle's Mike Holmgren and Carolina's George Seifert, have all coached under Walsh. Thirteen other coaches, including Brian Billick, the head coach of the Super Bowl Champion Baltimore Ravens, have all learned from Walsh's protégés.

FOURTH GEAR

With 1,122 yards and 13 touchdowns on 92-of-140 passing, Jeff Garcia owned a 109.3 passer rating in the fourth quarter last season. With a minimum of 60 fourth quarter attempts, Garcia trailed only Brian Griese, who had 629 yards and five touchdowns on 49-for-72 passing and a 112.6 fourth quarter rating.

GREAT GUESTS

One reason the 49ers were so successful during Bill Walsh's tenure was that they became the greatest road team in the league. San Francisco went 47-29 (.618) on the road during Walsh's 10-year reign. But take away the 1979 and '80 rebuilding seasons, in which they went 2-14 away from home, and the numbers become stunning. The 49ers went 45-15 (.750) on the road from 1981-88.

TO SERVE AND PROTECT

The 49ers offensive line did a great job protecting Jeff Garcia last year. Against Atlanta (11-19), they produced their fifth sackless game of the year. In 583 attempts, 49ers passers were sacked just 25 times - the third fewest in the league behind Indianapolis and the Jets (20). That breaks down to an average of one sack every 23.3 dropbacks - the best 49ers ratio in the past 21 seasons. Considering the 49ers trailed many of their games in the fourth quarter, the sack-per-dropback ratio is even more impressive. Against St. Louis (10-29), the 49ers called just five runs in the second half and Garcia was sacked just once. At New Orleans (11-5), the team called just nine run plays in 37 second-half snaps and Garcia was not touched.

ALOHA

For 20 consecutive seasons the San Francisco 49ers have sent at least one player to the Pro Bowl in Honolulu. In 2000, the 49ers had three players make the trip to the islands. QB Jeff Garcia, RB Charlie Garner and WR Terrell Owens were the 49ers representatives on the NFC roster. All three were making their first career appearances.

VS. ATLANTA FALCONS

SEPTEMBER 3, 2000 @ GEORGIA DOME

LOST 36-28 RECORD 0-1

FB Fred Beasley accounted for three of San Francisco's four touchdowns on the day, but the 49ers fell short, 36-28, in their season opener against the Atlanta Falcons at the Georgia Dome.

San Francisco jumped to a 7-0 lead on the game's opening possession. Beasley capped the eight-play, 74-yard drive with a four-yard scoring grab from QB Jeff Garcia. Garcia completed 4-of-4 passes for 57 yards in the opening series.

Atlanta countered, and eventually took a 12-7 lead, with four consecutive field goals from K Morten Andersen, including three from 43 yards or longer. The Falcons extended their lead to 19-7, when QB Chris Chandler connected with WR Terance Mathis on a 43-yard touchdown pass.

The 49ers trimmed the lead to five points, 19-14, shortly before halftime on Beasley's second touchdown of the day. This time, he capped a six-play, 80-yard drive with a one-yard plunge behind the blocking of LT Derrick Deese and LG Ray Brown. Atlanta, however, extended their lead to eight points, 22-14, on a 48-yard field goal by Andersen as time expired in the first half.

The second half opened with a quick-strike from the Falcons offense. Chandler threw his second touchdown of the day on a 48-yard strike to WR Shawn Jefferson. San Francisco responded immediately with a scoring drive of their own. Garcia completed 6-of-7 passes for 58 yards in the drive, including a four-yard toss to Beasley who stretched across the goal line for the touchdown. Beasley's third score of the day pulled the 49ers back within eight, at 29-21.

Atlanta's defense stepped up with a big play for their next score. CB Ashley Ambrose stepped in front of a Garcia pass and returned it 36 yards for the score and a 36-21 lead with just over six minutes remaining in the third quarter.

The 49ers scored their final touchdown of the day with 2:50 remaining in the game. WR Terrell Owens pulled a pair of would-be tacklers into the end zone from six-yards out. The 49ers would get no closer as Atlanta ran out the clock.

Offensively for San Francisco, RB Charlie Garner paced the ground game with 62 yards on 15 carries. Owens led the receiving corps with seven receptions for 72 yards and his one touchdown. Rice added five receptions for 59 yards, while TE Greg Clark added four catches for 27 yards.

CB Ahmed Plummer posted a team-high eight tackles and LB Winfred Tubbs added seven stops. S Lance Schulters had five tackles and one forced fumble before leaving the game with a severely sprained ankle.

VS. CAROLINA PANTHERS

SEPTEMBER 10, 2000 @ 3COM PARK

LOST 38-22 RECORD 0-2

The Carolina Panthers scored on four-of-five first-half possessions on their way to a 38-22 victory over the 49ers at 3Com Park. Panthers QB Steve Beuerlein completed 24-of-32 passes for 364 yards and three touchdowns in the win.

WR Donald Hayes, WR Muhsin Muhammad, FB William Floyd and RB Tshimanga Biakabutuka all scored touchdowns as the Panthers rolled up 337 yards of total offense in the first half. Carolina also ran 40 plays to the 49ers 23 in the opening half.

San Francisco opened the third quarter with a seven-play, 81-yard drive that was capped when FB Terry Jackson scored from one-yard out. The Panthers answered immediately with a seven-play scoring drive of their own that pushed their lead to 35-7.

San Francisco rallied in the fourth quarter behind the arm of QB Rick Mirer and the hands of WR J.J. Stokes. Mirer stepped in for QB Jeff Garcia to open the final period and immediately led the team on an eight-play scoring drive. The drive was capped with a 17-yard scoring strike from Mirer to Stokes. The two also connected on a 19-yard pass play earlier in the drive.

The 49ers added their final score of the day with 1:47 remaining on a two-yard touchdown dive by FB Fred Beasley. The two-point conversion was successful from Mirer to Owens for the final score of 38-22.

VS. ST. LOUIS RAMS

SEPTEMBER 17, 2000 @ TRANS WORLD DOME

LOST 41-24 RECORD 0-3

In a game with 930 total yards of offense, it was the St. Louis Rams who prevailed, 41-24, at the Trans World Dome in St. Louis. San Francisco quarterback Jeff Garcia threw for 290 yards and three touchdowns in the defeat.

The game opened in stunning fashion for the 49ers. LB Winfred Tubbs stepped in front of a QB Kurt Warner pass on the first play of the game and returned it 11 yards to the Rams 29-yard line. On the 49ers first play, Garcia hit FB Fred Beasley down the left sideline for a 29-yard touchdown and a quick 7-0 lead.

After trading field goals, the Rams evened the score at 10-10 in the second quarter on a 18-yard touchdown pass from Warner to WR Tony Horne. San Francisco re-took the lead at 17-10 on a 20-yard pass from Garcia to RB Charlie Garner. The pass capped a five-play, 74-yard drive. With their explosive offense, the Rams struck back immediately with a 78-yard pass from Warner to WR Isaac Bruce tying the score at halftime.

St. Louis RB Marshall Faulk had the only score in the third quarter as the Rams took a 24-17 lead into the final period. A 25-yard K Jeff Wilkins field goal extended the Rams lead to 27-17 before the 49ers responded with a score of their own. WR Terrell Owens hauled in a 12-yard score from Garcia to pull the 49ers within three, 27-24, with 12 minutes remaining in the game.

San Francisco would get no closer as the Rams would score twice more in the final period on Faulk touchdown runs of four yards and one yard.

The 49ers received a scare in the third quarter when DT Junior Bryant lay motionless on the field after recording a tackle. Bryant was taken off the field by stretcher for X-rays and later transported to a local hospital for a CT scan. The results of the scan showed no neurological damage and Bryant returned to the Bay Area on the team plane.

Injuries also plagued the regular starting lineup of the 49ers. CB Monty Montgomery was inactive with a left leg injury sustained the week before. He was replaced in the lineup by rookie CB Jason Webster, who made his first NFL start. Webster, along with CB Ahmed Plummer, became the first pair of rookies to start a game at corner since Tim McKyer and Don Griffin did in 1986.

S Lance Schulters recorded a team-high 12 tackles for the 49ers. Rookie DE John Engelberger recorded the team's lone sack of the day.

GAME 4 VS. DALLAS COWBOYS SEPTEMBER 24, 2000 @ TEXAS STADIUM WON 41-24 RECORD 1-3

RB Charlie Garner rushed for a CAREER-HIGH and TEAM RECORD 201 yards as the San Francisco 49ers rolled to a 41-24 victory over the Dallas Cowboys at Texas Stadium. The victory was the first of the 2000 season for the 49ers and their first since December 12, 1999.

After trading field goals, it was Garner who put the 49ers up for good with a one-yard touchdown run midway through the second quarter. San Francisco then extended its lead to 17-3 on a three-yard touchdown pass from QB Jeff Garcia to WR Terrell Owens. It would be the first of four touchdown passes on the day for Garcia.

Leading 17-10 at halftime, the 49ers opened the third quarter with a quick strike offense. Facing a third and four from their own 34-yard line, Garcia connected with WR Jerry Rice on a 68-yard catch-and-run touchdown pass to push the 49ers lead to 24-10. On the Cowboys next possession the 49ers defense turned up a big play. DE John Engelberger sacked QB Troy Aikman and in the process forced a fumble that was recovered by LB Jeff Posey. K Wade Richey capitalized on the turnover with a 47-yard field goal.

The 49ers closed the third and opened the fourth quarter with a 17-play scoring drive that chewed up 9:35 off the game clock. The drive ended with a five-yard scoring toss from Garcia to Rice. The 17-play drive is the second-longest in team history.

Dallas answered the 49ers score with a touchdown of their own. Aikman connected with TE Jackie Harris on a 11-yard pass that capped a seven-play, 73-yard drive that put the score at 34-17 in favor of the 49ers.

Unfazed, the 49ers answered the Dallas score with yet another impressive scoring drive of their own. Behind the strong legs of Garner and the precision passing of Garcia, the 49ers marched 77 yards in 13 plays and closed the drive on a Garcia-to-Owens touchdown pass.

The 49ers defense again received strong performances from their rookie class. Engelberger recorded one sack and one forced fumble. Rookie LB Julian Peterson posted his second interception of the season and rookie DT Cedric Killings added a sack in the fourth quarter.

GAME 5 VS. ARIZONA CARDINALS OCTOBER 1, 2000 @ 3COM PARK WON 27-20 RECORD 2-3

The San Francisco 49ers won their second consecutive game, posting a 27-20 victory over the visiting Arizona Cardinals at 3Com Park.

The 49ers opened the scoring on a five-yard touchdown pass from QB Jeff Garcia to WR Jerry Rice. The play ended an 11-play, 58-yard drive that saw Garcia complete 5-of-5 passes for 31 yards.

Following a Cardinals field goal, the 49ers pushed their lead to 10-3 on a 33-yard field goal by K Wade Richey. On the ensuing kickoff, S John Keith forced a fumble of Arizona KR MarTay Jenkins and the ball was recovered by RB Jonas Lewis at the Arizona 23-yard line. Two Garcia-to-WR Tai Streets passes fell incomplete before the tandem connected on a 22-yard gain following a nice shoestring reception by Streets. On the very next play, Garner punched across the goal line from one-yard out to put the 49ers up 17-3.

The Cardinals answered just before halftime when WR David Boston took a short pass from QB Jake Plummer and, with two quick moves, raced 56 yards into the end zone. The score cut the 49ers lead to 17-10 at the midway point.

San Francisco pushed their lead to 24-10 with 6:17 remaining in the third quarter. Garner scored his second touchdown of the day with a soaring one-yard leap over the pile from one-yard out. With two scores on the day, Garner recorded his first multi-touchdown day as a 49er.

Richey put the final 49ers points on the board with a 29-yard field goal to open the fourth quarter. Arizona added a K Cary Blanchard field goal and a four-yard touchdown run by RB Thomas Jones to make the final score 27-20.

For the 49ers, Garcia finished the day completing 22-of-33 passes for 220 yards and one touchdown. He also rushed six times for 36 yards. Garner finished the day with 77 yards rushing and two scores. He also caught two passes for 13 yards. Rice added a game-high seven receptions for 66 yards and scored one touchdown.

The 49ers balanced defense was paced by S Lance Schulters, who had six tackles and one forced fumble. LB Julian Peterson recorded a team-high seven tackles and LB Winfred Tubbs had four tackles and one fumble recovery.

GAME 6
VS. OAKLAND RAIDERS
OCTOBER 8, 2000 @ 3COM PARK
LOST 31-28 RECORD 2-4

In a game for the ages, it was the Oakland Raiders outlasting the 49ers in overtime, 34-28, at 3Com Park.

The see-saw affair saw the Raiders jump ahead early on two K Sebastian Janikowski field goals before the 49ers bounced back in the second quarter. The 49ers took the lead at 7-6 following a four-yard pass from QB Jeff Garcia to WR Terrell Owens. San Francisco extended its first half lead to 14-7 when Garcia capped a 12-play, 89-yard drive with a five-yard touchdown pass to WR Jerry Rice.

The third quarter belonged entirely to the Raiders. Holding the ball for 11:04 of the quarter, the Raiders scored two touchdowns to pull ahead 21-14. Oakland also scored :12 seconds into the fourth quarter to build a 14-point lead at 28-14.

Undaunted, San Francisco responded to the Raiders fourth quarter score with an eight-play, 81-yard drive that ended with another spectacular catch and run by Owens. Catching the ball at the Raiders 16-yard line, Owens juked right to avoid a tackle, he then switched back to his left where he eluded two other defenders and cruised into the end zone while a fourth would-be tackler missed at the goal line.

Following an interception by S Pierson Prioleau, the 49ers took over at the Oakland 13-yard line. Three plays later Garcia found RB Charlie Garner for a nine-yard touchdown tying the ball-game at 28-28 with 8:38 remaining.

And then the game got interesting.

Taking the 49ers kickoff, the Raiders opened their next possession at their own 36-yard line. Eight plays later Oakland was staring at fourth-down and 10 from the 49ers 23-yard line. From there, Janikowski trotted out to try a 41-yard field goal. The ball sailed wide left and the 49ers took possession.

On the second play of the drive, Garcia hit Owens for a 28-yard gain that moved the 49ers to the Oakland 38-yard line. At this point the Raiders defense stiffened. On third-and-one, FB Fred Beasley was held to no gain. Following a measurement, the 49ers went for it on fourth-and-one from the Raiders 29-yard line. Garner took the handoff and leapt over the line, but was met by LB Greg Biekert, who upended Garner and ended the 49ers possession. Oakland took over and two plays into the drive had moved the ball into 49ers territory at the 37-yard line. An incompletion was followed by an offensive holding call and the Raiders were forced to punt. The 49ers ran out the clock and the game went to overtime.

Oakland won the toss and took the kickoff at the 19-yard line. Within four plays they had marched 56 yards to the 49ers 25-yard line. Two plays later, the Raiders elected to try the game-winning field goal from 35 yards out. Again Janikowski missed, this time wide right, and the 49ers took over. Starting at their 25-yard line San Francisco marched 64 yards to the Raiders 11-yard line. On first down the 49ers brought on K Wade Richey for a game-winning 29-yard field goal. His attempt was blocked by the Raiders S Anthony Dorsett and the Raiders took over. Two completions and a pass interference call on the 49ers put the Raiders within striking distance at the 49ers 31-yard line. On the next play Gannon hit Tim Brown for a 31-yard game-winning touchdown.

GAME 7 VS. GREEN BAY PACKERS OCTOBER 15, 2000 @ LAMBEAU FIELD LOST 31-28 RECORD 2-5

For the second consecutive week, the San Francisco 49ers battled down to the final horn but came up a bit short. Green Bay K Ryan Longwell connected on a 35-yard field goal with :54 remaining in the game to give the Packers a 31-28 win at Lambeau Field.

Green Bay posted the first points of the game on a 67-yard catch-and-run touchdown pass from QB Brett Favre to WR Antonio Freeman with 2:17 left in the first quarter. San Francisco tied the score with 5:27 left in the second quarter on a sensational 39-yard diving touchdown grab by RB Charlie Garner off a QB Jeff Garcia pass.

The Packers re-took the lead on the ensuing possession. Favre directed a 10-play, 74-yard drive that was capped by a two-yard touchdown run by RB Ahman Green that put Green Bay ahead 14-7 as the teams entered halftime.

The momentum stuck with Green Bay as they opened the second half with an 11-play, 80-yard drive that chewed up more than six minutes. The drive was capped by RB Dorsey Levens' one-yard scoring plunge that gave the Packers a 21-7 lead.

The resilient 49ers answered with a lengthy scoring drive of their own. The 11-play, 77-yard drive eclipsed 6:41 off the clock and culminated when Garcia connected with WR J.J. Stokes from 23-yards out to help pull the 49ers within a touchdown. Garcia was particularly effective on the drive, completing 8-of-9 passes for 74 yards and the touchdown.

San Francisco's defense forced the Packers to punt on their next possession and the 49ers took over at their own 29-yard line. On second down, Garner took the handoff and raced 23 yards up the middle of the field to the Green Bay 48-yard line. Two plays later, Garcia hit WR Jerry Rice on a 16-yard pass to keep the chains moving. Following a pair of incompletions and facing third-and-10, it was Garner who kept the drive alive with a key 16-yard scamper up the middle. On the very next play, Garcia hit WR Terrell Owens for a 16-yard touchdown. K Wade Richey converted the PAT and the game was tied at 21-21.

Green Bay responded immediately with a seven-play, 75-yard drive that was aided by a questionable pass interference call and ended with a one-yard touchdown run by Green. Once again, San Francisco responded with a display of tenacity and resiliency. Taking possession at the 40-yard line following an errant kick by Longwell, Garcia calmly directed a five-play, six-yard scoring drive that ended with a brilliant 37-yard touchdown pass to Owens.

With the score knotted at 28, Favre took possession at the Packers 39-yard line following a 32-yard kickoff return by KR Allen Rossum. On the strength of his arm and legs, Favre led the Packers down to the 49ers 22-yard line where Longwell knocked in the game winner.

San Francisco's offense was led by Garcia who finished the day completing 27-of-42 passes for 336 yards, four touchdowns and no interceptions. Owens caught eight passes for 93 yards and two touchdowns. He was joined by Garner who added a then CAREER-HIGH 92 yards receiving.

Significant credit should be given to the 49ers defensive side as well. The team lost starting LB Winfred Tubbs with a hamstring injury on the first Packers play of the game and Pro Bowl DT Bryant Young was lost early in the third quarter with a serious rib injury. S Lance Schulters was a workhorse for the defense and posted a game-high 12 tackles. CB Monty Montgomery added six tackles.

GAME 8 VS. CAROLINA PANTHERS OCTOBER 22, 2000 @ ERICSSON STADIUM LOST 34-16 RECORD 2-6

QB Jeff Garcia threw two touchdown passes and RB Charlie Garner had 199 yards of total offense, but it was not enough to overcome a three-touchdown day from Panthers QB Steve Buerlein as Carolina posted a 34-16 victory over the visiting 49ers.

Carolina struck first on the opening possession of the game. Buerlein directed a lengthy 16-play, 80-yard drive that lasted 7:33. The drive ended with a three-yard touchdown pass from Buerlein to WR Isaac Byrd. Buerlein completed 9-of-12 passes for 72 yards on the drive which included three penalties.

San Francisco put its first points of the afternoon on the board early in the second quarter. The six-play, 51-yard drive was capped with a 32-yard touchdown pass from Garcia to WR Terrell Owens. The extra-point attempt was no good and the Panthers lead stood at 7-6. The touchdown was the seventh in four games for Owens.

Carolina pushed their lead to 14-6 on their next possession. Another lengthy drive by the Panthers, this one lasting 12 plays and 80 yards, ended when Beuerlein found a wide open RB Tshimanga Biakabutuka for a two-yard touchdown.

The Panthers defense came up with a big-play of their own on the 49ers next possession. Garcia's pass to Owens was off-target and was intercepted by S Mike Minter, who returned it 30 yards for the touchdown. The interception snapped a string of 150 consecutive passes by Garcia without an interception.

San Francisco answered immediately with a scoring drive of their own. Taking the ball at the 20-yard line, Garcia and Garner led the 49ers down the field. Following a penalty, Garcia hit Garner on a quick out, and Garner raced 62 yards to the Panthers 28-yard line before being dragged down by CB Doug Evans. Three plays later, Garcia hit WR Jerry Rice on a 16-yard scoring pass to trim the Panthers lead to 21-13. Carolina would add a 30-yard field goal by K Joe Nedney to take a 24-13 lead into the half.

The low-scoring second-half belonged largely to Carolina. The Panthers outscored the 49ers, 10-3, to make the final score 34-16.

Garner had another impressive all-around day, finishing with a CAREER-HIGH 112 yards receiving to accompany his 87 rushing yards. Owens scored a touchdown for his fourth consecutive game and finished with 96 yards receiving on six receptions.

The banged-up defensive unit was paced by CB Ahmed Plummer, who had a CAREER-HIGH 11 tackles. Rookie CB Jason Webster also posted a CAREER-HIGH, totaling nine stops. LB Artie Ulmer, filling in for the injured LB Winfred Tubbs, had 11 tackles while rookie DT Cedric Killings had three tackles, including an eight-yard sack in his first career NFL start.

GAME 9
VS. ST. LOUIS RAMS
OCTOBER 29, 2000 @ 3COM PARK
LOST 34-24 RECORD 2-7

San Francisco jumped out to a quick lead early in the game that lasted through halftime, but a strong second half carried the Rams to a 34-24 victory over the 49ers at 3Com Park.

The 49ers opened the game in sizzling fashion after KR Travis Jervey returned the opening kickoff 68 yards to the Rams 20-yard line. Three plays later, RB Charlie Garner plowed his way into the end zone from four yards out. K Wade Richey's extra-point was good and the 49ers had a quick 7-0 lead. The Rams tied the score on the first of RB Marshall Faulk's four touchdowns on the day. His one-yard run capped a seven-play, 59-yard drive and closed the first quarter scoring.

Richey pushed the 49ers lead to 10-7 early in the second quarter. His 44-yard field goal capped a seven-play drive that totaled just 12 yards. St. Louis answered two series later. KR Az Hakim returned a P Chad Stanley punt 47 yards to the 49ers 32-yard line. The five-play drive ended when Faulk added his second rushing score of the day from one-yard out.

San Francisco stormed back to take the lead on its very next possession. On first-and-10 from their own 47-yard line, QB Jeff Garcia threw a nine-yard crossing pass to WR Terrell Owens who turned it into a 53-yard touchdown and gave the 49ers a 17-14 lead at halftime.

St. Louis tied the score at 17-17 on their first possession of the second half. K Pete Stoyanovich drilled a 48-yard field goal to cap a seven-play drive. Undaunted, the 49ers responded with a 10-play, 68-yard scoring drive on their next series. The combination of Garcia-to-Owens worked again, this time from 17 yards out and the 49ers held a brief 24-17 lead.

The lead would be the last the 49ers would have on the day as the Rams scored 17 unanswered points, including two receiving touchdowns by Faulk and a 46-yard field goal by Stoyanovich.

Garcia finished the day completing 26-of-44 passes for 243 yards and two touchdowns. Owens grabbed eight passes for 115 yards and two scores.

On the defensive side of the ball, CB Monty Montgomery posted eight tackles while CB Jason Webster added five stops and one interception. DE John Engelberger and DT Brentson Buckner each recorded a sack on the afternoon.

GAME 10VS. NEW ORLEANS SAINTS*NOVEMBER 5, 2000 @ LOUISIANA SUPERDOME*LOST 31-15 RECORD 2-8

The 49ers fell behind early and could not catch up, as the New Orleans Saints rolled to a 31-15 victory at the Superdome. With the loss, the 49ers fell to 2-8 and lost their fifth consecutive game.

Saints QB Jeff Blake accounted for much of the damage early on. Blake, in his first year with New Orleans, threw three first half touchdown passes to WR Joe Horne, TE Andrew Glover and WR Willie Jackson. RB Ricky Williams added a one-yard scoring run as the Saints built an insurmountable 28-0 lead at the intermission.

Blake finished the day completing 20-of-26 passes for 275 yards and three touchdowns, including a 213-yard performance in the first half. Williams was limited to 81 yards rushing on 20 carries, but did have the first half touchdown run.

San Francisco put its first points on the board in the third quarter. RB Charlie Garner capped a 12-play, 56-yard drive with a one-yard run off left guard for his fifth rushing touchdown of the season. The 49ers added a late score when RB Terry Jackson took a five-yard pass from QB Jeff Garcia and turned it into an 11-yard touchdown. It was the first receiving touchdown of Jackson's NFL career. Jackson is the brother of the Saints Willie Jackson.

The 49ers defense received strong individual performances from LB Ken Norton Jr., LB Julian Peterson and DT Bryant Young. Norton posted a season-high 12 tackles, while Peterson, in his first game back after missing three games with a knee injury, added 11 tackles and a CAREER-HIGH two sacks. Young finished with a season-high 10 tackles and two sacks.

VS. KANSAS CITY CHIEFS

NOVEMBER 12, 2000 @ 3COM PARK

WON 21-7 RECORD 3-8

The 49ers used a team effort to end their five-game losing streak with a 21-7 victory over the visiting Kansas City Chiefs at 3Com Park.

San Francisco put its first points on the board early in the second quarter. RB Charlie Garner punched across from one yard out to cap a four-play, 80-yard drive. The key plays in the drive included a 30-yard reception by WR J.J. Stokes and a CAREER-HIGH 47-yard reception by RB Paul Smith. Smith, normally a tailback, was forced to play fullback after an early injury to FB Terry Jackson.

Following the 49ers first score of the day, the defensive unit added its first big play. On second-and-10 from the 49ers 43-yard line, Chiefs QB Elvis Grbac's pass, intended for WR Derrick Alexander, was intercepted by S Zack Bronson who returned it 23 yards and the 49ers offense was in business.

The ensuing 10-play drive ended when QB Jeff Garcia ran a bootleg into the end zone untouched. The extra-point was good and the 49ers had a 14-0 lead.

The defensive unit again set the stage for the offense's next score. Kansas City, driving at the 49ers 34-yard line, was faced with a fourth-and-two. Choosing to go for it, the Chiefs were stopped when Grbac's pass intended for TE Tony Gonzalez fell incomplete. Gonzalez was well covered on the play by LB Julian Peterson.

Eight plays later the 49ers scored their third touchdown of the day. It was Garcia who dove into the end zone for his CAREER BEST second rushing touchdown of the day.

The second half scoring belonged to the Chiefs. Kansas City scored their only touchdown of the day in the fourth-quarter on a one-yard run by RB Donnell Bennett.

Although the 49ers offense did not score in the second half, the damage was done in the first. San Francisco held the ball for 20 minutes in the first half and were paced by Garner's 75 rushing yards and the precision passing of Garcia. Garcia completed 13-of-17 passes for 193 yards before the break.

The 49ers defense recorded three sacks, including two by DT Bryant Young. DT Brentson Buckner also recorded a sack of Grbac and had one pass deflected. The defense held the Chiefs to just 50 yards on the ground and 290 total, both of which are season lows for the defensive unit.

GAME 12
VS. ATLANTA FALCONS
NOVEMBER 19, 2000 @ 3COM PARK
WON 16-6 RECORD 4-8

The 49ers made it two in a row with a 16-6 victory over the visiting Atlanta Falcons at 3Com Park. San Francisco sacked Falcons QB Chris Chandler four times on the day and CB Jason Webster returned an interception 70 yards for a touchdown as the defense turned in one of its best performances of the season.

A pair of K Wade Richey field goals (32 & 30) gave the 49ers a 6-3 lead at halftime. The defense held Atlanta to 135 total yards in the first half, including limiting Chandler to 89 yards in the air. DT Bryant Young and DT Brentson Buckner each recorded sacks before the intermission.

The third quarter opened with each team trading a pair of possessions before the 49ers defense helped turn the tide. With the Falcons driving at the 49ers 24-yard line, Chandler, under heavy pressure from Young, lofted a pass for RB Jamal Anderson. The ball was overthrown and intercepted by Webster who raced 70 yards into the end zone for the touchdown. It was the second interception of the season for Webster and the first score of the year for the 49ers defense.

The scoring ended with each team trading field goals, including a 26-yard kick by Richey in the fourth quarter. Richey had missed four of his previous five field goals entering the game but was a perfect three-of-three against the Falcons.

San Francisco's defensive charge was led by S Lance Schulters, who posted 12 tackles and one pass defended on the day. LB Winfred Tubbs had 10 tackles, while Webster finished with three tackles and three passes defended to accompany his interception return. DE Chike Okeafor also posted his first sack of the year.

Offensively, the 49ers were paced by RB Charlie Garner who had 135 total yards. Garner also eclipsed the 1,000-yard rushing mark for the second consecutive season. It gave the 49ers a 1,000-yard rusher for the fourth consecutive season.

GAME 13

VS. SAN DIEGO CHARGERS

DECEMBER 3, 2000 @ QUALCOMM STADIUM

WON 45-17 RECORD 5-8

In a game dominated by big plays, it was San Francisco who had the biggest in a 45-17 victory over the San Diego Chargers at Qualcomm Stadium. QB Jeff Garcia completed 18-of-32 passes for 323 yards and two touchdowns in the win.

The 49ers defense definitely had its share of big plays on the day. San Francisco forced five turnovers by the Chargers, including four interceptions in the fourth quarter. S Zack Bronson had a pair of interceptions, as did CB Monty Montgomery. Montgomery sealed the 49ers win with a 46-yard interception return for a touchdown. Bronson also forced a fumble that was recovered and returned 15 yards by S Lance Schulters. It was the second straight game that the 49ers defense had scored on an interception return for touchdown.

The real story of the day may have been WR Jerry Rice. Rice caught three passes for 41 yards, including two touchdown receptions. He caught a one-yard pass in the second quarter and scored again on a 12-yard reception in the fourth. Rice was rewarded with a standing ovation from the largely pro-49er crowd in San Diego. Rice acknowledged the reception with several waves and a high-fiving lap around the stadium at the game's end.

GAME 14
VS. NEW ORLEANS SAINTS
DECEMBER 10, 2000 @ 3COM PARK
LOST 31-27 RECORD 5-9

The 49ers jumped to a 14-3 halftime lead, but could not hold off a determined New Orleans Saints squad in dropping a 31-27 contest at 3Com Park. The loss moved the 49ers to 5-9 on the 2000 season.

San Francisco jumped out to a quick 7-0 lead with a scoring drive on the opening possession of the game. QB Jeff Garcia capped the nine-play, 80-yard drive with an eight-yard touchdown run. Following a Saints field goal, Garcia struck again by adding his second touchdown run of the day. His one-yard plunge capped an 11-play drive and gave the 49ers a 14-3 halftime lead.

The second half opened with 11 third-quarter points by the Saints. K Doug Brien added his second field goal of the day and TE Andrew Glover caught a 15-yard pass from QB Aaron Brooks as the teams headed into the fourth quarter knotted at 14.

The 49ers reclaimed the lead with a four-yard touchdown pass from Garcia to TE Greg Clark. The touchdown reception was the first by Clark since October 11, 1998. Another Brien field goal brought the Saints within four points at 21-17, but the 49ers quickly pushed the lead back to 10. WR Terrell Owens hauled in a 69-yard scoring toss from Garcia on the ensuing possession. The extra point attempt was unsuccessful and the 49ers lead stood at 27-17.

New Orleans charged back with a five-play, 65-yard drive that was capped by a 22-yard Brooks-to-WR Willie Jackson touchdown strike. The Saints added the game's final score on a one-yard touchdown run by RB Terry Allen with 0:46 remaining in the game.

San Francisco was paced offensively by Garcia who completed 25-of-38 passes for 305 yards and two touchdowns. He also rushed five times for 42 yards and two touchdowns. Owens caught six passes for 129 yards and one touchdown.

The 49ers defensive effort was led by DT Bryant Young who had six tackles and 2.5 sacks. LB Winfred Tubbs led all tacklers, tying a CAREER-HIGH with 17 tackles. LB Ken Norton Jr. posted eight tackles. DT Brentson Buckner had seven tackles and one sack before leaving the game in the third quarter with a low back injury.

GAME 15

VS. CHICAGO BEARS

DECEMBER 17, 2000 @ 3COM PARK

WON 17-0 RECORD 6-9

On a day celebrating the career of WR Jerry Rice, the holder of 33 NFL records, it was WR Terrell Owens who had a record-setting day. Owens caught a CAREER-HIGH and NFL RECORD 20 passes for a CAREER-HIGH 283 yards in a 17-0 victory over the visiting Chicago Bears. His 20 receptions broke the record that was held for 50 years by the Los Angeles Rams Tom Fears. Fears caught 18 passes for 189 yards and two touchdowns December 3, 1950 against the Green Bay Packers.

QB Jeff Garcia also had a record-setting afternoon at 3Com Park. Garcia completed 36-of-44 passes for 402 yards and two touchdowns for a passer rating of 119.9. In the process, he became just the second quarterback in team history to surpass 4,000 yards in a single-season. Steve Young had two 4,000-yard seasons during his career in San Francisco.

Garcia opened the game by directing a nine-play, 76-yard drive that ended with a one-yard touchdown pass to TE Greg Clark. Garcia was five-of-seven for 64 yards and the touchdown on the drive, including completing two passes for 36 yards to Rice. K Wade Richey added a 28-yard field goal as the 49ers took a 10-0 lead into halftime.

The 49ers closed the scoring in the third quarter with a Garcia-to-Owens hookup. Garcia directed the six-play, 80-yard drive that was capped with a 27-yard pass to Owens. It was the 13th touchdown of the year for Owens.

Lost in the offensive exploits of the day was an outstanding effort by the 49ers defensive unit. The team posted its first shutout since October 11, 1998, a 31-0 blanking of the New Orleans Saints, while holding the Bears to just 104 total yards.

The balanced defensive effort was paced by DT Brentson Buckner and LB Julian Peterson. Each recorded five tackles and Peterson added a seven-yard sack. S Ronnie Heard, making just his second career start, added four tackles and his first NFL sack.

GAME 16 VS. DENVER BRONCOS DECEMBER 23, 2000 @ MILE HIGH STADIUM LOST 38-9 RECORD 6-10

The San Francisco 49ers closed out the 2000 regular season with a loss to the Denver Broncos, 38-9. The game was the final home game played at Denver's Mile High Stadium. With the loss, the 49ers finished the season 6-10.

The game started slow, with a scoreless first quarter and the 49ers defense knocking Broncos starting QB Brian Griese out of the game. But in the second quarter the Broncos ignited for 17 points behind the arm of back-up QB Gus Frerotte. Denver started the scoring with a 12-play, 88-yard drive that eclipsed 5:31 off the clock and ended on a 20-yard field goal by K Jason Elam. The Broncos, who had possession for over 10 minutes of the second quarter, continued the scoring with a 24-yard run by RB KaRon Coleman. The Broncos added another score on a 13-play, 61-yard drive that lasted 4:12 and ended with a one-yard touchdown run by RB Mike Anderson. Denver went into halftime with a 17-0 lead.

The third quarter was again controlled by Denver. They held the ball for more than 11 minutes and outscored the 49ers 21-0, with Frerotte accounting for two touchdowns — one passing and one rushing.

The 49ers finally put points on the board in the fourth quarter. K Wade Richey connected on a 44-yard field goal that ended a 14-play, 54-yard drive. The offense added six more points on an eight-yard touchdown pass from QB Jeff Garcia to WR J.J. Stokes.

One of the few bright spots for the offense was Garcia, who set a TEAM RECORD with 4,278 passing yards in a season. The old record was held by Steve Young, who passed for 4,170 yards in 1998.

On the defensive side for the 49ers, S Zack Bronson led all players with eight tackles. LB Julian Peterson posted seven tackles, while DT Brentson Buckner, LB Ken Norton Jr. and CB Ahmed Plummer all added six tackles apiece.

A HEALTHY CHUNK

San Francisco ranked third in the NFC and fifth in the NFL with a 5.73 yards per play on first down in 2000. Only St. Louis (6.89), Minnesota (6.25), Indianapolis (6.20) and Kansas City (5.96) had better averages on first down.

ANNUAL LEN ESHMONT AWARD

The Len Eshmont Award, the 49ers most prestigious annual honor, has been given each year to the 49er who best exemplifies the "inspirational and courageous play" of Len Eshmont. A member of the original 1946 49ers team, Eshmont coached at Navy and Virginia following his playing days with the 49ers. Eshmont died in 1957.

Listed below are the 49ers' annual Len Eshmont Award winners since its inception in 1957:

ONE OF A KIND

The No. 8 is the only jersey number that has been worn once in team history. Steve Young broke out the number in 1987 and is the only 49er ever to use it. The 49ers have used every number from 1-99 more than once. Twenty-two players have worn No. 32, making it the most frequently used number in team history.

BOBB MCKITTRICK AWARD

This award is given annually to the 49er offensive lineman who best exemplifies the dedication, excellence and commitment of offensive line coach Bobb McKittrick, a five-time Super Bowl Champion.

In 1999, the San Francisco 49ers, under the direction of Bill Walsh, established the Bobb McKittrick Award. The award is meant to honor those offensive linemen who have best represented the courage, intensity and sacrifice displayed by coach McKittrick during his 21 years of service with the 49ers.

"Bobb gave distinguished service to the organization since our renaissance in 1979. He was a vital factor in five Super Bowl Championships, the evolution of a dynasty and in the production of some of the finest offensive linemen in football. Offensive linemen don't receive the recognition they so richly deserve. This gives us a venue to honor their sacrifices and achievements," Walsh said.

A bronze plaque of McKittrick hangs in the 49ers locker room surrounded by the photographs of the McKittrick Award winners.

FAMILIAR FACES

The 49ers figure to open the 2001 season with the same offensive line as it employed in 2000 - Derrick Deese, Dave Fiore, Jeremy Newberry, Ray Brown and Scott Gragg. The longest tenure of an offensive line in team history was four consecutive years. The lineup of Bubba Paris, John Ayers, Fred Quillan, Randy Cross and Keith Fahnhorst was a fixture from 1983-86.

2000 AWARD WINNING 49ERS

PRO BOWL

QB Jeff Garcia — Selected to his first Pro Bowl in his first year as the full-time starter, after setting the 49ers passing record with 4,278 yards.

RB Charlie Garner — Selected to his first Pro Bowl after back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons.

WR Terrell Owens — Selected to his first Pro Bowl after setting career-highs in receptions (97) and receiving yards (1,451), including an NFL record 20 receptions vs. Chicago (12/17).

ALL-PRO / ALL-NFC

WR Terrell Owens — Named All-Pro by Associated Press (first-team) and All-NFC by Pro Football Newsweekly and Football News (first-team). Named All-Pro by College & Pro Football Newsweekly and Football Digest (second-team).

G Ray Brown Named All-Pro by College & Pro Football Newsweekly (second-team).

NFL MOST IMPROVED PLAYER

QB Jeff Garcia — Named 2000 Most Improved Player by Football Digest.

ALL-ROOKIE TEAM

CB Ahmed Plummer — Named All-Rookie by Pro Football Newsweekly and Football News (first team).

LEN ESHMONT

DT Bryant Young — Became the team's first four-time winner of its most prestigious award. Young also is the first 49er to win this award for three consecutive years. In a vote by teammates, the award is given annually to the 49er who best exemplifies the "inspirational and courageous play" of Len Eshmont.

ED BLOCK COURAGE AWARD

RB Garrison Hearst — Was the team's recipient for his display of courage in overcoming injury and hardship. Hearst returned to practice for the first time in two years since breaking his ankle in the NFC Divisional Playoff Game against the Falcons in 1999. Hearst was placed on the active roster (11-21), but was inactive for the final four games of the season.

GARRY NIVER AWARD

S Lance Schulters — Given annually to the 49er player who is most professional with the media.

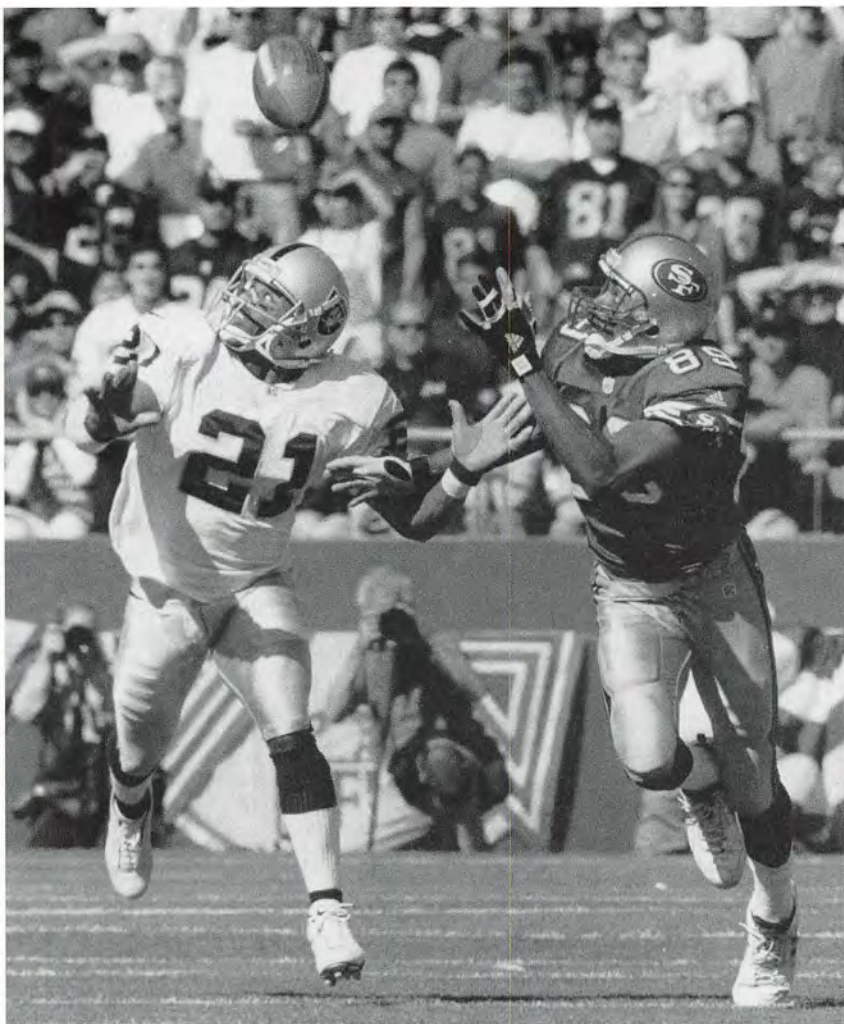

NFC PLAYER-OF-THE-WEEK

RB Charlie Garner — Offensive Player-of-the-Week (Week 4) - Garner broke the team record and was the first-ever 49ers player to rush for more than 200 yards in a game in the 49ers win over the Dallas Cowboys. The previous team record was held by Garrison Hearst (198 yards vs. Detroit, 12-14-98). Against Dallas, Garner rushed for a career-high 201 yards on a career-high 36 carries. Garner also rushed for one touchdown and caught three passes for 34 yards.

WR Terrell Owens — Offensive Player-of-the-Week (Week 16) - Owens broke a team record and the NFL record with 20 receptions vs. the Chicago Bears. Owens caught a career-high 20 receptions for a career-high 283 yards and one touchdown. The 20 receptions broke the 50-year old NFL record of 18 catches held by Rams receiver Tom Fears (12-3-50).

BOBB MCKITTRICK AWARD

G Jeremy Newberry — Awarded to the offensive lineman who best exemplifies the spirit of Bobb McKittrick. It was the first-career McKittrick Award for Newberry. He opened training camp as the starting right guard, but was switched to center when Chris Dalman went down with a season-ending neck injury. Newberry and the 49ers offensive line, one of the finest in the NFL, allowed just 25 sacks all season and helped lead three offensive teammates to the Pro Bowl-QB Jeff Garcia, RB Charlie Garner and WR Terrell Owens.

Tai Streets showed an ability to get deep and make difficult catches in 2000.

ALL PRO

Terrell Owens was named first-team All-Pro for the 2000 season. Owens is the first 49ers wide receiver other than Jerry Rice, to receive that honor, since John Taylor in 1988. He is the 10th receiver in 49ers history to earn first-team All-Pro honors.

THE STREAK

The only times Bill Walsh did not record 10 wins were the first two rebuilding years (1979-80) and the 1982 strike-shortened season. In fact, Walsh started a double-digit win streak in 1983 that lasted 16 years. It is the longest 10-win string in NFL history.

ROOKIE RETURN

Rookie cornerback Jason Webster returned an interception 70 yards for a score against Atlanta (11-19-00). It is the second longest interception return for a score by a 49er rookie. On December 11, 1966, rookie safety Alvin Randolph returned an interception 94 yards for a score against the Chicago Bears. Webster's 70-yard return also is the second longest interception return by a 49ers rookie, tying Bruce Taylor's return in 1970 against the Green Bay Packers at Kezar Stadium. Taylor did not score on his return attempt.

SACK ARTISTS

The five rookie defenders to register sacks on opposing quarterbacks during the 2000 season (Julian Peterson - 4, John Engelberger - 3, Cedric Killings -3, Ronnie Heard - 2 and John Keith - 1) are the most in team history. The previous high was in 1993 when four rookies established the mark (Dana Stubblefield - 10.5, Troy Wilson - 5.5, Artie Smith - 1.5 and Todd Kelly - 1). The NFL did not officially begin keeping sack records until 1982.

Detroit Lions 31, 49ers 27

NFL Divisional Playoff

December 22 at Kezar Stadium (San Francisco, CA)

San Francisco makes their first playoff appearance as an NFL team a memorable one, but come up a bit short against the Detroit Lions at venerable Kezar Stadium.

QB Y.A. Tittle completed 18-of-31 passes for 248 yards and three touchdowns for the 49ers. Tittle connected with HB R.C. Owens on a 34-yard scoring toss to record the first ever postseason touchdown for San Francisco. He also had touchdown connections with RB Hugh McElhenny and WR Billy Wilson. McElhenny caught six passes for a game-high 96 yards and rushed for 82 yards on 14 carries.

49ers 17, Minnesota 14

NFC Divisional Playoff

December 27 at Metropolitan Stadium (Bloomington, MN)

QB John Brodie scored on a one-yard run with just under two minutes remaining to provide the difference as the 49ers claimed a 17-14 decision over Minnesota at a frigid Metropolitan Stadium.

San Francisco was trailing 7-0 in the first quarter when Brodie connected with WR Dick Witcher on a 24-yard scoring toss. Brodie completed 16-of-32 passes for 201 yards and one touchdown.

Dallas Cowboys 17, 49ers 10

NFC Championship

January 3 at Kezar Stadium (San Francisco, CA)

QB John Brodie passed for 262 yards and one touchdown, but it wasn't enough as the Cowboys advanced to Super Bowl V with a 17-10 win over the 49ers at Kezar Stadium.

RB Duane Thomas rushed for 143 yards and scored on 13-yard run in the third quarter to put Dallas ahead 10-3. Later in the quarter QB Craig Morton connected with RB Walt Garrison on a five-yard toss to put the Cowboys up 17-3.

San Francisco would add their final score on their next possession with a 26-yard Brodie to WR Dick Witcher touchdown, capping an eight-play, 73-yard drive.

49ers 24, Washington Redskins 20

December 26 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB John Brodie completed 10-of-19 passes for 176 yards and two touchdowns as San Francisco advanced to the NFC Championship Game with a 24-20 win over Washington at a wet and windy Candlestick Park.

Brodie hit WR Gene Washington on a 78-yard play for his first touchdown of the game that helped tie the score at 10-10. On the next 49er possession Brodie connected with WR Bob Windsor on a two-yard toss into the corner of the end zone that led to a 17-10 lead.

The 49ers would insure the victory when DT Bob Hoskins pounced on an errant snap from center and recovered for a touchdown with just under three minutes remaining in the game. LB Frank Nunley led the defensive effort with 11 tackles and a blocked field goal.

Dallas Cowboys 30, 49ers 28NFC Divisional PlayoffDecember 23 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Roger Staubach came off the bench to rally the Dallas Cowboys with two touchdown passes in the closing minutes of regulation to post a 30-28 come-from-behind win over the 49ers.

Staubach connected with WR Billy Parks on a 20-yard touchdown with 1:30 remaining in the game. On the ensuing onside-kick the Cowboys recovered and three plays later Staubach connected with WR Ron Sellers for the game winner.

The outcome overshadowed several sparkling individual efforts for the 49ers. RB Vic Washington set a club record with his 97-yard touchdown return on the opening kickoff. RB Larry Schreiber also established a then club record by scoring three rushing touchdowns.

LB Ed Beard led the Niners defense with 10 tackles while DE Cedrick Hardman added three sacks.

49ers 38, New York Giants 24NFC Divisional PlayoffJanuary 3 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

San Francisco returned to the playoffs for the first time since 1972 and posted their first post-season win since 1971 with a 38-24 triumph over the visiting New York Giants.

Aiding the 49er cause was CB Ronnie Lott who intercepted two passes, including one he returned 20 yards for a touchdown, and recorded five tackles.

Offensively, the Niners were paced by QB Joe Montana who completed 20-of-31 passes for 304 yards and two touchdowns. Montana hit TE Charlie Young on an eight-yard toss in the first quarter and connected with WR Freddie Solomon on a 58-yard strike in the second. Solomon finished the day with six receptions for 107 yards. He was joined by WR Dwight Clark who had five receptions for 104 yards.

49ers 28, Dallas Cowboys 27NFC Championship*January 10 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

In the most memorable playoff game to date, the 49ers and Cowboys staged an epic battle. In what was a fitting ending for some and a heartbreaking one for others, it was the 49ers who came out on top 28-27.

QB Joe Montana capped a brilliant day with a six-yard touchdown pass to WR Dwight Clark late in the fourth quarter to overcome a six-point deficit. "The Catch," as it would come to be known, capped a 13-play, 89-yard drive that took over four minutes off the clock.

Montana finished the day with 286 yards on 22-of-35 passing and three touchdowns. Clark had one of his finest days, posting eight receptions for 120 yards and two touchdowns.

CB Carlton Williamson led the defensive charge with 12 tackles. LB Jack Reynolds added nine stops and DT Archie Reese added six.

49ers 26, Cincinnati Bengals 21Super Bowl XVI*January 24 at Silverdome (Pontiac, MI)

QB Joe Montana accounted for two first half touchdowns and K Ray Wersching added two field goals as San Francisco built a 20-0 lead at the half and held on for a 26-21 victory over the Bengals for their first Super Bowl Championship.

Montana scored on a one-yard run in the first quarter and in the second he led the team on a 12-play, 92-yard drive that resulted in an 11-yard scoring toss to FB Earl Cooper. For the game, Montana completed 14-of-22 passes for 157 yards.

Wersching also had an impressive outing. The veteran kicker connected on all four field goal attempts in the game, hitting from 22, 26, 40 and 23 yards.

The 49er defense kept the potent Bengal attack in check for much of the game. Cincinnati QB Ken Anderson warmed up in the second half with three touchdowns, two of them pass plays to TE Dan Ross, but two fourth quarter field goals by Wersching put the game out of reach.

LB Jack Reynolds keyed the 49er defense with seven tackles and one sack. LB Bob Leopold also recorded seven tackles and NT Archie Reese added six stops.

Washington Redskins 24, 49ers 21NFC ChampionshipJanuary 8 at RFK Stadium (Washington, DC)

Mark Moseley connected on a 25-yard field goal with 40 seconds remaining to hand San Francisco a heartbreaking 24-21 defeat in the NFC Championship Game at RFK Stadium.

The defeat was especially hard to swallow after the 49ers fought back from a 21-0 deficit with 21 fourth-quarter points. QB Joe Montana hit WR Mike Wilson on a five-yard scoring strike 30 seconds into the fourth, snapping the shutout. On the next 49er possession, Montana hit WR Freddie Solomon on a 76-yard bomb to pull within seven at 21-14.

The Redskins were three and out on their next possession, which led to another Montana-to-Wilson touchdown and a tie ballgame. Unfortunately for the 49ers, the Redskins would launch a six-minute drive that led to the Moseley field goal and the end of the season.

Montana finished the game with his typically excellent numbers: 27-of-48 passes for 347 yards and three touchdowns. Solomon caught eight passes for 106 yards and one touchdown.

DT Pete Kugler led the defensive charge with 10 tackles. He was joined by S Carlton Williamson with eight tackles, and linebackers Riki Ellison and Keena Turner had six stops each.

'84 49ers 21, New York Giants 10 NFC Divisional Playoff December 29 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Joe Montana rushed for 63 yards, passed for 309 yards and the 49ers earned a date in the NFC Championship with a 21-10 win over the New York Giants.

San Francisco drew first blood when Montana hooked up with his favorite target, WR Dwight Clark on a 21-yard scoring toss just three minutes into the first quarter. Clark would finish the day with 112 yards on nine receptions.

On the Giants next possession, it was S Ronnie Lott who intercepted a QB Phil Simms pass and returned it 38 yards to the New York 12-yard line. Two plays later, Montana hit TE Russ Francis on a nine-yard strike to extend the lead to 14-0.

New York would pull within three following LB Harry Carson's interception and touchdown return off a tipped Montana pass seven minutes into the second quarter. Three minutes later, the 49ers answered when Montana hit WR Freddie Solomon on a 29-yard scoring completion to put San Francisco up 21-10.

DE Fred Dean recorded seven tackles and two sacks for the inspired 49er defense. LB Jack Reynolds added five tackles.

Super Bowl XIX
January 20 at Stanford Stadium (Palo Alto, CA)

QB Joe Montana passed for 331 yards and accounted for four touchdowns to lead San Francisco to a 38-16 win over the Miami Dolphins. For his efforts Montana was named as the Super Bowl MVP for the second time in his career. The game was played at nearby Stanford Stadium in Palo Alto in front of 84,059 fans.

Montana's first touchdown of the day came on a 33-yard strike to RB Carl Monroe late in the first quarter. He followed that with an eight-yard scoring toss to RB Roger Craig in the second, and on the next 49er possession Montana added his third score of the day, this time taking it in himself on a six-yard run.

His fourth and final score of the day came on a 16-yard pass to Craig midway through the third quarter. Craig also had an impressive day totaling 135 yards of total offense and adding two scores.

San Francisco rolled up an impressive 537 yards of total offense in the game, including 211 rushing yards.

S Carlton Williamson and CB Eric Wright each intercepted a QB Dan Marino pass. LB Keena Turner led the team with six tackles.

Minnesota Vikings 36, 49ers 24NFC Divisional PlayoffJanuary 9 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

Minnesota WR Anthony Carter and K Chuck Nelson each established NFL postseason records as the Vikings posted a 36-24 win over hometown San Francisco at Candlestick Park.

Carter caught 10 passes from QB Wade Wilson for an NFL postseason record 227 yards. Carter broke the old record of 198 yards that was set by E Tom Fears of the Los Angeles Rams in 1950 against the Chicago Bears.

Nelson set his record by kicking five field goals, breaking the old mark of four that was done eight times.

San Francisco was led offensively by QB Steve Young, who spelled QB Joe Montana early in the second half. Young completed 12-of-17 passes for 158 yards and one touchdown. He also ran for a team-high 72 yards on six carries and had a five-yard touchdown run.

S Jeff Fuller established a new 49er postseason record when he returned an interception 48 yards for a touchdown in the third quarter. LB Mike Walter posted nine tackles and S Ronnie Lott added eight.

49ers 34, Minnesota Vikings 9NFC Divisional PlayoffJanuary 1 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

RB Roger Craig and WR Jerry Rice entered the NFL record books as the 49ers advanced to the NFC Championship Game with a convincing 34-9 win over the visiting Minnesota Vikings at Candlestick.

Rice set a record with three touchdown receptions that he shares with five other players. He scored on receptions of 2, 4 and 11 yards, all thrown by QB Joe Montana. Rice closed the day with five receptions for 61 yards.

Craig entered the record book courtesy of his 80-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter. The run was the longest touchdown run and the longest run from scrimmage in team postseason history. Craig broke the old record established by RB Marcus Allen with his 74-yard touchdown run against the Washington Redskins in 1983. Craig finished the day with 135 yards on 21 carries and two touchdowns.

The 49er defense also posted a strong day, recording six sacks, two interceptions and one fumble recovery. S Ronnie Lott had a big day with four tackles, two interceptions and three passes defended. DE Larry Roberts recorded two and a half sacks.

49ers 28, Chicago Bears 3NFC ChampionshipJanuary 8 at Soldier Field (Chicago, IL)

Game time temperatures were in the teens and the wind chill was 26-below zero, but the San Francisco 49ers were hot, as they rolled to a 28-3 win over the Chicago Bears at Soldier Field.

QB Joe Montana hit WR Jerry Rice on a 61-yard scoring toss in the first quarter and a 27-yard scoring toss in the second as the 49ers took a 14-3 lead into the half. In the third quarter, it was again the mastery of Montana, who connected with TE John Frank on a five-yard touchdown pass to extend the lead to 21-3.

FB Tom Rathman capped a solid day with a four-yard burst into the end zone with 8:07 remaining in the fourth quarter. Rathman finished with 36 yards rushing and caught five passes for 51 yards.

The San Francisco defensive charge was led by LB Mike Walter, who posted a game high 11 tackles and forced a fumble. S Jeff Fuller recorded nine tackles and intercepted a pass.

Offensively, Rice finished with 11 receptions for 133 yards and two touchdowns while Montana completed 17-of-27 passes for 288 yards.

49ers 20, Cincinnati Bengals 16Super Bowl XXIIIJanuary 22 at Joe Robbie Stadium (Miami, FL)

In what proved to be the most exciting Super Bowl game of the decade, it was the play of a collected veteran that delivered San Francisco their third NFL Championship. QB Joe Montana connected on 23-of-36 passes for 357 yards, but no completion would be more important than his last.

The game opened at a stand still with neither team having any ability to move the ball offensively. San Francisco opened the scoring on a 41-yard field goal by K Mike Cofer late in the first quarter. The Bengals responded with K Jim Breech's 34-yard field goal and the teams headed to the half locked in a 3-3 tie.

The third quarter began with the teams trading field goals before the Bengals broke the touchdown drought. Following a 49er field goal, Cincinnati KR Stanford Jennings took the Cofer kickoff and returned it 93 yards for a touchdown.

It didn't take long for San Francisco to respond. Montana hit WR Jerry Rice for a 31-yard completion and followed that with a swing pass that RB Roger Craig turned into a 40-yard gain. Two plays and 16 seconds later, Montana found Rice in the corner of the end zone for a 10-yard touchdown.

An 11-play, 46-yard drive by the Bengals resulted in a 46-yard field goal by Breech, giving Cincinnati a 16-13 lead and leaving the 49ers just 3:20 on the clock. San Francisco received the kickoff and returned it to the 20, but a penalty moved the ball back to the eight-yard line. What happened next is legendary.

Montana connected on five consecutive passes to move the ball to the Bengals 35. A holding penalty moved the ball back 10 yards, but Montana responded with a 27-yard completion to Rice and another first down. A quick hit to Craig followed by a timeout left the Niners with second and two from the Bengals 10-yard line. Following the timeout, Montana hit WR John Taylor in the middle of the end zone for a touchdown and San Francisco had their third Super Bowl title of the decade.

49ers 41, Minnesota Vikings 13NFC Divisional PlayoffJanuary 6 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Joe Montana threw four touchdown passes and RB Roger Craig rushed for 118 yards as the 49ers advanced to the NFC Championship Game with a convincing 41-13 win over the visiting Minnesota Vikings at Candlestick Park.

The Vikings opened the scoring on a K Rich Karlis field goal nine minutes into the first quarter, but from that point on it was all San Francisco. The 49ers erupted for 28 consecutive points before halftime to put the game away early.

Just 20 seconds after the Vikings initial score, Montana connected with WR Jerry Rice for the first of his four touchdown passes of the afternoon. The play started simply enough before, in true Rice fashion, he turned a seven-yard gain into a 72-yard touchdown. Following an interception by S Chet Brooks, Montana hit TE Brent Jones for an eight-yard touchdown pass and the rout was on.

Montana would add touchdown passes to WR John Taylor and another to Rice before handing the game over to reserve QB Steve Young. On the day, Montana completed 17-of-24 passes for 241 yards.

The 49er defense would also contribute a score, courtesy of S Ronnie Lott who intercepted a QB Tommy Kramer pass and returned it 58 yards for a touchdown.

'89 49ers 30, Los Angeles Rams 3 NFC Championship January 14 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

The 49er defense intercepted QB Jim Everett three times and held the Los Angeles Rams to 156 yards of total offense as San Francisco earned their fourth trip to the Super Bowl that decade with a 30-3 win at Candlestick Park in the NFC Championship.

San Francisco QB Joe Montana was superb in his direction of the 49er offense, completing 26-of-30 passes for 262 yards and two touchdowns. His first touchdown pass of the game came with 11:27 remaining in the second quarter when he hit TE Brent Jones on a 20-yard strike to give the 49ers a 7-3 lead.

CB Tim McKyer intercepted an Everett pass giving the 49ers possession at the Los Angeles 27-yard line. A five-play drive culminated in a one-yard touchdown run by RB Roger Craig.

It wouldn't take long for San Francisco to strike again. Gaining possession with 3:10 remaining in the second, Montana calmly directed a 14-play, 97-yard drive that ended with an 18-yard scoring toss to WR John Taylor.

K Mike Cofer accounted for the final nine points on three field goals in the second half.

Offensively, Montana was joined by Craig who rushed for 94 yards on 24 carries. WR Jerry Rice caught six passes for 55 yards and FB Tom Rathman added 63 yards rushing and 48 yards receiving.

'89 49ers 55, Denver Broncos 10 Super Bowl XXIV January 28 at Louisiana Superdome (New Orleans, LA)

WR Jerry Rice scored three touchdowns, FB Tom Rathman scored twice and QB Joe Montana earned his third Super Bowl MVP award as the San Francisco 49ers cruised to their fourth NFL Championship of the decade with a resounding 55-10 win over the Denver Broncos. The game was played before a crowd of 72,919 at the Louisiana Superdome in New Orleans, LA.

Rice scored on touchdown catches of 20, 38 and 28 yards en route to a seven-reception, 148-yard outing. Rathman scored his two touchdowns on runs of one and three yards.

The real story of the game was the play of Montana. He completed a sensational 22-of-29 passes for 297 yards and five touchdowns. He was masterful in his direction of the 49er offense, leading the team on scoring drives of 66, 69 and 71 yards.

The 49er defense proved to be as devastating as the offense. San Francisco harassed Denver QB John Elway all game, intercepting him twice and sacking him on six occasions. DE Daniel Stubbs led the way with two sacks and was joined by four others who had one sack each. DE Kevin Fagan had six tackles and LB Matt Millen added five.

NFC Divisional Playoff

January 12 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Joe Montana completed 22-of-31 passes for 274 yards and two touchdowns as San Francisco advanced to the NFC Championship with a 28-10 win over the visiting Washington Redskins.

The Redskins opened the scoring on a 31-yard touchdown reception from QB Mark Rypien to WR Art Monk. The 49ers answered with a one-yard touchdown run by FB Tom Rathman that capped an eight-play, 74-yard drive to tie the score at 7-7.

Washington added a 44-yard field goal by K Chip Lohmiller just before the end of the first quarter to take a 10-7 lead. That would be all of the scoring for the Redskins as the 49ers would reel off 21 consecutive points over the next three quarters.

Montana hit WR Jerry Rice on a 10-yard strike to complete a 10-play drive, giving San Francisco their first lead of the game four minutes into the second quarter. Five minutes later, the 49ers would extend their lead to 21-10 thanks to an eight-yard touchdown pass from Montana to WR Mike Sherrard.

It was the 49er defense that would cap the scoring for the day. Following a scoreless third quarter, DT Michael Carter intercepted a Rypien pass that had been tipped by DE Charles Haley and returned it 61 yards for a touchdown.

CB Don Griffin and DE Kevin Fagan had seven tackles each to lead the 49er defense.

New York Giants 15, 49ers 13

NFC Championship

January 20 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

Kickers and defense were the story of the day at Candlestick as the Giants used five field goals from K Matt Bahr and the Giant defense held San Francisco to 39 yards on the ground to defeat the 49ers 15-13.

In the first two quarters, it was Bahr and 49er K Mike Cofer who provided all the scoring. Bahr connected on a pair of field goals from 28 and 42 yards out. Cofer added field goals of 47 and 35 yards, and the teams entered the half in a 6-6 tie.

San Francisco opened the scoring in the third quarter on a 61-yard touchdown pass to WR John Taylor from QB Joe Montana to take a 13-6 lead. From that point on, it was all New York and Matt Bahr.

Bahr kicked field goals of 46 and 38 yards to pull the Giants within one at 13-12 with 5:47 remaining. San Francisco took over at their own 20-yard line, but five plays later DT Erik Howard forced a 49er fumble and LB Lawrence Taylor recovered at the Giant 43-yard line with 2:36 remaining. A pair of QB Jeff Hostetler completions to TE Mark Bavaro and WR Stephen Baker had the Giants in field goal range at the 49er 29-yard line with 1:10 remaining in the contest. Three plays later Bahr added his fifth field goal of the day, this one from 42 yards away, as time expired.

Montana completed 18-of-26 passes for 190 yards and one touchdown. Taylor caught two passes for 75 yards, including the 61-yard touchdown. WR Jerry Rice added five catches for 54 yards.

Defensively, San Francisco was led by LB Bill Romanowski's seven tackles. DT Jim Burt, DT Pierce Holt and DE Charles Haley added one sack each.

49ers 20, Washington Redskins 13

January 9 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Steve Young threw for 227 yards, including two touchdown passes, and rushed for an additional 73 yards to lead San Francisco to a hard fought 20-13 win over the visiting Redskins at Candlestick Park.

Young tossed a five-yard touchdown pass to WR John Taylor to open the scoring at the 11:48 mark of the first quarter. The teams traded field goals, and then Young hit TE Brent Jones on a 16-yard scoring strike and K Mike Cofer added the extra point to give San Francisco a 17-3 lead at halftime.

The Redskins answered with 10 consecutive points on a K Chip Lohmiller field goal and a QB Mark Rypien one-yard touchdown plunge to cut the 49er lead to 17-13. The locals responded with a 14-play, 59-yard drive that resulted in a 33-yard Cofer field goal with 2:22 remaining.

The San Francisco defense did the rest, sacking Rypien four times on their final drive before forcing the Redskins to turn the ball over on downs.

DT Pierce Holt had four tackles, including three sacks, to pace a determined Niner defense. CB Don Griffin posted a team-high six stops in the victory.

January 17 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Troy Aikman completed 24-of-34 passes for 322 yards and two touchdowns as the Cowboys claimed a 30-20 win over the 49ers. The game was played before 64,920 fans at a rainy Candlestick Park.

Dallas opened the scoring with a 20-yard field goal by K Lin Elliott. The 49ers answered with a one-yard run by QB Steve Young to take a 7-3 lead after the first quarter. Cowboy RB Emmitt Smith scored the first of his two touchdowns on a four-yard run at the 5:05 mark of the second quarter to put Dallas up 10-7. San Francisco tied the score three minutes later on a 28-yard field goal by K Mike Cofer.

FB Daryl Johnston scored the first points of the second half on a three-yard run at the 10:45 mark of the third quarter to put the Cowboys ahead 17-10. Cofer added a field goal for the 49ers to make the score 17-13 heading into the fourth quarter.

It was a battle between Aikman and Young in the fourth. Aikman hit Smith on a 16-yard scoring strike at the 12:25 mark, extending the Dallas lead to 24-13. Young answered back with a nine play, 93-yard drive resulting in a five-yard scoring toss to WR Jerry Rice to trim the Cowboy lead to 24-20. It didn't take long for Dallas to respond. On a first and 10 from their own 21, Aikman hit WR Alvin Harper on a crossing pattern that Harper turned into a 70-yard completion. Three plays later Aikman hit WR Kelvin Martin for a six-yard touchdown to secure the win.

Rice had an outstanding day receiving, finishing with eight catches for 123 yards and one touchdown. Young completed 25-of-35 passes for 313 yards and one touchdown.

CB Eric Davis had six tackles to lead the 49er defense. S Dana Hall, CB Don Griffin and LB Bill Romanowski added five tackles each. DT Ted Washington and DE Kevin Fagan had two sacks each for San Francisco.

January 15 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

It was a wattered down 49er attack at Candlestick Park as RB Ricky Watters established an NFL single-game playoff record with five rushing touchdowns in the 44-3 win over the visting New York Giants.

Watters scored on runs of one, one, two, six and two yards as he compiled 118 rushing yards on 24 carries. He also caught a team-high five passes for 46 yards from QB Steve Young, who finished the day completing 17-of-22 passes for 226 yards in the victory.

The 49er defense stepped up their play in the win as well. New York was held to 194 total yards, with only 41 yards rushing. DT Dana Stubblefield had two sacks and LB Bill Romanowski added a team-high five tackles.

The game was marked by several milestone events:

- Attendance of 67,143 set a 49ers and Candlestick Park record (since broken).
- 44 points are most scored by 49ers in an NFC Playoff Game.
- Watters sets NFL single-game record for postseason rushing touchdowns (5), postseason touchdowns (5) and points scored (30).

January 23 at Texas Stadium (Irving, TX)

The Cowboys broke a 7-7 tie by scoring 21 unanswered points in the second quarter, and that proved to be the difference in their 38-21 win over the visiting 49ers.

The game was played before 64,902 at Texas Stadium.

The Cowboys opened the scoring on a five-yard touchdown run by RB Emmitt Smith at 8:14 of the first quarter. San Francisco responded with a seven-yard touchdown reception by FB Tom Rathman from QB Steve Young early in the second quarter to tie the score. That would be as close as the 49ers would get, as Dallas answered with a 21-point outburst in the final 10 minutes of the second quarter to take a 28-7 halftime lead.

San Francisco scored their second touchdown of the game at the 5:47 mark of the third quarter. RB Ricky Watters capped a six-play, 43-yard drive with a four-yard scamper into the end zone. Dallas sealed the game by scoring 10 consecutive points on a 42-yard touchdown reception by WR Alvin Harper from reserve QB Bernie Kosar and adding a 50-yard field goal from K Eddie Murray. The 49ers would add another touchdown on a one-yard plunge by Young, capping a 17-play, 94-yard drive.

San Francisco was paced offensively by Young, who completed 27-of-45 passes for 287 yards and one touchdown. He also ran for a team-high 38 yards. Watters added 37 yards on 12 carries and one touchdown.

LB Michael Walter led the 49er defense with eight tackles. He was joined by S Merton Hanks and DT Dennis Brown who had seven stops each.

49ers 44, Chicago Bears 15

January 7 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

FB William Floyd rushed for three touchdowns and the 49ers defense held Chicago to just 247 yards in a 44-15 rout of the Bears. Floyd's three scores established him as the first rookie to hit paydirt as many as three times in an NFL playoff game.

The Bears actually took an early 3-0 lead on a 29-yard field goal by K Kevin Butler. The Niners bounced back, however, lighting up the scoreboard for 37 unanswered points to put the game away.

San Francisco's first points were the result of a 13-play, 68-yard drive that ended with a two-yard run by Floyd. CB Eric Davis then intercepted QB Steve Walsh on the Bears' next possession and moments later, QB Steve Young connected with TE Brent Jones for an eight-yard scoring play.

The Niners continued to roll in the second quarter, increasing the lead to 30-3 at the half on touchdown runs by Floyd and Young, sandwiched around a K Doug Brien field goal. Floyd's third touchdown of the game midway through the third quarter increased the lead to 37-3 and completed the afternoon's work for many of the San Francisco starters.

LB Gary Plummer led a spirited defensive effort, tying the 49ers single-game postseason record with 13 tackles. The 49ers defense also sacked Chicago quarterbacks four times, led by DE Tim Harris two.

49ers 38, Dallas Cowboys 28

January 15 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

CB Eric Davis returned an interception 44 yards for a touchdown and forced a fumble that San Francisco converted into a touchdown. Those plays set the stage for a defensive effort that produced five takeaways in San Francisco's 38-28 NFC Championship win over the Dallas Cowboys. The game was played before a Candlestick Park-record 69,143 (since broken).

On the third play of the game, Davis, playing a disguised zone coverage, stepped in front of a QB Troy Aikman pass and sprinted to the end zone. Three plays later, he stripped the ball from WR Michael Irvin, and S Tim McDonald recovered. Five plays later, QB Steve Young hit FB Ricky Watters in the flat on a play that produced a 29-yard touchdown and a 14-0 lead.

The ensuing kickoff saw 49ers' RB Adam Walker jar the ball loose from Dallas returner Kevin Williams and K Doug Brien recovered the fumble. It took seven plays before FB William Floyd plunged in from the one to make it 21-0 with 7:33 remaining in the first quarter.

Dallas began its comeback on the next series. Facing third and 23 from the San Francisco 44, Aikman hit Irvin for a touchdown that cut the score to 21-7. Following a Brien field goal of 34 yards (24-7), RB Emmitt Smith capped a 63-yard drive with a four-yard run that narrowed the gap to 24-24. The crucial point in the game came seconds before the first half expired. With eight seconds remaining, Young found WR Jerry Rice for a 28-yard score, giving the 49ers a 21-14 lead heading into the locker room.

The teams traded touchdowns in the second half with the 49ers holding off a strong Dallas charge in the fourth quarter. Young completed 13-of-29 passes for 155 yards and two touchdowns. He also rushed for 47 yards and another score. Watters led the ground game, compiling 72 yards, while TE Brent Jones and Floyd each had three receptions.

Defensively, LB Ken Norton Jr. paced the squad with 10 tackles, while Davis and McDonald added seven. Davis also had two interceptions and a forced fumble. CB Deion Sanders had an interception, along with five passes defended, while DT Rhett Hall and DE Tim Harris each had two sacks.

49ers 49, San Diego Chargers 26

Super Bowl XXIX

January 29 at Joe Robbie Stadium (Miami, FL)

QB Steve Young set a Super Bowl record with six touchdown passes and WR Jerry Rice hauled in three scoring passes for the second time in his career in the world championship game. The 49ers stars led an offensive explosion that carried the team to a 49-26 win over San Diego.

San Francisco wasted little time in getting on the scoreboard as it took just three plays following the game's opening kickoff to crack the Chargers' end zone. Following a FB William Floyd four-yard run and an 11-yard pass from Young to WR John Taylor, Young connected with Rice streaking down the middle of the field for a 44-yard scoring strike.

Following a San Diego punt, San Francisco was back in the end zone again after only three plays as Young, once again, challenged the middle of the Chargers defense, this time with a pass to RB Ricky Watters, which netted a 51-yard score. The Chargers made things close for awhile, however, putting together a 13-play, 78-yard drive that concluded with a RB Natrone Means one-yard touchdown plunge to make it 14-7 after one quarter of play.

The 49ers began to break the game open in the second quarter. They followed the San Diego touchdown with a 70-yard drive that culminated with a five-yard scoring pass from Young to Floyd. Two possessions later, following a partially blocked punt by RB Adam Walker, the Niners drove 49 yards for another score on an eight-yard toss from Young to Watters. K John Carney's 31-yard field goal with less than two minutes remaining in the half closed the margin at intermission to 28-10.

The Niners put the game away in the third quarter, running the lead to 42-10 on a pair of long drives that ended with Watters' third score of the evening, a nine-yard blast up the middle, and a 15-yard pass from Young to Rice. Rice caught his third touchdown of the night on a seven-yard toss from Young in the fourth quarter, enabling Young to break QB Joe Montana's record of five Super Bowl touchdown passes. Young was named the game's Most Valuable Player, while Rice turned in the second best receiving performance in Super Bowl history with 10 catches for 149 yards, while tying his own record with three scoring receptions.

Green Bay Packers 27, 49ers 17 NFC Divisional Playoff January 6 at 3Com Park (San Francisco, CA)

Aided by a swarming defense that caused four turnovers, the Green Bay Packers defeated the 49ers 27-17 at 3Com Park.

A record crowd of 69,311 saw the Packers advance to the NFC Championship Game, while the 49ers' one-year reign as world champions ended with an overall record of 11-6.

Green Bay took its opening drive and marched to the San Francisco 26 before settling for a field goal attempt. However, K Chris Jacke's 44-yard attempt was blocked by S Tim McDonald and the 49ers took over at their 34. On the first play from scrimmage, QB Steve Young hit FB Adam Walker in the flat, but LB Wayne Simmons jarred the ball loose and CB Craig Newsome returned the fumble 31 yards for the touchdown. Green Bay also scored on its next two possessions, a three-yard pass from QB Brett Favre to TE Keith Jackson and a 13-yard toss from Favre to TE Mark Chmura. San Francisco scored its first points of the game late in the half when K Jeff Wilkins nailed a 21-yard field goal with two minutes remaining.

The 49ers took their first possession of the third quarter and marched 80 yards for a touchdown, when Young plunged in from the one, cutting the deficit to 21-10. On the 14-play drive, Young was nine-of-10 and ran the ball twice. Again, the Packers responded to the challenge, using a pair of Jacke field goals (27 yards in the third quarter, 26 yards in the fourth quarter), and boosted Green Bay's lead to 27-10. San Francisco's final score of the season came on a two-yard plunge by RB Derek Loville with 50 seconds remaining in the game.

Young completed 32 passes in an NFL postseason record 65 attempts, for 328 yards and two interceptions. He also led the 49ers in rushing, gaining 77 yards in nine attempts, including a 40-yard sprint after he was flushed from the pocket. Rice led the receivers with 11 catches for 117 yards, while TE Brent Jones gained 112 yards on eight receptions.

Defensively, T Dana Stubblefield recorded a team-high 10 tackles and a sack for a loss of five yards, while LB Ken Norton Jr. added nine tackles.

49ers 14, Philadelphia Eagles 0 NFC Wild Card December 29 at 3Com Park (San Francisco, CA)

On a wet and windy Sunday at 3Com Park, San Francisco opened its 1996 postseason by defeating the Philadelphia Eagles 14-0 in the NFC Wild Card Game.

Led by its marquee players QB Steve Young and WR Jerry Rice on offense, and a defense that recorded the team's first postseason shutout since the 1984 NFC Championship game, the 49ers advanced to the Divisional Playoff round.

Following a scoreless first quarter, Young led the offense on a 10-play, 74-yard drive that concluded with the Pro Bowl quarterback scoring on a gutty nine-yard run off a quarterback draw. On that play Young broke four tackles while fighting his way to paydirt.

Twice in the second quarter the Eagles mounted long drives only to be denied just short of the end-zone by Niners' interceptions. Philadelphia's first trip ended with CB Marquez Pope intercepting a QB Ty Detmer pass on San Francisco's seven-yard line. Late in the quarter the Eagles marched 59 yards on 10 plays moving to the 49ers five-yard line. Facing third and four, Detmer's attempt to WR Chris T. Jones was picked off by DE Roy Barker, who had dropped off into zone-blitz coverage.

The only scoring in the second half occurred on the Niners' second possession of the third quarter. On that drive, Rice made a spectacular one-handed catch that resulted in a 36-yard gain. He scored on a three-yard pass from Young on the next play from scrimmage.

Young finished as the game's leading rusher with 65 yards, while also completing 14-of-21 tosses for 161 yards. Rice had four catches for 50 yards and his 19th career postseason touchdown (17th receiving). RB Terry Kirby added 43 yards rushing.

The Niners' defense, which held Eagles RB Ricky Watters to 57 rushing yards, was led by LB Ken Norton Jr.'s team postseason-record 12 unassisted tackles. DT Bryant Young registered two sacks and LB Lee Woodall added a sack among his six total stops.

Green Bay Packers 35, 49ers 14

January 4 at Lambeau Field (Green Bay, WI)

Missed opportunities, including a total of five turnovers spelled defeat for the San Francisco 49ers in their NFC Divisional Playoff Game with the Green Bay Packers. Played before a record Lambeau Field crowd of 60,787, the 49ers fell 35-14 in a game that featured 34-degree weather (with a wind chill of 9) and driving rain.

It didn't take long for the Packers to take a lead. After forcing San Francisco to punt on its first series, WR Desmond Howard took P Tommy Thompson's punt, split the coverage down the middle of the field and raced for a 71-yard touchdown. Then, with seven minutes remaining in the opening stanza, Howard struck again. He returned a punt 46 yards to the San Francisco seven, and two plays later, QB Brett Favre threw a four-yard scoring pass to WR Andre Rison to make it 14-0.

San Francisco then mounted a comeback in the second quarter. Trailing 21-0, the tide began to turn when 49ers' special teams standout Curtis Buckley recovered a muffed punt at the Green Bay 26. Moments later, QB Elvis Grbac, replacing the injured QB Steve Young (ribs), hit RB Terry Kirby with an eight-yard pass, cutting the deficit to 21-7 at the half.

On the opening kickoff of the third quarter, San Francisco CB Steve Israel recovered a loose ball on the Packers' four, setting the stage for Grbac's scamper into the end zone. The 49ers' fate was sealed, however, on the ensuing Packers' drive. Marching 72 yards in 12 plays (10 of which were runs), Green Bay scored when FB Edgar Bennett fumbled before crossing the goal line; but before the 49ers defenders could react, WR Antonio Freeman fell on the loose ball, giving the hosts a 28-14 advantage. Bennett scored on an 11-yard run, and two more fumbles in the fourth quarter snuffed out any hope the 49ers had in getting back into the game.

Young played the first nine plays at quarterback before giving way to Grbac late in the first quarter. Elvis completed 19-of-36 for 125 yards with one touchdown and three interceptions and led the team in rushing with 32 yards. Backfield mates Kirby and RB William Floyd had six receptions each, while WR Jerry Rice had a team-high 36 yards receiving.

Defensively, LB Ken Norton Jr. posted eight tackles and LB Gary Plummer added seven. All-Pro DT Bryant Young left the game late in the first quarter because of a neck injury. He was taken to the hospital for tests, which were negative.

'97 49ers 38, Minnesota Vikings 22 NFC Divisional Playoff January 3 at 3Com Park (San Francisco, CA)

RB Terry Kirby rushed for a career-high 120 yards and scored two touchdowns, leading the San Francisco 49ers to a 38-22 victory over the Minnesota Vikings in the NFC Divisional Playoffs at 3Com Park.

In addition to Kirby's heroics, QB Steve Young completed 21-of-30 passes for 224 yards and a touchdown, WR J.J. Stokes had 101 yards receiving and LB Ken Norton Jr. returned an interception 23 yards for a touchdown.

San Francisco's first score came compliments of a Minnesota special teams miscue. P Mitch Berger's punt sailed off the side of his foot and into the crowd after going only 12 yards. The 49ers took over on the Vikings' 26, and four plays later, FB William Floyd scored from the one and the 49ers led 7-0. Less than a minute later, the visitors tied the game on a 66-yard scoring pass from QB Randall Cunningham to WR Cris Carter. In the second quarter, the 49ers again took advantage of a poor kick by Berger — this time a punt of 29 yards — to take a 14-7 lead. Moving 61 yards in only four plays, and aided by three Minnesota penalties, Kirby scored the first of his two touchdowns on a one-yard plunge. Then the game-breaker occurred two plays later. After the San Francisco defense flushed Cunningham out of the pocket, he threw over an onrushing DE Roy Barker and into the hands of Norton, who ran untouched into the end zone.

In the third quarter, K Gary Anderson connected on a 34-yard field goal to build the lead to 24-7, but Cunningham and Carter hooked up again for a score, closing the gap to 24-14. On the ensuing series, the 49ers marched 75 yards in seven plays, highlighted by two Kirby runs of 22 and 14 yards. Then Young hit WR Terrell Owens, with one of the prettiest touchdowns of the year, as the second-year receiver shook off a defender, then dove into the end zone for the score. Kirby finished the scoring in the fourth quarter with another one-yard run.

CB Tyrone Drakeford had six tackles and a pair of passes defended to pace the defense. Barker also recorded San Francisco's only sack of the game.

'97 Green Bay Packers 23, 49ers 10 NFC Championship January 11 at 3Com Park (San Francisco, CA)

RB Dorsey Levens rushed for 114 yards and WR Antonio Freeman caught four passes for 104 yards and a touchdown to lead visiting Green Bay to a 23-10 win in the NFC Championship Game. The game was played before 68,987 under windy and rainy conditions at 3Com Park.

The Packers opened the scoring late in the first quarter. After San Francisco punted on their first series, QB Brett Favre led Green Bay on a 10-play, 76-yard drive that resulted in a K Ryan Longwell 19-yard field goal. Favre completed 3-of-4 passes for 37 yards in the series.

Green Bay continued their scoring in the second quarter. S Eugene Robinson intercepted a QB Steve Young pass and returned it 58 yards to the San Francisco 28. Two plays later, Favre threw a 27-yard scoring pass to Freeman to make the score 10-0.

San Francisco then broke the drought on a scoring drive beginning with 4:23 remaining in the second. Following a missed field goal by Longwell, the 49ers took possession at their own 38. A pair of Young completions for 32 yards had the Niners in Packer territory, but two holding penalties brought the ball back to the original line of scrimmage. On a key third down and 26 yards to go, Young completed a 48-yard pass to WR Terrell Owens to the Packer 10-yard line. The drive resulted in a 28-yard field goal by K Gary Anderson.

Green Bay answered on their next possession. Freeman returned the kickoff 18 yards to the Packer 27. Two plays later Favre hit Freeman for a 40-yard completion to the San Francisco 25. Longwell connected on a 43-yard field goal to make the halftime score 13-3.

After a scoreless third quarter, Green Bay extended their lead to 16-3 on a 25-yard field goal by Longwell. The Packers added on seven more after a five-yard touchdown run by Levens to make the score 23-3.

San Francisco closed out the game scoring on the ensuing kickoff. Chuck Levy returned Longwell's kick 95 yards for a touchdown. Levy's return was the second longest postseason return for San Francisco, trailing the 97-yard touchdown return by Vic Washington vs. Dallas in 1972.

Young completed 23-of-38 passes for 250 yards and one interception. RB Terry Kirby ran for a team-high 21 yards on six carries. WR J.J. Stokes caught six passes for 87 yards, including a long of 43.

Defensively, San Francisco was led by S Merton Hanks with eight tackles. LB Ken Norton Jr., LB Lee Woodall, LB Gary Plummer and S Tim McDonald had seven tackles each.

49ers 30, Green Bay Packers 27

NFC Wild Card

January 3 at 3Com Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Steve Young threw three touchdown passes, including a 25-yard strike to WR Terrell Owens with three seconds remaining as San Francisco edged Green Bay, 30-27.

The 49ers forced three Green Bay turnovers and racked up 178 yards rushing, including 128 yards on 22 carries by RB Garrison Hearst, but still needed last-second heroics to defeat their rival and nemesis.

On a crystal clear day in the Bay Area, it was the Packers who opened the scoring on a 23-yard field goal from K Ryan Longwell midway through the first quarter. San Francisco answered with help from a big play defense. S Merton Hanks forced a fumble by RB Dorsey Levens, and the ball was recovered by DE Chris Doleman at the Green Bay 19-yard line. Three plays later Young connected with TE Greg Clark from one-yard out for the touchdown and a 7-3 lead.

Just four seconds into the second quarter, the Packers regained the lead on a two-yard scoring toss from QB Brett Favre to WR Antonio Freeman. The score capped a nine-play, 62-yard drive. San Francisco tied the score on the first of three K Wade Richey field goals, this one from 34 yards out with 6:53 remaining in the half. The Packers surged back ahead with 36 seconds remaining when Levens bowled into the end zone from two yards out. The extra point by Longwell was good and Green Bay took a 17-10 halftime lead.

The third quarter opened with another big play from the 49ers defense. With Green Bay driving at their own 41-yard line, DE Charles Haley pressured Favre into an errant pass that was intercepted by LB Lee Woodall and returned 17 yards to the Packer 33-yard line. Five plays later, the score was tied for a third time when Young hit Clark from eight-yards out for the score.

The 49ers reclaimed the lead midway through the quarter on a TEAM-POSTSEASON RECORD and CAREER-LONG 48-yard field goal from Richey. The kick capped an 11-play, 48-yard drive that took 5:33 off the clock.

In a game that saw five lead changes and three ties, the fourth quarter became particularly dramatic. Longwell answered Richey's 48-yard kick with a 37-yard effort of his own to tie the game at 20-20 at the beginning of the fourth. On the ensuing possession, San Francisco marched 51 yards in 10 plays and capped the drive with a 40-yard field goal by Richey to reclaim the lead at 23-20. With 4:19 remaining in the game, Green Bay took over at their own 11-yard line. From there, Favre would lead his team on a nine-play, 89-yard scoring drive. The drive was capped when Favre hit Freeman from 15 yards out for the touchdown and a 27-23 lead with 1:56 remaining in the game.

The Packer touchdown set up one of the most memorable sequences in 49ers' history. San Francisco took possession at their own 24-yard line with 1:50 remaining and three timeouts to their credit. From there Young would lead the team on a drive for the ages. Young opened the drive with completions of 17 and nine yards to WR J.J. Stokes. His third straight completion was for three yards to FB Marc Edwards, who broke three tackles to pick up a first down. After using the first timeout, Young threw incomplete to Stokes and then had a six-yard completion to WR Jerry Rice. The 49ers second timeout was followed by a nine-yard completion to RB Terry Kirby who ran out of bounds at the Green Bay 32-yard line. A seven-yard completion to RB Garrison Hearst was followed by the 49ers final timeout with 14 seconds remaining on the clock. After the timeout, Young passed incomplete to Stokes and eight seconds remained on the clock. On the next play Young dropped back, stumbled and threw a 25-yard touchdown strike to Owens who was sandwiched in the end zone by S Pat Terrell and S Darren Sharper.

CB Marquez Pope and Woodall paced the defensive effort with eight tackles each. Woodall also recorded an interception and had two passes defended. DT Brentson Buckner added six tackles, while LB Ken Norton Jr. and DT Junior Bryant recorded five stops each. CB Darnell Walker added an interception.

'98 Atlanta Falcons 20, 49ers 18 NFC Divisional Playoff January 9 at Georgia Dome (Atlanta, GA)

With San Francisco's NFL-leading running game a mere shell of itself, the Atlanta Falcons forced three turnovers and held off the 49ers, 20-18, in the NFC Divisional Playoff at the Georgia Dome.

San Francisco's hope of controlling the game on the ground came to a screeching halt on the first play of the game when RB Garrison Hearst fractured the tibia in his left leg on an inside run that had gained seven yards. With Hearst out and RB Terry Kirby hobbled with a bruised leg, the 49ers managed just 46 yards on the ground.

Atlanta's rushing attack flourished in the first half thanks to the power running of RB Jamal Anderson, who scored on a two-yard run in the first quarter to give the Falcons a 7-0 lead.

Atlanta increased its lead to 14-0 when Anderson finished off a 34-yard run with a spread eagle dive into the end zone with 3:12 left in the second quarter. The touchdown run capped a seven-play, 82-yard drive.

San Francisco snatched the momentum from the Falcons by putting together a pair of scoring drives just before the half. The 49ers answered Atlanta's second touchdown march with a nine-play, 80-yard drive that concluded with the familiar end zone combination of QB Steve Young to WR Jerry Rice from 17 yards out. It was Rice's 19th career postseason touchdown. With just under one minute to play in the first half, DE Charles Haley chased QB Chris Chandler and deflected his pass into the waiting arms of DT Junior Bryant, who returned it four yards to the Atlanta 36-yard line. K Wade Richey made it a 14-10 game at the half with a 36-yard field goal as time expired.

The 49ers carried that momentum into the third quarter, nearly tripling Atlanta's offensive output in the second half (187 yards to 68). But turnovers did not allow them to complete the comeback. The Falcons thwarted two drives with a pair of interceptions, including one by S Eugene Robinson that was returned 77 yards, to set up a K Morten Andersen 29-yard field goal. Leading 17-10, Andersen added another 32-yard field goal to give the Falcons a 10-point edge with 10:33 remaining.

San Francisco responded to Atlanta's three pointer with a 13-play, 87-yard drive that Young finished himself with an eight-yard touchdown run. A two-point pass from QB Ty Detmer to TE Greg Clark made it 20-18 with 2:57 left.

After Atlanta used up 2:19 of the clock, the 49ers got the ball back at their own four yard line but were only able to move to the 26 before Young's Hail Mary attempt was intercepted as time expired.

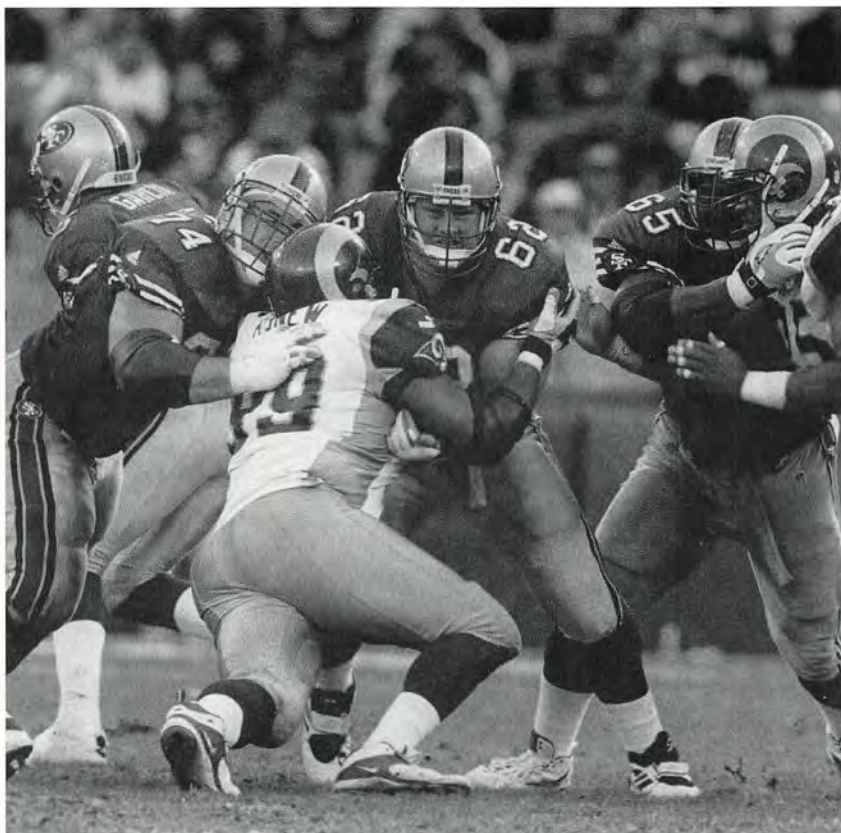

After rushing for 83 yards on 13 carries in the first half, Anderson was limited to 30 yards on 16 carries in the second half by San Francisco's defense. LB Winfred Tubbs made a game-high 10 tackles, while DE Chris Doleman made six stops and one sack.

SUPER BLOW-OUT

In five Super Bowl appearances, the 49ers have averaged 37.6 points per game while allowing 17.8. The 19.8 average margin of victory is the largest by a team with multiple Super Bowl appearances. Green Bay's 19.3 average margin of victory in three Super Bowls ranks second, while Oakland's 11.3 margin is third. The Chicago Bears have a 36.0-point margin after beating New England, 46-10, in their lone Super Bowl appearance.

49ERS HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS (NFL 1949-00)

Following are the team's historical highlights beginning with its first year in the NFL:

1949 - December 10, the NFL and AAFC announced that the two leagues will merge. The NFL agrees to adopt Baltimore, Cleveland and San Francisco as new franchises.

1950 - The 49ers struggled in their NFL debut, winning only three games. A rival coach described them as "not big enough or tough enough."

1951 - In an amazing reversal of form sparked by a great rookie group, the 49ers were in the race until the season's final day and finished only a half game off the top. Led by LB Hardy Brown and his famed "shoulder tackle," the club had one of the toughest defensive units in the League. QB Y.A. Tittle and E Billy Wilson began their great 49er careers.

1952 - After a blazing start, the 49ers slumped in mid-season. HB Hugh "The King" McElhenny came off the University of Washington campus to become the NFL PLAYER-OF-THE-YEAR and the most feared runner in football.

1953 - The 49ers had their best NFL showing posting a 9-3 record, normally good enough for a championship. Detroit, however, was 10-2. Two of San Francisco's losses came with QB Y.A. Tittle sidelined because of a severe facial injury. The three defeats were by a total of nine points. FB Joe "The Jet" Perry became one of the few players in pro history to gain more than 1,000 yards in a single season. E Gordy Soltau was the league's top scorer for the second straight year.

1954 - The 49ers jumped out to a blazing start, posting a 4-0-1 record through the season's first five games. However the early momentum was slowed by injuries to three key members of the legendary "Million Dollar Backfield." QB Y.A. Tittle, HB Hugh McElhenny and FB Joe Perry all missed action with different injuries, but Perry returned to become the first player to record 1,000 yards rushing in consecutive seasons.

1955 - With HB Hugh McElhenny hobbled by a foot injury, the 49ers had their second-worst season in history under Norman P. Strader, who succeeded Buck Shaw as head coach.

1956 - In head coach Frankie Albert's first year at the helm, the 49ers were in last place at mid-season with a 1-6 record. They went 4-0-1 in their last five games for a brilliant stretch drive.

1957 - This undoubtedly was one of the most emotional and dramatic seasons in 49ers history. Every game was a "cliffhanger" and the "Alley Oop" pass from QB Y.A. Tittle to rookie HB R.C. Owens became a household byword. Emotions reached a peak when the beloved Tony Morabito collapsed and died of a heart attack at the Chicago Bears game on Oct. 27, Trailing 17-7, the 49ers fought back for a great victory, 21-17. The magnificent E Billy Wilson caught a pass from Tittle for the winning touchdown in the fourth quarter. Tied with Detroit at 8-4 when the season ended, the 49ers lost the playoff game, 31-27, after holding a 27-7 lead in the third quarter.

1958 - An up-and-down season finished on a high note with victories over Green Bay and Baltimore. The 6-6 record, however, was blackened by the 33-3 and 56-7 lacings at the hands of the Los Angeles Rams. Head coach Frankie Albert resigned at the end of the year.

1959 - With Howard W. "Red" Hickey in charge, the 49ers were in contention all the way and QB John Brodie came into his own at quarterback when he led the team to a 21-20 upset of Cleveland. HB J.D. Smith, a converted defensive back, became the second 49er to accumulate more than 1,000 yards rushing.

1960 - Howard W. "Red" Hickey saved a seemingly hopeless season when he installed his "shotgun attack" and the club captured four of its last five games, including a 30-22 upset of Baltimore.

1961 - The success of Howard W. Hickey's shotgun amazed the football world, especially a 49-0 victory over Detroit. QB Billy Kilmer, a passing-running rookie from UCLA, was made to order for the new offense. When the shotgun stopped, QB John Brodie took over again in the "T" formation and had the finest season in 49er QB annals. Indicating the evenness of NFL competition, the 49ers were playing for a second-place tie, plus a trip to the Runner-up Bowl at Miami, or a fifth-place position on the last day of the season. The Colts again won by three points, but 1961 will remain as one of the most exciting and interesting years in 49ers history.

1962 - For the first time since 1956, the 49ers finished a frustrating season with more defeats than victories. In so doing, the honored adage of "it's easier to win at home than on the road," proved false—the 49ers won only one of seven at Kezar Stadium, but captured five of seven road contests.

1963 - A multitude of injuries to key personnel started the 49ers off to a disappointing 2-12 season. One of the victories, however, was a 20-14 upset of ultimate world champion Chicago, the only league defeat suffered by the Bears all season.

1965 - Outstanding offensive performances enabled the 49ers to jump from the bottom to fourth place in the Western Division as the team led the NFL in both scoring and total offense. QB John Brodie was the most productive passer in the NFL, E Dave Parks led the league in receiving and rookie FB Ken Willard and veteran HB John David Crow, acquired in an offseason trade, led a strong ground game. The 7-6-1 record included a season-opening 52-24 victory over the Chicago Bears, marking the most points scored by the 49ers in NFL play.

1966 - After a somewhat slow start, the 49ers got in gear just before the midway point and became one of only two teams to beat the eventual world champion Green Bay Packers. After that, they finished with a respectable 6-6-2 record and were in the battle for second place in the Western Division until the final league game. G John Thomas and E Dave Parks were All-Pro, and they joined G Howard Mudd, C Bruce Bosley, FB Ken Willard and LB Dave Wilcox in the Pro Bowl.

1967 - An auspicious start (5-1) disintegrated into disappointment for the 49ers as injuries took a heavy toll and a six-game losing streak took them out of the running. QB George Mira came off the bench to lead the squad to two season-ending victories and salvage a 7-7 record. There were bright spots, however, as QB John Brodie and the 49ers were the only team to beat the power-laden Rams in a league game. G Bruce Bosley played in the Pro Bowl for the second straight season.

1968 - Under new coach Dick Nolan, the 49ers posted a 7-6-1 record. The season turned on key wins over the New York Giants, 26-10, and Green Bay, 27-20. Brilliant performances by QB John Brodie, WR Clifton McNeil and RB Ken Willard led a prolific offense, while DT Charlie Krueger, LB Dave Wilcox and DB Kermit Alexander sparked a revitalized defense. McNeil and G Howard Mudd were chosen All-NFL and were joined by Wilcox, Willard and Alexander in the Pro Bowl.

1969 - Beseated by injuries that nearly decimated the defensive unit, the 49ers struggled through the early part of the season. They went winless in their first five games before beating Baltimore, the first time they had beaten the Colts in 13 previous games. The 49ers finished 4-8-2 and five players—HB Jimmy Johnson, LB Dave Wilcox, G Elmer Collett, RB Ken Willard and rookie WR Gene Washington—were selected to the Pro Bowl. Johnson was also All-Pro and winner of the Len Eshmont Award.

1970 - This was the greatest year since the club became a member of the NFL in 1950. The team recorded a 10-3 record and captured the Western Division (NFC) Championship. In a season of superlatives, QB John Brodie was the NFL'S PLAYER-OF-THE-YEAR, CB Bruce Taylor was NFC ROOKIE-OF-THE-YEAR, Coach Dick Nolan was a near-unanimous choice as NFC COACH-OF-THE-YEAR. Brodie, WR Gene Washington, LB Dave Wilcox and HB Jimmy Johnson were All-Pro and joined T Len Rohde in the Pro Bowl.

1971 - The 49ers forged a 9-5-0 record and won their second consecutive NFC Western Division title, clinching the crown on the final day by beating Detroit, 31-27, the identical score by which the Lions had knocked the 49ers out of championship play in 1957. The season also was the club's first in its plush new home, Candlestick Park. C Forrest Blue, LB Dave Wilcox and CB Jimmy Johnson were All-Pro and joined in the Pro Bowl by TE Ted Kwalick, WR Gene Washington, RB Vic Washington, DE Cedrick Hardman and CB Bruce Taylor.

1972 - Early-season inconsistency, compounded by an injury to QB John Brodie in the fifth game of the season, cast apall on 49er prospects for a third-straight NFC Western Division title, but QB Steve Spurrier stepped in for Brodie and turned things around with a brilliant, poised performance. In the final quarter of the final game against Minnesota, the recovered Brodie relieved Spurrier and threw two TD passes in a 20-17 win over the Vikings. The victory clinched divisional title No. 3, but Spurrier's nine-game contribution was the key. C Forrest Blue, DB Jimmy Johnson, TE Ted Kwalick, WR Gene Washington and LB Dave Wilcox were All-Pro selections.

1973 - In what was both a disappointing and significant year, the 49ers were 5-9 after tackling the NFL's toughest schedule, a rash of key injuries and an unsettled quarterback situation. It also marked the end of the brilliant careers of QB John Brodie and DT Charlie Krueger, both of whom retired at year's end. C Forrest Blue and LB Dave Wilcox were voted All-Pro and joined in the Pro Bowl by TE Ted Kwalick, G Woody Peoples and P Tom Wittum.

1974 - The 49ers used five different quarterbacks after an injury to starter QB Steve Spurrier, a week before the season opened, sidelined him for most of the year. After winning the first two games, the club lost a team-record seven straight and then closed with a rush, winning four of its last five to finish the season 6-8. RB Wilbur Jackson was named The Sporting News ROOKIE-OF-THE-YEAR and was named to the NFL All-Rookie team along with QB Tom Owen and DB Mike Holmes. C Forrest Blue and P Tom Wittum were All-NFC and selected for the Pro Bowl along with HB Jimmy Johnson. A knee injury forced perennial All-Pro LB Dave Wilcox to retire after a brilliant 11-year career with the 49ers.

1975 - A strong defensive performance throughout the season couldn't offset an erratic offense troubled by an unsettled quarterback situation and a rebuilding offensive line. High point of the 5-9 season was a 24-23 win over Los Angeles to end a 10-game losing streak to the Rams. At season's end, DE Cedrick Hardman was the club's first-ever two-time Len Eshmont Award winner.

1976 - A turnaround year for the 49ers as the team, under coach Monte Clark, posted an 8-6 record, their first winning season since 1972. With new QB Jim Plunkett at the controls, the 49ers got off to their best start ever (6-1), before hitting a mid-season four-game losing streak knocking the club out of playoff contention. The season saw the emergence of a powerful defensive unit that led the league in quarterback sacks with 61. RB Delvin Williams set a 49ers single-season rushing record with 1,203 yards. DE Tommy Hart was named All-Pro and played in the Pro Bowl along with Williams, DE Cleveland Elam and LB Dave Washington. C Randy Cross was an All-Rookie team selection. Hart became a two-time winner of the Len Eshmont Award and CB Jimmy Johnson retired after a brilliant 16-year career with the 49ers.

1977 - In the 32nd year of their existence, the 49ers began a new era. On March 31, 1977, the club became the property of Edward J. DeBartolo Jr. and came under the guidance of Joe Thomas as general manager. The changeover was made more dramatic because the San Francisco 49ers were one of the few NFL franchises which had never previously changed ownership or location. On the field, under Coach Ken Meyer, the 49ers ran hot and cold. The club lost its first five games, then won five of the next six before dropping the final three contests to finish 5-9. SS Mel Phillips was named winner of the coveted Len Eshmont Award. DE Cleveland Elam was selected All-Pro and played for the NFC in the Pro Bowl.

1978 - The 49ers suffered through their longest season as the club fell to 2-14 and three coaches were hired and fired in less than 12 months. First Head Coach Pete McCulley departed after nine games with a 1-8 record, and his replacement, Fred O'Connor, was let go at the end of the year as the team won just one of its final seven contests. Bill Walsh was hired as the new coach and general manager. RB Paul Hofer, who replaced RB O.J. Simpson when the newly-acquired star went to the sidelines for the year with a shoulder injury, was named recipient of the Len Eshmont award.

1979 - The 49ers suffered through their second consecutive 2-14 season, but there were several indications of improvement. San Francisco went from virtually the worst-ranked offensive team in the league in '78 to one of the most productive in '79, ranking first in passing offense in the NFC and sixth in total offense in the NFL. RB Paul Hofer again was the Len Eshmont Award recipient and individual leader, racking up 615 yards rushing and an additional 662 yards receiving on 58 catches in only seven starts. QB Steve DeBerg broke Fran Tarkenton's NFL record for completions by connecting on 347 passes. K Ray Wersching set a club record with an 83.3 field goal percentage, and also led the league with that mark. RB O.J. Simpson retired from the 49ers and the NFL, finishing as the second leading rusher of all time with 11,236 yards.

1980 - In their second season of the Bill Walsh era, the 49ers showed gradual improvement in their rebuilding program. A three-game winning streak to open the season, combined with a three-game victory string from Week 12 through Week 14, enabled the Niners to post a 6-10 season, tripling the number of victories from each of the previous two 2-14 campaigns. Week 14 was a day when the 49ers made NFL history. That December 7 at Candlestick Park, the 49ers overcame a 35-7 halftime deficit against the New Orleans Saints to win in overtime, 38-35. The 28-point comeback was the biggest comeback in NFL history. E Jim Stuckey and P Jim Miller were named to All-Rookie teams, while another rookie, FB Earl Cooper, led the NFC in receptions with 83, the most catches ever by an NFL rookie. WR Dwight Clark caught 82 passes to break the team wide receiver mark, and QB Joe Montana set the club passing percentage record at .645 with 176 completions in 273 attempts.

1981 - It was a year of firsts and bests for the 49ers in 1981. In his third season as head coach and general manager, Bill Walsh guided San Francisco to a 16-3 record (best record in the league that year), the NFC Western Division title (first since '72), the NFC Championship crown (first ever for the 49ers), and the World Championship/Super Bowl XVI win (first ever for the 49ers). Walsh earned every possible NFC Coach-of-the-Year award and all seven NFL Coach-of-the-Year honors, while six 49ers were named to the Pro Bowl—WR Dwight Clark, C Randy Cross, QB Joe Montana, DE Fred Dean, S Ronnie Lott and S Dwight Hicks. Three San Francisco players were selected to All-Pro teams as recognized by the NFL—Cross, Lott and Dean. Montana, who led the NFC in passing in '81, was named MVP of Super Bowl XVI (for leading his team to a 26-21 win over the Cincinnati Bengals of the AFC). Dean was picked UPI NFL Defensive Player-of-the-Year, NFL Outstanding Defensive Lineman-of-the-Year (NFL Players Association) and NFC Defensive Player-of-the-Year (Kansas City Committee of the 101). San Francisco opened and closed the season in Pontiac, MI in drastically different styles. The 49ers lost two of their first three games of 1981, including the season opener on the road against Detroit, then ran off seven wins—before a loss to Cleveland 15-12—and ran off eight more wins (including playoffs, the NFC Championship and Super Bowl XVI). The 49ers won 15 of their last 16 games, beat five opponents twice—including all three postseason foes—and became the first team since Chicago in 1945-47 to go from the worst NFL record (2-14 in 1979) to the league's best (13-3 in '81) in just three seasons. All this happened with three rookies (S Carlton Williamson, CB Eric Wright and Lott) starting in the defensive secondary. Those three rookies, along with Montana, Clark, Cross, WR Freddie Solomon and Hicks, combined with "old veterans" Dean and LB Jack "Hacksaw" Reynolds formed a nucleus of world championship vintage.

1982 - As defending world champions, the San Francisco 49ers did not enjoy the 1982 season, but then not many NFL fans, coaches and players throughout the league did either (except maybe in Washington, where the Redskins were Super Bowl XVII champs). The Niners fell to 3-6 and missed out on the playoffs. In the strike-shortened season, San Francisco went winless at home (0-5) but did manage a 3-1 road record (the Niners were 0-2 prior to the 57-day players' strike and 3-4 following it). WR Dwight Clark had an outstanding season, leading the NFL with 60 receptions and being named consensus All-Pro (and NFL PLAYER-OF-THE-YEAR by Sports Illustrated). LB Keena Turner (second team All-Pro), S Ronnie Lott (Pro Bowl), C Randy Cross (Pro Bowl), S Dwight Hicks (Pro Bowl), T Keith Fahnhorst and QB Joe Montana (NFL record for five straight 300+-yard passing games) were bright spots in an otherwise disappointing season.

1983 - For the second time in three seasons, San Francisco played in the NFC Championship Game. The '83 49ers were 10-6 (3rd best regular season victory total in club history) and Western Division Champions (5th time since 1970, 2nd time since 1981). In the playoffs, San Francisco squeezed past Detroit, 24-23, but lost to Washington, 24-21, in the NFC Championship contest. Individual standouts included QB Joe Montana (the league's No. 1 all-time QB entering the 1984 season), S Ronnie Lott (making his third Pro Bowl appearance in as many years), DE Fred Dean (leading the NFC in sacks with 17.5), DE Dwaine Board (second in sacks with 13), CB Eric Wright (team leader in interceptions with seven, two for scores), WR Dwight Clark (team leader with 70 receptions and eight TDs), WR Freddie Solomon (club record 21.4 yards per catch), K Ray Wersching (team record 126 points, including a perfect 51-of-51 PATs), offensive linemen C Randy Cross, T Keith Fahnhorst and G John Ayers, RB Roger Craig (752 yards rushing, 427 receiving) and RB Wendell Tyler (856 rushing yards, 285 receiving), and NFL All-Rookie team pick LB Riki Ellison (two interceptions in the playoffs).

1984 - The 49ers experienced the most successful regular season in NFL history by winning a league record 15 games, including all eight road contests—setting yet another NFL standard. The Niners broke 14 team records in '84, while becoming the first NFC team to sweep all of its conference games, and the first NFC West unit to win all contests within the division. Led by RB Roger Craig and QB Joe Montana, San Francisco capped the year by routing the Miami Dolphins in Super Bowl XIX, 38-16. The win was the 18th victory of the '84 campaign, establishing an NFL standard for wins in a single season (including playoffs). San Francisco scored a team-record 475 points. The 49ers defense was the stingiest in the NFL in '84, allowing a league-low 227 points scored. Honors were numerous, including Pro Bowl recognition for 10 of Bill Walsh's charges—Montana, RB Wendell Tyler, T Keith Fahnhorst, C Randy Cross and C Fred Quillan on offense and S Dwight Hicks, S Ronnie Lott, S Carlton Williamson and CB Eric Wright (the entire Niners' secondary), and LB Keena Turner on defense.

1985 - At 10-6, San Francisco qualified for postseason play for the fourth time since 1981. Offensively, RB Roger Craig and WR Jerry Rice emerged as potent weapons in the attack. Craig became the first NFL player to surpass 1,000 yards rushing and receiving in the same season. Rice was named NFC Rookie-of-the-Year and set the team record for first-year players with 927 receiving yards. The defense experienced the influx of four new starters in '85 (NT Michael Carter, LB Todd Shell, LB Michael Walter and DE John Harty). Carter won a berth on the Pro Bowl team, as did DBs Eric Wright and Carlton Williamson.

Offensively, the team was led by All-Pro wide receiver WR Jerry Rice, who paced the NFL with 1,570 receiving yards and 15 touchdowns. Those marks established club standards in addition to Rice's team-record 16 total scores.

The defense managed 49 takeaways, tying the Kansas City Chiefs for NFL leadership. San Francisco's 39 interceptions and 578 return yards set team records, while five scores on pick-off returns tied another club mark. S Ronnie Lott tied HB Dave Baker's 1960 team record with 10 interceptions.

The output by young players was vital due to major injuries suffered by many starting veterans. San Francisco made 20 roster moves during the season, shuffling players in and out of action. QB Joe Montana missed Weeks 2-9 due to back surgery, while backup signal-caller Jeff Kemp did not play Weeks 8-11 due to a hip injury.

1987 - The San Francisco 49ers marched to an NFL regular season best 13-2 record. It marked a league-leading third time in the decade of the '80s that the team either tied or posted the best won-loss percentage during the regular season. San Francisco led the NFL with 5,987 total yards and was best among league defenders allowing 4,095 total yards. It was the first time in Niners' history that the team led the league in fewest total yards allowed.

WR Jerry Rice set NFL records with 22 receiving touchdowns and scoring receptions in 13 consecutive games. The durable wide-out received postseason Most Valuable Player awards from nearly every news agency and sports publication.

QB Joe Montana won the first NFL passing title of his nine-year career and set a team record with 31 touchdown passes. S Ronnie Lott, Montana and Rice were joined by NT Michael Carter and RB Roger Craig on the NFC squad in the 1988 Pro Bowl.

1988 - The 49ers climaxed their 1988 season in thrilling fashion with a dramatic touchdown drive in the waning seconds of Super Bowl XXIII. QB Joe Montana's 10-yard scoring toss to WR John Taylor with thirty-four seconds remaining in the contest gave the Niners their third Super Bowl win of the decade, and the rights to the title "Team of the 1980s."

The world championship game against the Cincinnati Bengals was a microcosm of the entire '88 campaign. San Francisco opened the year strong with a 5-2 record, but by Week 12 were 6-5, two games out of first place with only five contests to play.

That week's victory over Washington launched a four-game winning streak that resulted in the Niners moving up from third to first place in the NFC West standings and earning a third consecutive NFC Western Division title. As the season ended RB Roger Craig broke the team's single season rushing record (finishing with 1,502 yards) and K Mike Cofer established new Niners' single season standards for field goals attempted (38) and made (27).

WR Jerry Rice went on to a playoff tear that included: an NFL postseason record-tying three touchdown receptions against Minnesota; the Montana-to-Rice battery hooked-up on first half touchdowns of 61 and 27 yards at Chicago; and concluded with a Super Bowl XXIII MVP performance of 11 receptions for a Super Bowl record 215 yards and a touchdown.

Defenders S Ronnie Lott, DE Charles Haley, NT Michael Carter, along with Rice, Taylor, and Craig, were selected to the Pro Bowl.

1989 - George Seifert was named head coach of the San Francisco 49ers just four days after the team had won its third World Championship under retiring head man Bill Walsh. Seifert's quest for the title was tested early and often as the 49ers endured nail-biting wins at Indianapolis (30-24) and Tampa Bay (20-16) to open the season. QB Joe Montana threw for 428 yards and five touchdowns, including a team-record four TD tosses in the fourth quarter resulting in a 10-point victory (38-28) in Philadelphia.

Under first-year offensive coordinator Mike Holmgren, the Niners accumulated more yardage than any other NFL team. WRs Jerry Rice and John Taylor, RB Roger Craig, G Guy McIntyre, and QB Joe Montana were 1990 Pro Bowl participants. Rice's 1,483 receiving yards paced the league. Craig exceeded 1,000 yards rushing for the second consecutive season, and running mate FB Tom Rathman led NFC running backs with 73 receptions.

Montana had the best season of his career. A consensus Player-of-the-Year, Montana's 112.4 quarterback rating set a then NFL single season record. Montana was selected by his teammates as the '89 recipient of the Len Eshmont Award.

Fueled by Rice's 72-yard first quarter catch-and-run for a score, the 49ers exploded for 27 first half points and cruised to a 41-13 victory against Minnesota in their opening '89 playoff contest.

The 49ers faced Los Angeles in the NFC Championship Game. The Niners started slowly, however. Two long, second-quarter scoring drives and a touchdown set up by an interception gave San Francisco a 21-3 lead at intermission. Cofer's three field goals cushioned San Francisco's lead as the team advanced to Super Bowl XXIV with a satisfying 30-3 win.

The 49ers displayed optimal performance at the highest level of competition while securing their second consecutive World Championship. The resounding 55-10 defeat of the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XXIV was a convergence of talent and technique, planning and purpose. San Francisco tied or set nearly 40 Super Bowl records, and Montana was honored with the game's MVP award for an unprecedented third time.

1990 - The Niners finished the season with an NFL-best 14-2 mark and came within four seconds (in a 15-13 loss to the NY Giants) of earning their third consecutive trip to the Super Bowl.

In addition to recording the NFL's best won-loss mark for the second straight season (14-2), the 49ers captured the NFC Western Division title for the fifth consecutive year and the eighth time since 1981 ('81, 1983-84, 1986-90). San Francisco claimed its 11th Division crown since the NFL/AFL merger of 1970, more than any NFC Western Division opponent (the Rams were second with eight), and second most in NFL history (behind Miami's 13 AFC East titles).

San Francisco opened the 1990 season with a team-record 10 consecutive victories. The 49ers also posted an 8-0 mark on the road, giving them the longest road winning streak in league history (19 games, including postseason) heading into '91.

QB Joe Montana and WR Jerry Rice again formed one of the most prolific aerial combinations in pro football. Montana, who was named 1990 SPORTSMAN-OF-THE-YEAR by Sports Illustrated, finished his 12th NFL season by throwing for a then team-record 3,944 yards. He also tossed 26 touchdown passes (second in the NFC), and finished as the third highest rated quarterback in the conference.

On the receiving end of many of those Montana passes was Rice, who became only the fourth player in league history to reach the century mark in receptions for a single season. Rice hauled in 100 passes for 1,502 yards and 13 TDs, and earned his fifth consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl. In one of the most memorable performances of the season (if not team history), Rice tied an NFL record with five TD receptions in a 45-35 victory at Atlanta, October 14.

The defensive side of the ball was led by LB-DE Charles Haley's 58 tackles and an NFC-high 16 sacks. For his efforts, the fourth-year player from James Madison University was named as a starter in the 1991 Pro Bowl. LB Bill Romanowski led the team in tackles with 79, while CB Darryl Pollard registered 74, including a team-high 72 solo stops.

A number of team career records fell by the wayside in '90. Montana slipped past QB John Brodie to take over the career passing lead (34,998 yards), while RB Roger Craig became the all-time team record holder in career receptions with 508, moving ahead of WR Dwight Clark's total of 506.

The 49ers placed five players on the 1991 NFC Pro Bowl squad, four as starters. Representing the 49ers were Haley, Rice, S Ronnie Lott and G Guy McIntyre, while Montana, selected as a starter, was unable to participate because of a finger injury suffered in the NFC Championship game.

1991 - It was a classic case of "too little...too late" for the San Francisco 49ers in 1991.

After losing six of their first 10 games by a total of 26 points, the Niners won their remaining six contests (by a total of 95 points) but missed the playoffs for the first time since 1982.

The 49ers finished the 1991 campaign in impressive fashion during that final six-game span, with a margin of victory that averaged almost 16 points. During that final six-game span, the Niners defeated three playoff teams (New Orleans, Kansas City, and Chicago) while averaging 31.5 points per game in the process.

WR Jerry Rice continued to register his place in club, and league history, taking over the club's career receiving record with 525 catches.

Rice finished the campaign as the No. 3 pass receiver in the NFC with 80 receptions and 1,206 yards, surpassing 1,000 receiving yards for a club-record sixth consecutive season, and he led the NFL with 14 TD receptions.

QB Steve Young won the NFL passing title, despite missing six games due to a knee injury. Young, who passed for 2,517 yards and 17 TDs, finished with a 101.8 rating, besting Washington's Mark Rypien (97.9) for the title.

When Young was injured at Atlanta November 3, QB Steve Bono (1,617 yards, 11 TDs) came off the bench to rally the team to five consecutive victories.

On the defensive side of the ball, S Dave Waymeyer finished as the leader in total tackles (86), solo tackles (77), interceptions (4), interception return yards (78), and passes defended (16) and tied CB Kevin Lewis for the lead in forced fumbles (3).

LB-DE Charles Haley and DE Larry Roberts each posted seven sacks, while CB Don Griffin's 99-yard fumble return against the Bears set a team record and was the third longest return in league history.

San Francisco placed three players on the 1992 NFC Pro Bowl squad, two as starters, as Rice, Guy McIntyre, and Haley were all selected (Rice and McIntyre as starters). It was the sixth time in Rice's seven-year career that he was selected to play in the islands. McIntyre and Haley were each selected for the third time.

1992 - The San Francisco 49ers continued their winning tradition as they once again posted the NFL's best regular season record (14-2), while winning their sixth NFC Western Division title in seven years, and advancing to the NFC Championship Game for the second time in three seasons.

In the NFC Divisional Playoffs, the 49ers defeated defending Super Bowl Champion Washington (20-13). However, San Francisco fell to Dallas, 30-20, in the NFC Championship Game at Candlestick Park the following week.

WR Jerry Rice continued to etch his name in football history, becoming the NFL's all-time touchdown reception leader with 103. He tied Steve Largent's mark of 100 in Week 13 against the Philadelphia Eagles (Nov. 29), then broke the record the following week vs. the Miami Dolphins (Dec. 6).

QB Steve Young, who harvested a total of 34 awards, including the NFL's Most Valuable Player Award, won the NFL passing title for the second straight year, finishing an amazing 16.3 points ahead of his closest competitor. Young, who passed for 3,465 yards and 25 TDs, finished with a 107.0 rating. Following his 101.8 rating in 1991, it marked the first time in league history that anyone had posted back-to-back seasons with ratings higher than 100 each year.

RB Ricky Watters gained 1,013 yards to establish a team rushing record for first-year backs. K Mike Cofer's 107 points led the 49ers in scoring for the fifth consecutive year.

On the defensive side of the ball, linebacking led the charge as LB Bill Romanowski finished as the leader in total tackles (80) and assists (15). LB Mike Walter (67 solo stops) and LB Tim Harris (17 sacks for 116 yards) also led defensive categories. CB Don Griffin paced the defensive backfield with five interceptions and 19 passes defensed.

Fans at Candlestick saw the Niners rewrite part of the team's record book in '92 as they set team marks for total offense (598 yards) vs. the Buffalo Bills (Sept. 13) and points (56) in their win over the Atlanta Falcons (56-17, Oct. 18).

San Francisco placed seven players on the 1993 NFC Pro Bowl squad, including four starters and five first-time participants. Rice, G Guy McIntyre, DT Pierce Holt and Young were all named as starters. TE Brent Jones, Watters, and T Steve Wallace were also selected. It was the seventh time in Rice's eight-year career that he was selected to play on the islands, and McIntyre was named for the fourth time, while the others made their first visits.

1993 - The 1993 season was another in a long line of successes for the San Francisco 49ers. Among the team's accomplishments were a 10-6 record, marking an NFL-record 11th consecutive season with 10 or more victories; the team's 10th NFC West title in 13 seasons; and a third appearance in four years in the NFC title game.

In addition, San Francisco led the National Football League in scoring and total offense and established or tied five of the team's nine major offensive records.

The marks set included most net offensive yards (6,435), most TDs (61), most first downs (372) and highest average gain per play (6.3). The Niners also tied the team mark for net passing yards in a season with 4,302, equalling the record set in 1989.

Individually, QB Steve Young became the first player in NFL history to lead the NFL in passing three consecutive seasons, when he posted a 101.5 rating in 1993. In addition, it was his third consecutive season with a rating over 100, also a league first. Young completed 68 percent of his passes (second highest in team history) for a club-record 4,023 yards. His 29 scoring passes in '93 ranked third on the team's single-season charts.

RB Ricky Watters led the ground game for the second consecutive season, narrowly missing the 1,000-yard mark with 950 yards. Watters posted 10 rushing TDs during the season and then set an NFL single-game playoff record with a five TD outburst vs. the New York Giants.

WR Jerry Rice posted one of his best seasons, recording 98 receptions for 1,503 yards and 15 touchdowns on his way to being named NFL OFFENSIVE PLAYER-OF-THE-YEAR by the Associated Press. He also received the team's Len Eshmont Award.

Defensively, DT Dana Stubblefield was named the NFL DEFENSIVE ROOKIE-OF-THE-YEAR, capping a season in which he registered 10.5 sacks. LB Bill Romanowski (105) and S Tim McDonald (91) topped the team in tackles.

Young, Rice and McDonald were selected to the Pro Bowl, joining T Harris Barton, G Guy McIntyre, TE Brent Jones and C Jesse Sapolu with that honor.

1994 - The 1994 San Francisco 49ers completed one of the most impressive seasons in NFL history by capturing their NFL-record fifth Super Bowl Championship at Joe Robbie Stadium in Miami. San Francisco defeated the San Diego Chargers 49-26 in Super Bowl XXIX to put the finishing touches on a 16-3 season and win an unprecedented fifth Vince Lombardi Trophy.

The offseason started on a high note. Despite facing an NFL-imposed salary cap in 1994, the 49ers still managed to sign such veteran free agents as LB Ken Norton Jr., LB Gary Plummer, DE Tim Harris, DE Charles Mann, DE Richard Dent, LB Rickey Jackson, C Bart Oates, WR Ed McCaffrey and CB Toi Cook. Then, after some draft day maneuvering, San Francisco came away with two first round picks in DT Bryant Young and FB William Floyd.

Injuries, however, played a key factor early in the campaign. By the end of the second game in Kansas City, the 49ers had lost most of their starting offensive line, as well as the services of Dent, their top pass-rusher to various injuries.

Despite signing CB Deion Sanders prior to Week 3, the problems continued. Still playing with a decimated line, San Francisco suffered its worst loss in almost 14 years when it dropped a 40-8 decision to the Philadelphia Eagles in Week 5 at Candlestick Park.

The season turned around the following Sunday at Detroit when the 49ers, trailing 14-0 at one point, rallied to defeat the Lions 27-21. That win started a winning streak that extended 10 games and saw the 49ers finish 13-3 and win the Super Bowl.

Among the other highlights from the 1994 season, the 49ers' offense was one of the most potent ever. During the 16-game regular season, the 49ers scored a team-record 505 points, a total that ranks as the fourth-highest total in NFL history. The 31.6 points per game average also established a team record. In addition, San Francisco scored 66 touchdowns, shattering the previous team mark of 61.

QB Steve Young recorded one of the finest seasons in NFL history. He set a league record with a QB rating of 112.8 and became the first player in NFL history to lead the league in passing four consecutive seasons. He also set team records for completion percentage (70.2) and touchdown passes (35). In Super Bowl XXIX, he passed for a record six touchdowns, while being named the game's MVP.

Rookie Floyd emerged as one of the league's brightest young stars, rushing for 305 yards and six TDs. The 49ers went 10-1 after he was named to the starting lineup in Week 6 at Detroit. Young finished third on the team in rushing with 293 yards and led the team with seven rushing touchdowns.

WR Jerry Rice set a team record 112 receptions for 1,499 yards and 13 touchdowns. However, his shining moment came in Week 1 vs. the Los Angeles Raiders when he eclipsed Jim Brown's all-time touchdown mark with 127. Norton Jr. led the 49ers with 92 total tackles and 79 solo stops. S Merton Hanks placed second with 79 tackles (66-13) while leading the team with seven interceptions. DT Dana Stubblefield's 8.5 sacks and 53.5 sack yards led the squad for the second consecutive season. And finally, Sanders, who joined the team in Week 3, shattered the team record with an NFL-high 303 interception return yards on six thefts. Among his three returns for TDs (tying a team mark) were efforts of 93, 90 and 74 yards. He was named the NFL Defensive Player-of-the-Year as well as a starter in the Pro Bowl. Other Pro Bowl selections included Young, Rice, TE Brent Jones, Oates, G Jesse Sapolu, Hanks, Stubblefield, S Tim McDonald and RB Ricky Watters. CB Eric Davis had a team-leading 22 passes defended during the regular season and four interceptions in the playoffs.

1995 - San Francisco once again captured the NFC West Championship, despite battling through a season in which injuries wreaked havoc time and again. Among the key contributors who were sidelined during the campaign were starting FB William Floyd, whose season ended with a severe knee injury in the October 29 New Orleans game, and QB Steve Young, who missed five games with a shoulder injury.

Those injuries, in addition to several others in the offensive line throughout the season, would have crippled most teams; however, the 1995 49ers established a reputation as one of the grittiest in team history. The defensive unit created a new aggressive identity, finishing the season ranked No. 1 in the NFL. Not only did it lead the league in scoring defense, it set team records for fewest rushing yards allowed (1,061) and fewest rushing yards per game (66.3).

San Francisco's defense also excelled in takeaways, forcing a total of 34, including a team-record seven (five interceptions, two fumbles) that resulted in touchdowns. Among the standout performers were Pro Bowl selections CB Eric Davis, FS Merton Hanks and SS Tim McDonald, marking the second consecutive season the 49ers secondary included three Pro Bowl picks. LB Ken Norton Jr. racked up 127 tackles and set a team single-game record by returning two interceptions for TDs at St. Louis. LB Lee Woodall and DT Dana Stubblefield rounded out the Niners' Pro Bowl defensive players.

Offensively, WR Jerry Rice posted the finest of his legendary 11 seasons with the 49ers. He became the NFL's career leader with 942 receptions and 15,123 yards, while also establishing the league's single-season standard with 1,848 yards. He was named as a starter in the Pro Bowl for the 10th consecutive season.

Young, who returned to quarterback the team for the final four regular-season games, was also selected to the Pro Bowl, as was TE Brent Jones, who made the squad as an alternate.

One of the highlights of the season was the emergence of QB Elvis Grbac. Playing in place of the injured Young, he directed the Niners to three of their biggest wins of the season at St. Louis, at eventual world champion Dallas and at Miami.

Floyd was the recipient of the team's Len Eshmont Award.

1996 - One streak continued and another ended for San Francisco in 1996. With a 12-4 record, the 49ers reached double digits in the win column for the 14th consecutive season, the longest streak in the NFL. However, the upstart Carolina Panthers unseated the Niners as NFC West champions, ending their four-year reign. San Francisco remained one of the league's most dangerous teams with an aggressive defense and a productive offense.

Despite losing QB Steve Young for four full games and parts of four others with various injuries, the 49ers offense ranked second in the NFC with 398 points and sixth in the NFL in total offense. WR Jerry Rice became the first player in NFL history to record four 100-catch seasons after making a league-high 108 receptions for 1,254 yards. The 12-year veteran earned his NFL record-tying 11th Pro Bowl invitation and was a first team All-Pro selection. Young won his fifth NFL passing title with a QB rating of 97.2 and was named to the Pro Bowl for the fifth consecutive season.

Defensively, the 49ers had the league's most imposing pass rushing trio in DE Roy Barker, DT Bryant Young and DE Chris Doleman. Barker finished fourth in the NFC with 12.5 sacks, while Doleman's 11 sacks moved him into seventh on the NFL's career list with 115.5. Young was named a starter on the NFC Pro Bowl team and earned first-team All-Pro honors after posting 11.5 sacks and 85 tackles. He also claimed the 49ers'

Len Eshmont Award as the team's most inspirational and courageous player. The third-year veteran was joined on the Pro Bowl team by FS Merton Hanks, who was invited for the third consecutive season.

As usual, Rice's assault on the record books continued. He became the first player in NFL history to register 1,000 career receptions and 16,000 receiving yards. Rice also surpassed K Ray Wersching as the team's all-time leading scorer with 982 points.

1997 - Although they appeared vulnerable after first week injuries to QB Steve Young and WR Jerry Rice, the San Francisco 49ers rallied under the direction of rookie head coach Steve Mariucci, reclaimed the NFC West title and advanced to the NFC Championship Game. The 49ers finished with a 13-3 mark, including an 11-game winning streak, despite losing Rice for all but two games. They did it behind a new-found running attack and the league's top-ranked defense.

Mariucci became one of 13 head coaches since the NFL-AFL merger in 1970 to lead his team to a division title in his rookie season, and he was the fourth to do it directly out of the college ranks. The former University of California skipper established an NFL record for consecutive wins by a rookie head coach with an 11-game streak (games 2-12). The 49ers claimed their 13th NFC West title in 17 years and posted 10-or-more wins for the 15th consecutive season.

Young suffered a concussion against Tampa Bay on opening day, but remained healthy throughout the season and claimed his NFL record-tying (Sammy Baugh) sixth league passing title with a rating of 104.7. The 13-year veteran showed consistency while getting adjusted to a new coach, new running back and two young receivers. The 49ers made a commitment to a power rushing attack by signing G Kevin Gogan during the off-season. The additional size up front allowed the 49ers to finish fourth in the NFC in rushing yards. RB Garrison Hearst (1,019 yards) became the first 49er running back to rush for 1,000 yards since 1992. With Rice out, WR Terrell Owens and WR J.J. Stokes became the primary receiving targets. Owens led with 63 receptions for 936 yards and eight touchdowns, while Stokes posted 58 receptions for 733 yards and four touchdowns. Rice returned for one game against Denver (12-15) and helped the 49ers clinch home field advantage throughout the playoffs with a 34-17 win. Rice became the first non-kicker in league history to reach 1,000 points with a 14-yard touchdown catch in the second quarter of the Broncos contest.

The 49er defense led the league in total yards allowed (250.8), finished second in takeaways (41) and was tied for third in sacks (54). They helped carry the burden as the offense adjusted to new personnel. For the second consecutive season, the 49ers had three players reach double figures in sacks. DT Dana Stubblefield (15.0), DE Chris Doleman (12.0) and LB Kevin Greene (10.5) led the sack attack. Stubblefield finished second in the league in sacks and was named NFL DEFENSIVE PLAYER-OF-THE-YEAR by the Associated Press and earned the Len Eshmont Award as the team's most inspirational player. Of the seven 49ers named to the Pro Bowl, five were from the defense. Stubblefield was joined by Doleman, FS Merton Hanks, LB Lee Woodall and LB Ken Norton Jr. Gogan and Young were San Francisco's offensive selections.

1998 - Led by one of the most productive offenses in team and league history, San Francisco posted its 16th consecutive winning season and remained one of the NFL's elite teams. Behind the strong arm of QB Steve Young, the powerful legs of RB Garrison Hearst and the triple-threat receiving corps of WR Jerry Rice, WR Terrell Owens and WR J.J. Stokes, the 49ers rolled to a 12-4 regular season mark and an appearance in the NFC Divisional Playoff Game.

Young opened the season in sizzling fashion. The 14-year veteran established an NFL record by throwing for over 300 yards in six consecutive games, breaking the previous record of five held by former 49ers QB Joe Montana. Young finished the season completing 322-of-517 (62.3) passes for 4,170 yards and 36 touchdowns. His final passing rating of 101.1 marked the seventh consecutive season he has surpassed the 100-point barrier and earned him his seventh consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl.

The 49ers offensive line, led by Pro Bowl G Kevin Gogan, paved the way for Hearst's record setting season. Hearst, and his team-record and career-high 1,570 yards rushing, were a major reason the 49ers led the NFL in rushing. His 198-yard performance against the New York Giants on Monday Night Football also was a team-record and a personal-best. His four plays of 70 yards or more led the league and helped earn him his first career Pro Bowl Selection.

The 49ers receiving corps was in the capable hands of Rice, Owens and Stokes. Rice, returning from a serious knee injury in 1997, earned his 12th career Pro Bowl nomination and finished with a team-high 82 receptions for 1,157 yards and nine touchdowns. The athletic Owens asserted himself among the league's best receivers and brightest young stars by catching 67 passes for 1,097 yards and 14 touchdowns. Stokes caught a career-best 63 passes for 770 yards and eight touchdowns.

The 49ers defense was paced by the inspiring play of DT Bryant Young. Young was having an exceptional season with 54 tackles and 9.5 sacks before suffering a season-ending leg injury against the New York Giants on Monday Night Football. Young was still named Eshmont Award winner although missing the final four regular season games. LB Winfred Tubbs, in his first season with the 49ers, earned his first career Pro Bowl nomination after finishing with 112 tackles. CB Darnell Walker, FS Merton Hanks, S Zack Bronson and S Tim McDonald led the team with four interceptions each.

1999 - San Francisco had a streak of 16 consecutive winning seasons snapped, after finishing the 1999 season with a 4-12 record. A season-ending injury to QB Steve Young in Week 3 sent the 49ers into a tailspin from which they did not recover.

Replacing Young proved to be quite a task for quarterbacks Jeff Garcia and Steve Stenstrom. Garcia received the first try at the job and responded admirably, posting a 24-22 victory, with a QB rating of 106.0, over the Tennessee Titans in his first NFL start. Garcia would start the next four games, but was replaced by Stenstrom in Week 10 at New Orleans. With Stenstrom struggling in starts against the Saints, Rams and Packers, the 49ers coaching staff returned Garcia to the starting lineup for a December 5 game at Cincinnati. And what a return it was. Garcia threw for a CAREER-HIGH 437 yards against the Bengals, including throwing two touchdown passes to WR Jerry Rice. The game proved to be an impetus for Garcia, who over the final five games of the season completed 121-of-182 passes for 1,441 yards, eight touchdowns and three interceptions for a quarterback rating of 98.3. During that stint, Garcia completed 66.5 percent of his passes and was sacked just three times for 25 yards.

San Francisco also was faced with the task of replacing 1998 Pro Bowl RB Garrison Hearst and his team-record 1,570 yards rushing. A key off-season acquisition of RB Charlie Garner proved more than an adequate replacement. Garner rushed for a career-high 1,229 yards, caught a career-high 56 passes for 535 yards and finished third in the NFL with 1,764 total yards. The San Francisco running attack also was given a boost by second-year FB Fred Beasley's 276 yards rushing and 282 yards receiving, both marks were career-high's. Overall the 49ers led the NFL with 2,095 yards on the ground, becoming the first team to lead the league for consecutive seasons since Buffalo did it in 1991-92. The 49ers also led the league with a per rush average of 5.0.

The San Francisco receiving corps was once again paced by Rice. He finished the year with 67 receptions for 830 yards and five touchdowns. Certainly not the kind of numbers that Rice is accustomed to, but over the final five games of the season, Rice caught 24 passes for 420 yards (17.5) and three touchdowns. In that span he posted two 100-yard games, including a six-reception, 143-yard effort at Atlanta (1-3) in the season finale. WR Terrell Owens added 60 receptions for 754 yards and four touchdowns while J.J. Stokes totaled 34 grabs for 429 yards and two touchdowns, including a five-reception, 130-yard performance at Atlanta (1-3) in the season finale.

The 49ers defense struggled for much of the season, but was highlighted by several individual performances. DT Bryant Young was named the Associated Press COMEBACK PLAYER-OF-THE-YEAR and earned Pro Bowl selection. After overcoming a devastating leg fracture that ended his 1998 season and left his future clouded in doubt, Young answered all questions by earning a Pro Bowl nomination with his 11.0 sacks on the season. S Lance Schulters, in his first season as a starter, responded by finishing second in the NFC with six interceptions, including a game-winning 64-yard return against New Orleans (9-19) in the second week of the season. Schulters was named as the starting free safety for the NFC squad in the 2000 Pro Bowl.

2000 - San Francisco opened its sixth decade in the NFL under new leadership. The transfer of ownership from Edward J. DeBartolo, Jr. to his sister Denise DeBartolo York was approved by the NFL May 23, 2000. DeBartolo, Jr. ended his tenure after guiding the 49ers to five Super Bowl Championships and 16 postseason appearances.

A young San Francisco team, which at one point started five rookies on defense, showed marked improvement throughout the season, winning four of the last six games, to finish 6-10. The offense again was one of the best in the league, which led to three starters being named to their first Pro Bowl - QB Jeff Garcia, RB Charlie Garner and WR Terrell Owens.

Garcia, who was in his first season as the full-time starter, set the pace for the offense all season long. He set CAREER-HIGHS in every category, completing 355-of-561 yards for a TEAM RECORD 4,278 yards, with 31 touchdowns and only 10 interceptions. He finished the year ranked fifth in the NFL with a 97.6 quarterback rating. Garcia started all 16 games and had six 300-yard passing games, including a 402-yard effort against Chicago in December, which was his third straight 300-yard passing performance and his sixth of the season. His productivity not only led to his first Pro Bowl appearance, but Football Digest also named him the NFL's Most Improved Player.

WR Terrell Owens was one of the many benefactors of Garcia's success. Owens posted his second career 1,000-yard season, catching a CAREER-HIGH 97 passes for 1,451 yards, which ranked him fourth in the NFL. Owens, who only played in 14 games during the season, also had five 100-yard games and scored a team-high 13 touchdowns. Owens had his best performance of his career against Chicago in December, breaking a 50-year old NFL RECORD with 20 receptions for 283 yards and one touchdown. Owens broke Tom Fears' NFL record of 18 receptions in a game, which he set back in 1950 with the Rams.

The 49ers backfield was again in the capable hands of Garner and FB Fred Beasley. Garner earned his first Pro Bowl appearance and became the fourth 49ers running back to rush for 1,000 yards in back-to-back seasons. Garner, behind the stellar play of the 49ers offensive line, ran for 1,142 yards on 258 carries and seven touchdowns. Also a receiving threat, Garner set CAREER-HIGHS with 68 receptions for 647 yards and three touchdowns. In addition, he established a TEAM RECORD with 201 yards rushing vs. Dallas. Beasley also had a solid year, rushing for 147 yards on 50 carries and three touchdowns, while catching 31 passes for 233 yards and three touchdowns.

The 49ers defense was young, but saw marked improvement over the last half of the season. The defense was again paced by the efforts of DT Bryant Young, who posted 51 tackles and led the team in sacks with 9.5. LB Ken Norton Jr. was one of only three players to start all 16 games, extending his consecutive games streak to 160. The 49ers defense started five rookies in the final game at Denver and had seven different rookies start throughout the 2000 campaign. Rookies CB Ahmed Plummer, DE John Engelberger and CB Jason Webster all started at least 10 games. Six rookies—Plummer, Webster, Engelberger, LB Julian Peterson, DT Cedric Killings and S Ronnie Heard—participated in more than 20-percent of the total 1,096 plays.

YOUNG CONTRIBUTIONS

(2000 Season)

- * With an average age of 24.3, the 49ers tied (Detroit) for the youngest starting secondary in the NFL.
- * San Francisco had the most rookie starters on defense (5) than any other NFL team. Arizona, Buffalo, Chicago, Kansas City and Minnesota were next with two each.
- * Rookies accounted for 26.8% of the 49ers tackles this season. Add the second-year players and that number jumped to 31.3%.
- * Rookies accounted for 13 of the team's 37 sacks on the season (35.1%). Add second year players and the number jumped to 41.8%.
- * Rookies accounted for 30.7% of the team's interceptions.

Leo Nomellini

1969-DT Leo Nomellini (1950-63). Was the first-ever draft choice after the 49ers joined the NFL. Played every 49ers game for 14 seasons. Altogether he played in 174 consecutive regular season games, and counting ten trips to the Pro Bowl, Nomellini played in 266 contests. "The Lion" became one of the few to be named to an All-NFL team on both offense and defense. Retired at age 39. Played college ball at the University of Minnesota. Born June 19, 1924 in Lucca, Italy.

Joe Perry

1969-FB Joe Perry (1948-60, 63). First player in NFL history to gain 1,000 yards two consecutive seasons. His 9,723 rushing yards placed him second only to Jim Brown when he retired. Finished career with 12,505 combined yards. Nicknamed "The Jet" because of his quick starts. Also played for the Baltimore Colts (1961-62). Attended Compton Junior College. Born January 22, 1927 in Stevens, AR.

1970-HB Hugh McElhenny (1952-60). One of only three players to gain over 11,000 yards carrying the ball. Scored 60 career touchdowns, 38 rushing, including a 42-yard touchdown run on his first pro play in preseason. In 1952, McElhenny had the longest punt return (94) and longest play from scrimmage (89). Scored two touchdowns in first Pro Bowl after his rookie year. Also played for Minnesota Vikings (1961-62), New York Giants (1963), and Detroit Lions (1964). Played college football at University of Washington. Born December 31, 1928 in Los Angeles, CA.

Hugh McElhenny

1971-QB Y.A. Tittle (1951-60). Had 17 years of NFL experience, finishing his career with 33,070 passing yards and 281 touchdowns (39 rushing). Won NFL Most Valuable Player Award in 1961 and '63. Threw 33 touchdown passes and a career-high 3,224 yards in 1962. In '63 he threw 36 touchdowns, completing 60.2 percent of his passes. Also played for the Baltimore Colts (1948-50) and the New York Giants (1961-64). Played college ball at Louisiana State University. Born October 24, 1926 in Marshall, TX.

Y. A. Tittle

1987-FB John Henry Johnson (1954-56). Was a member of what's been noted as the finest backfield in NFL history. The foursome known as "The Million Dollar Backfield" and "The Fabulous Foursome" included three other Hall of Famers—QB Y.A. Tittle and RBs Joe Perry and Hugh McElhenny. Gained 6,803 yards rushing, including 48 touchdowns. Also played for the Detroit Lions (1957-59), Pittsburgh Steelers (1960-65), and Houston Oilers (1966). Attended St. Mary's College and Arizona State University. Born November 24, 1929 in Waterproof, LA.

Bob St. Clair

1990-T Bob St. Clair (1953-63). Exceptional offensive lineman. Also played goal-line defense and blocked 10 field goals in 1956. Once lost five teeth when blocking a punt. Earned All-NFL honors three times and made five Pro Bowl appearances. Attended University of San Francisco and Tulsa. Born February 18, 1931 in San Francisco, CA.

Bill Walsh

Jimmy Johnson

1994-CB Jimmy Johnson (1961-76). Starter on both offense and defense at UCLA. Began 49ers career as a defensive back, moved to offense, then stayed at DB in his third season. Intercepted 47 passes for 615 yards, including five INTs his rookie year. As a receiver in 1962, he caught 34 passes for 627 yards and four touchdowns. Recognized as one of the best man-to-man defenders in NFL history. Played in five Pro Bowls and twice won the prestigious Len Eshmont Award selected by his teammates for inspirational play. Born March 31, 1938 in Dallas, TX.

Joe Montana

Ronnie Lott

Dave Wilcox

2000-QB Joe Montana (1979-94). Solidified his place in professional sports annals with numerous NFL records and a legendary reputation as a leader. Finished his career with 40,551 yards passing and 273 touchdowns. Ranks second all time with a 92.3 career passer rating and 62.3 completion percentage. Led the league in passing in 1987 and 1989. Won back-to-back NFL MVP awards in 1989 and 1990. Named the Sports Illustrated Sportsman-of-the-Year in 1990. Named Super Bowl MVP an unprecedented three times. Directed his team to the playoffs 12 times and boasts a 95.3 passer rating in 23 postseason games. Holds NFL postseason records in completions (460), attempts (734), yards gained (5,772), touchdowns (45) and 300-yard passing games (6). Born June 11, 1956 in New Eagle, PA.

2000-DB Ronnie Lott (1981-94). Known as one of the most ferocious and feared players in NFL history. Played in 10 Pro Bowls and won four Super Bowl Championships. Earned All-Pro honors at three different positions; cornerback, free safety and strong safety. Registered 1,161 career tackles, including five seasons with at least 100 tackles. Ranks fifth in NFL history with 63 interceptions. Led the league in interceptions in 1986 and 1991 and returned five interceptions for touchdowns. Holds the NFL record for postseason interceptions with nine. Named to the 75th Anniversary All-time team, 1980's All-Decade team and Super Bowl Silver Anniversary team as a cornerback. Born May 8, 1959 in Albuquerque, NM.

2000-LB Dave Wilcox (1964-74). Nicknamed "The Intimidator" by coaches and teammates for his tough, hard-nosed playing style. Considered to be one of the finest outside linebackers to ever play the game. Earned seven Pro Bowl nominations and was a seven-time All-Pro selection. Was selected by his teammates as the Len Eshmont Award winner as the team's most inspirational and courageous player in 1967. Had his best season as a professional in 1973, recording 104 tackles, 13 for loss, two interceptions, four forced fumbles and one fumble recovery. Recovered 12 career fumbles for 48 yards and one touchdown. Born September 29, 1942 in Eugene, OR.

SAN FRANCISCO'S WINNING TRADITION

For two decades (1980-99), the San Francisco 49ers established itself as the NFL's most dominant franchise. The 49ers won more Super Bowls, posted more winning seasons, claimed more divisional titles and made more playoff appearances than any team in the league over that 20-year stretch.

Since the DeBartolo Corporation purchased the team in 1977, the 49ers made one of the most dramatic turnarounds in sports history, rebounding from back-to-back 2-14 seasons in 1978-79 to Super Bowl Champions in 1981. The 49ers unparalleled success continued into the '90s, winning their fifth Super Bowl in 1994, becoming the first team in NFL history to win five Super Bowl titles.

OVERTIME GAMES

Oct. 31, 1976 - St. Louis 23, San Francisco 20

In the fourth quarter, St. Louis held a 14-13 lead after San Francisco missed an extra point on their previous scoring drive. San Francisco then took the lead 20-14 in the fourth when Delvin Williams scored his third touchdown of the day. With eight minutes left in the game, Cardinals quarterback Jim Hart connected with Mel Gray on a 77-yard touchdown pass for the 20-20 tie. The extra point was blocked and the two teams went into overtime. St. Louis won the overtime coin toss but was forced to punt. Tony Leonard fumbled the kick at the 43-yard line, which was recovered by the Cardinals. St. Louis then marched down-field to set up Jim Bakken for the 21-yard field goal to lift the Cardinals to a 23-20 victory.

Dec. 5, 1976 - San Diego 13, San Francisco 7

In a battle of Northern and Southern California, the San Francisco 49ers and San Diego Chargers played to a scoreless tie in the first half. The defensive struggle continued in the second half and remained 0-0 at the end of the third quarter. On San Diego's first possession of the fourth quarter, Dan Fouts guided them on a 16-play, 80-yard scoring drive, capped by a Bo Matthews two-yard touchdown run. San Francisco answered on its next possession with a 64-yard scoring drive. Paul Hofer caught an eight-yard touchdown pass from Scott Bull to make the score 7-6. The extra point was blocked, but the Chargers Tom Graham was flagged for offsides. After the penalty was marked off, Steve Mike-Mayer connected to tie the game at seven with just over a minute left in regulation. San Diego won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive. The Chargers began their first possession on their own seven-yard line, and Fouts promptly guided them on a nine-play, 93-yard drive, which was capped by a Mercury Morris 13-yard touchdown run for the 13-7 win.

Nov. 13, 1977 - San Francisco 10, New Orleans 7

The 49ers got their first-ever overtime victory at New Orleans. The Saints got on the board early in the first quarter on an eight-yard run by Tony Galbreath. The Saints appeared to grab a commanding lead at the end of the first half when Richard Mauti returned a Tom Wittum punt 65 yards for a touchdown 10 seconds before halftime, but a New Orleans clipping penalty nullified the touchdown. The 49ers tied the score in the third quarter with a five-yard romp by Delvin Williams. Neither team could score at the end of the third quarter or in the fourth, and the game went in to overtime knotted at seven. The Saints won the overtime coin toss but were unable to move the ball and were forced to give the ball back to the 49ers. San Francisco started from their own 41-yard line and moved the ball down to the Saints' 16-yard line where Ray Wersching connected on a 33-yard game-winning field goal.

Sept. 14, 1980 - San Francisco 24, St. Louis 21

San Francisco struck on a 19-yard touchdown pass from Steve DeBerg to Paul Hofer in the second quarter. Cardinals quarterback Jim Hart quickly answered back with a 13-yard touchdown strike to Theotis Brown. The Cardinals pushed the lead to 14-7 with a Doug Marsh five-yard touchdown reception. After the 49ers tied the game at 14, St. Louis drove 75 yards in eight plays to take a 21-14 lead. With 1:51 left in regulation, the 49ers drove 80 yards and scored on a 26-yard touchdown run by Hofer, his second of the day. San Francisco won the overtime coin toss and took the ball 52 yards to the 16-yard line, where Ray Wersching kicked a 33-yard field goal for the 24-21 win.

Dec. 7, 1980 - San Francisco 38, New Orleans 35

New Orleans jumped out to a 35-7 halftime lead behind touchdown passes of 33, 21 and 41 yards from Archie Manning. Less than five minutes into the third quarter, the 49ers went on an 88-yard, nine-play drive that culminated with a one-yard touchdown run by Joe Montana. Minutes later, Montana hooked up with Dwight Clark for a 71-yard touchdown pass to bring the 49ers within 14 points. After the San Francisco defense shut out New Orleans for the second straight quarter, they tied the game with 1:50 left in the fourth quarter with Lenvil Elliott's seven-yard touchdown jaunt, forcing overtime. New Orleans won the coin toss and failed to pick up a first down on their first possession. San Francisco took the ball on their own 27 and marched 55 yards in 13 plays for the 36-yard winning field goal by Ray Wersching.

Oct. 12, 1986 - Minnesota 27, San Francisco 24

With Joe Montana out, Jeff Kemp stepped in to lead San Francisco against a powerful Minnesota Vikings team. Minnesota struck first with a six-yard touchdown pass from Tommy Kramer to Anthony Carter. The 49ers answered back when Kemp hit Dwight Clark with a 45-yard strike to tie the game. With 1:14 left in the first quarter the Vikings' Issiack Holt recovered a blocked punt in the end zone for a 14-7 lead. San Francisco took a 17-14 lead into halftime after a 39-yard Ray Wersching field goal, and a 34-yard touchdown pass from Kemp to Jerry Rice. After the Vikings stalled on their first drive of the third quarter, Kemp led the 49ers on a six-play, 53-yard drive that ended with a 17-yard touchdown reception by Rice. Minnesota answered back with a 26-yard field goal by Chuck Nelson in the third quarter to cut the 49ers lead to 24-17. With 6:37 remaining in the fourth quarter, Kramer hit Anthony Carter with a 35-yard touchdown pass to tie the game. In overtime, Minnesota won the toss and elected to receive. They promptly went on a 58-yard drive, and Nelson hit a 28-yard field goal for the 27-24 win.

Oct. 19, 1986 - Atlanta 10, San Francisco 10

San Francisco visited Atlanta for a battle with the division rival Falcons and took a 7-0 lead on a Roger Craig one-yard romp. The Falcons responded with a punishing 17-play, 44-yard drive that resulted in a 47-yard field goal by Mick Luckhurst. San Francisco took the lead again in the second quarter with a 53-yard, 13-play drive, which led to a 24-yard Ray Wersching field goal and a 10-3 lead. The defenses dominated the second half, holding the offenses scoreless for all of the third quarter and most of the fourth. With just over a minute remaining in regulation, the Falcons took advantage of great field position and scored on a 39-yard touchdown pass from Dave Archer to Sylvester Stamps to tie the game at 10. The Falcons won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive. After generating only one first down, the Falcons were forced to give up possession. The 49ers mirrored the Falcons on their first possession of overtime and punted with 6:42 remaining. Both teams had possession two more times in overtime and could not produce a score, and the game ended in a 10-10 tie.

October 9, 1988 - Denver 16, San Francisco 13

Two of the best teams in the NFL faced off in an inter-conference battle as the Denver Broncos visited Candlestick Park. The 49ers started the scoring with a 37-yard Mike Cofer field goal with 4:52 remaining in the first quarter. The Broncos answered early in the second quarter with a 27-yard field goal by Rich Karlis to knot the game at three. With San Francisco's second possession of the second quarter, Joe Montana opened up the offense and led the 49ers 95 yards and capped it off with a six-yard quarterback sneak for a 10-3 lead at halftime. The only scoring in the third quarter came on Karlis' 27-yard field goal with five minutes left in the quarter, cutting the 49ers lead to 10-6. Cofer quickly answered with a 27-yard field goal with one minute on the clock in the third quarter for the 13-6 lead. After an injury, John Elway returned to hit Vance Johnson with an eight-yard touchdown pass to tie the game at 13 with 6:23 remaining. Neither team could score in the final minutes of regulation and headed into overtime. On San Francisco's first possession of overtime, Andre Townsend sacked Montana, injuring his ribs. Steve Young took over, and on his first play, he threw an interception to Mark Haynes ending the threat. After a five-and-out drive by the Broncos, the 49ers take over on their own five-yard line. A second Young interception, deep in Broncos territory, helped set the stage for Karlis to connect on a 22-yard game-winning field goal.

Dec. 9, 1990 - San Francisco 20, Cincinnati 17

A capacity crowd filled Riverfront Stadium, as the San Francisco 49ers invaded Cincinnati for a late-season battle. On the Bengals first possession, Boomer Esiason drove his team 70 yards for the game's opening score, a two-yard touchdown pass. San Francisco answered back on their next possession when Tom Rathman capped off a 73-yard drive with a one-yard plunge into the end zone for the 7-7 tie. Cincinnati came out strong in the third. The Bengals scored on a Jim Breech field goal to open the third and break the tie. San Francisco enjoyed its first lead of the game after Harry Sydney scored on a three-yard run. With just over two minutes elapsed in the fourth quarter, Ickey Woods dove in from one-yard out to regain the lead for Cincinnati 17-14. The 49ers next drive stalled, and they did not receive the ball back until there was 4:11 remaining in regulation. On the first play, Joe Montana hit Jerry Rice for a 29-yard strike and guided the team down to the Cincinnati six-yard line. Mike Cofer hit a 23-yard field goal with just over a minute remaining to send the game into overtime. San Francisco won their first coin toss in five overtime games and wasted no time driving 75 yards in 11 plays to set up Cofer for the 23-yard game-winning field goal and the 20-17 victory.

Jan. 3, 1994 - Philadelphia 37, San Francisco 34

Turnovers and an ill-timed penalty marred the 49ers first overtime game in four years. The Philadelphia Eagles struck early and often, first on a 34-yard Roger Ruzek field goal five minutes into the game. On San Francisco's first possession, Steve Young was hit and fumbled the ball, which was recovered by Byron Evans who returned it 30 yards for a touchdown and a 10-0 lead. On their second possession, Young led the 49ers on a seven-play, 46-yard drive capped by a Mike Cofer 30-yard field goal to cut the deficit to seven. With Bubby Brister at the helm, the Eagles drove 76 yards in the opening minutes of the second quarter and connected with Calvin Williams for a 13-yard touchdown to push the lead to 17-3. The Eagles quickly got the ball back on a punt after a three-and-out series by the 49ers. Brister guided Philadelphia to an eight-play, 64-yard touchdown scoring drive to take a commanding 21-point lead. The 49ers end zone drought ended with just less than two minutes remaining in the half when Young hit Jerry Rice for a three-yard touchdown that brought the score to 24-10 at the half. San Francisco started the second half strong, beginning with a 60-yard kickoff return by Dexter Carter to give the 49ers the ball on Philadelphia's 38 yard line. Capping off a punishing 38-yard, nine-play drive, Ricky Watters ran 11 yards for the score. After a Philadelphia punt, John Taylor caught a 38-yard touchdown pass to tie the game at 24. Philadelphia took advantage of a Young injury by intercepting a Steve Bono pass. The Eagles worked quickly, moving 69 yards in just two plays to take a 31-24 lead. San Francisco gave Philadelphia good field position again with a fumble on their own 40, allowing the Eagles to increase their lead to 10 with a Ruzek 32-yard field goal with 1:16 remaining in the third quarter. Set up by a Don Griffin interception, Bono drove the 49ers 42 yards in just over four minutes and scored on a one-yard keeper that closed the gap to 34-31. After a Philadelphia punt, the Niners drove down and tied the game on a Cofer 29-yard field goal with 15 seconds left in regulation. San Francisco won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive; they failed to score on two overtime possessions. On Philadelphia's second possession of overtime, they drove down to San Francisco's 20-yard line, and with four seconds showing on the clock, set up for a 38-yard field goal. Ruzek missed the field goal wide right, but Merton Hanks was flagged for roughing the kicker. After a 10-yard penalty, Ruzek hit a 28-yarder with no time left on the clock for the 37-34 win.

Oct. 14, 1996 - Green Bay 23, San Francisco 20

With Steve Young out with a groin injury, Elvis Grbac led San Francisco against Brett Favre and the Green Bay Packers. After an unsuccessful first possession, the Packers scored on a 30-yard field goal by Chris Jacke with just over five minutes remaining in the first quarter for the 3-0 lead. They took a 6-0 lead on a Jacke 25-yard field goal. On San Francisco's second possession of the second quarter, Grbac led a six-play, 36-yard drive that resulted in a Jeff Wilkins 48-yard field goal. After a three-and-out series by the Packers, Jerry Rice caught a seven-yard touchdown from Grbac for a 10-6 lead. Aided by a Dana Stubblefield interception, Rice and Grbac put the 49ers up 17-6 at the half with a 13-yard touchdown pass. Green Bay trimmed the lead to 17-14 when Favre hit Don Beebe for a 59-yard touchdown and followed it with a two-point conversion toss to Edger Bennett. Chris Jacke hit a 35-yard field goal to tie the game at 17 with 3:24 left in regulation. San Francisco won the overtime coin toss but was forced to punt after going three-and-out. Green Bay received the ball on their own 44 and drove 21 yards to set up Jacke for a 53-yard field goal for the 23-20 victory.

Nov. 10, 1996 - Dallas 20, San Francisco 17

The two most dominating teams in the NFL met in a mid-season battle for NFC supremacy as the Dallas Cowboys traveled to 3Com Park. The 49ers jumped out to a quick lead after a Jeff Wilkins 28-yard field goal. They extended their lead to 10-0 on a 29-yard touchdown strike from Steve Young to Iheanyi Uwaezuoke. Quiet for most of the first half, the Cowboys finally got on the board with a 72-yard scoring drive that ended on a Troy Aikman three-yard touchdown run, which cut the deficit to 10-7 at halftime. Defenses dominated in the third quarter with neither team allowing a score. Dallas ended the scoring drought with a Chris Boniol 26-yard field goal four seconds into the fourth quarter to tie the game at 10. With Young out in the second half after sustaining a concussion, Elvis Grbac led San Francisco on a nine-play, 68-yard scoring drive on their next possession. Terry Kirby capped it off with a 27-yard touchdown run. After Fred Strickland intercepted a Grbac pass at the 49ers 15-yard line, Troy Aikman hit Eric Bjornson for a six-yard touchdown pass, knotting the game at 17 and forcing overtime. The Cowboys won the overtime coin toss and wasted no time marching down the field. In 12 plays, Chris Boniol hit the game-winning 29-yard field goal for the 20-17 victory.

Nov. 24 1996 - San Francisco 19, Washington 16

In the 49ers second overtime game in November, and third of the season, the Washington Redskins hosted San Francisco for the first time in two years. In what would prove to be a game dominated by special teams, San Francisco struck first with a 20-yard field goal from Jeff Wilkins. Scott Blanton hit field goals from 19- and 48-yards out and Wilkins added another to knot the score at six going into halftime. The only score in the third quarter came on a Blanton field goal from 41-yards out to give Washington a 9-6 lead. San Francisco got on the board first in the fourth quarter with a Wilkins 44-yard field goal three minutes into the period. On the ensuing possession, Gus Ferotte drove the Redskins 78-yards, which culminated with a Jamie Asher 20-yard touchdown reception. The 49ers tied the game with 1:57 remaining in regulation on a one-yard run by William Floyd, forcing overtime. San Francisco won the coin toss and promptly went on a 48-yard scoring drive that was capped by a 38-yard field goal by Wilkins for the 19-16 win.

Sept. 6 1998 - San Francisco 36, New York Jets 30

In the opening weekend of the 1998 season, fans were treated to one of the most exciting games and one of the most exciting plays in NFL history. After a fast-paced first half, the 49ers found themselves trailing 17-14 at halftime after Glen Foley hit Wayne Chrebet from six-yards out for the score with thirty-two seconds left in the second quarter. On their first possession in the second half, San Francisco evened the score at 17 with a 22-yard field goal by Wade Richey. On the following possession, Foley found Keyshawn Johnson for a 21-yard touchdown and a 24-17 lead. With just over three minutes left in the third quarter, Jerry Rice caught a 14-yard touchdown from Steve Young to bring the 49ers within one. The extra point was blocked, and the score remained 24-23 heading into the fourth quarter. New York extended their lead to 27-23 after a John Hall 32-yard field goal. San Francisco took possession with 3:38 left in regulation and went on a 76-yard, five-play drive that was capped by a 38-yard touchdown pass from Young to J.J. Stokes, giving the 49ers the lead 30-27 with just over one minute remaining in regulation. New York then drove the ball down to the 49ers 13-yard line, where John Hall tied the game at 30 with just three seconds on the clock. Both New York and San Francisco went three-and-out on their first possessions of overtime. The Jets moved to midfield on their second possession before being forced to punt, pinning the 49ers on their own four-yard line. With 11:09 remaining in overtime, on San Francisco's first play of their second possession, Young gave the ball to Garrison Hearst, who ran right and broke six tackles on his way to a 96-yard, game-winning touchdown run and the 36-30 victory.

Dec. 6, 1998 - San Francisco 31, Carolina 28

San Francisco extended its winning streak to four games with an exciting high-scoring match-up with the Carolina Panthers. After an explosive first half, the 49ers took a 21-7 lead going into halftime. San Francisco started the second half with a five-play drive, covering 90 yards, including a Garrison Hearst 71-yard touchdown run. The drive gave the 49ers a commanding 28-7 lead. With just 52 seconds left in the third quarter, Steve Beuerlein connected with Anthony Johnson on a 38-yard touchdown pass to cut the deficit to 28-14. On their first possession of the fourth quarter, the Panthers drove 76 yards in five plays, and scored on a Beuerlein-to-Raghib Ismail 40-yard touchdown pass. Minutes later, Carolina tied the game at 28 with a 10-yard run by Tshimanga Biakabutuka. Carolina won the overtime coin toss and elected to receive. The Panthers ran two unsuccessful plays, and Beuerlein fumbled on the third play, giving San Francisco possession on Carolina's 30-yard line. The 49ers picked up 25 yards on the possession and drove down to the Panthers five, where Wade Richey hit a 23-yard field goal for the 31-28 victory.

Dec. 26, 1999 - Washington 26, San Francisco 20

The Washington Redskins visited 3Com Park and battled the San Francisco 49ers to their second overtime game in the last three meetings. San Francisco struck first with an 80-yard drive in 13 plays, capped off with a Charlie Garner four-yard touchdown run and a 7-0 lead. Early in the second quarter, Washington answered back with an 80-yard drive of their own, ending with a Brad Johnson-to-Michael Westbrook 65-yard touchdown strike. With a pair of Wade Richey field goals, San Francisco went into halftime with a 13-7 lead. Washington cut the deficit to three after Brett Conway nailed a 47-yard field goal in the third quarter. The 49ers extended their lead to 20-10 with a 78-yard scoring drive that ended on a five-yard touchdown pass from Jeff Garcia to J.J. Stokes. At the beginning of the fourth quarter, Conway connected on a 34-yard field goal to bring the Redskins to within seven. Washington then struck again with 3:30 left in the game when Brad Johnson plunged in from one-yard out to tie the game at 20. San Francisco threatened with just over one minute remaining, driving down to the Redskins 22-yard line, before a fumble, which Washington recovered, to force overtime. Washington won the overtime coin toss and promptly moved the ball to the San Francisco 33-yard line in three plays. On first down, Brad Johnson hit Larry Centers for a 33-yard touchdown pass and the 26-20 win.

Oct. 8, 2000- Oakland 34, San Francisco 28

In a game for the ages, the 49ers fell in overtime to the visitors from across the Bay, the Oakland Raiders. The Raiders jumped out to the early 6-0 lead on two Sebastian Janikowski field goals. The 49ers answered back, scoring 14 unanswered points to close out the first half. The Raiders dominated the third quarter, holding onto the ball for more than 11 minutes and scoring two touchdowns. After another score by the Raiders to start the fourth, the 49ers started their comeback. After a Jeff Garcia-to-Terrell Owens scoring toss and another score on a nine-yard touchdown run by Charlie Garner, San Francisco tied the game at 28. On their next possession, the Raiders drove down to San Francisco's 23-yard line, and on fourth-and-10 Janikowski missed a 41-yard field goal wide left. The 49ers, with a chance to win the game, took over possession and moved the ball down to the Oakland 29-yard line. On fourth-and-one, the Raiders defense stiffened and stopped a leaping Charlie Garner for no gain. The Raiders took over on downs, but couldn't get their offense going and were forced to punt back to the 49ers, who ran out the clock and forced the game into overtime. The Raiders won the toss, and marched down to the 49ers 25-yard line. Janikowski came on to attempt the game-winning field goal, but missed wide right, his second missed field goal of the day. The 49ers took over and put a drive of their own together, all the way down to the Raiders 11-yard line. On the first down, Wade Richey attempted the game-winning field goal, but it was blocked and possession went back to the Raiders. Following two pass completions and a pass interference call on the 49ers, the Raiders finally put the game away with a 31-yard scoring toss from Rich Gannon to Tim Brown for the win.

MEDICAL GLOSSARY

A-C Joint - Acromioclavicular joint; joint of the shoulder where acromion process (of the scapula) and the distal end of the clavicle meet; most shoulder separations occur at this point.

Abduct - Movement of any extremity away from the body.

Abrasion - Any injury which rubs off the surface of the skin.

Abscess - An infection which produces pus; can be the result of a blister, callus, penetrating wound or laceration.

Achilles Tendon - The tendon at the back of the heel.

Abductor - Any muscle which moves a part toward the median axis of the body.

Adhesion - Abnormal adherence of collagen fibers to surrounding structures during immobilization following trauma or as a complication of surgery which restricts normal elasticity of the structures involved.

Aerobic - Exercise in which energy needed is supplied by oxygen inspired; required for sustained periods of hard work and vigorous exercise.

Anabolic Steroids - Testosterone, or a steroid hormone resembling testosterone, that stimulates growth in the body as a whole.

Anaerobic - Exercise without the use of oxygen as an energy source; short bursts of vigorous exercise.

Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL) - Ligament of knee attaching to anterior tibial plateau and posterior medial aspect of femoral condyle. It provides stability in keeping the lower leg from coming forward.

Anterior Compartment Syndrome - Condition in which swelling within the anterior compartment of the lower leg (comprising of muscles, nerves and arteries to the foot) jeopardizes the viability of the muscles and nerves within the compartment.

Arteriogram - Film demonstrating arteries after injection of opaque medium (dye).

Arthrogram - X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected in affected area (to show torn cartilage or rotator cuff tears).

Arthroscopy - Examination of the internal structures of a joint by means of surgical viewing apparatus (arthroscope) inserted into the joint.

Aspiration - The withdrawal of fluids from a body cavity by means of a suction or siphonage apparatus (syringe).

Asymptomatic - Without symptoms.

Atrophy - To shrivel or shrink from disuse, as in muscular atrophy.

Avulsion - A tearing away forcibly of a part of structure.

Axilla - The armpit.

Baker's Cyst - Indicates that there is trauma inside the knee joint that leads to excessive joint-fluid production; inflammation of the gastrocnemius bursa. Usually produces localized swelling behind the knee.

Bennett's Fracture - Fracture dislocation of the base of the first metacarpal (or the thumb).

Biceps - Muscle on the front of the upper arm responsible for bending the elbow.

Bruise - A discoloration of the skin due to an extravasation of the blood into the underlying tissues.

Burner - Common term for brachial plexus trauma in the neck. Usually results in burning or tingling sensation into the shoulder or arm when the neck is forced beyond the normal range of motion.

Calcaneus - The heel bone.

Calf - Also know as gastrocnemius; muscle responsible for plantarflexing, or pointing the toes down the foot.

Capsule - An enclosing structure which surrounds the joint and contains ligaments which stabilize that joint.

Cellulitis - Inflammation of cellular or connective tissue.

Charley Horse - A bruise to the quadriceps resulting from a direct blow to the front of the thigh, characterized by intramuscular bleeding. No other injury should be called a charley horse.

Chondral Fracture - Fracture to the chondral (cartilaginous) surfaces of bone.

Chondromalacia - A roughening of the cartilage surface. Best known for the roughening of the underside of the kneecap.

Clavicle - The collar bone.

Collagen - A substance existing in commonly injured tissues of the body, including skin, cartilage, ligaments and bone.

Concussion - Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. Can be graded mild, moderate or severe depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.

Contusion - An injury to the muscles and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.

Cyst - Abnormal sac containing liquid or semisolid matter.

Degenerative Joint Disease - Changes in the joint surfaces as a result of repetitive trauma.

Dehydration - Loss of body water.

Deltoids - Muscles at top of arm, just below shoulder.

Disc - A flat, round-like, plate structure usually referring to cartilage between vertebrae.

Dislocation - Complete displacement of joint surfaces.

Echymosis - Bleeding into the surface tissue below the skin, resulting in a "black and blue" effect.

Ectomy - Suffix connoting the affected part (e.g. meniscectomy, appendectomy).

Edema - Accumulation of fluid in organs and tissues of the body (swelling).

Effusion - Accumulation of fluid, or the fluid itself, in various spaces in the body. Commonly found in the knee following injury.

Electrolyte Drink - Fluid for replacing electrolytes, such as Gatorade Thirst Quencher.

EMG - Electromyogram test to check nerve function.

Epicondylitis - Inflammation in the elbow due to overuse of either the flexor or extensor muscles attaching to the medial or lateral epicondyle of the humerus.

Eversion - Turning outward.

Extension - Motion of straightening a joint.

Extensor - A muscle which upon contraction results in straightening a joint.

External Rotation - Lateral movement of a joint or extremity to the outside.

Fascia - A connective tissue sheath consisting of fibrous tissue and fat which unites the skin to the underlying tissues.

Femur - Thigh bone.

Fibula - The smaller of the two bones in the lower leg, located to the outside.

Flexibility - The ability of muscle to relax and yield to stretch force.

Flexibility Exercise - A general term used to describe exercise performed by a person to passively or actively elongate soft tissues without the assistance of a therapist.

Flexion - Bending a joint, as in flexing the arm or leg.

Flexor - A muscle which upon contraction flexes or bends.

Fracture - Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress or transverse.

Gamekeeper's Thumb - Tear of the ulnar collateral ligament of the metacarpo-phalangeal joint of the thumb.

Glenoid - A cavity of the scapula into which the head of the humerus fits to the form of the shoulder joint (the shoulder socket).

Groin - Junction of the thigh and abdomen.

Hamstring - Muscle running from the buttocks to behind the knee. Often injured as a result of improper conditioning or lack of muscle flexibility. Muscle responsible for flexing the knee joint.

Heat Stroke - Condition of rapidly rising internal body temperature that overwhelms the body's mechanisms for release of heat.

Heat Exhaustion - Mild form of shock caused by loss of fluid and electrolyte from the circulation because of excessive sweating when exposed to heat.

Hematoma - A tumor-like mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity.

Hip Pointer - Contusion to the iliac crest.

Humerus - Bone of the upper arm.

Hyperextension - Extreme extension, or straightening, of a limb or body part.

Iliotibial Band - A thick, wide fascial layer from the iliac crest to the knee joint.

Impingement Syndrome - Pinching together of the supraspinatus muscle and other soft tissue in the shoulder, which is common in throwing.

Isokinetic Exercise - A form of active resistive exercise in which the speed of movement of the limb is controlled by a pre-set rate-limiting device, such as Cybex, Biodex, etc.

Isometric (static) Contraction - A muscle contraction in which tension is developed but no mechanical work is done. There is not appreciable joint movement and the overall length of the muscle remains the same.

Isokinetic - A constant speed and consistent resistance exercise.

Isotonic (dynamic) Contraction - A concentric or eccentric muscular contraction that results in movement of a joint or body part (lifting a free weight).

Itis - Suffix connoting inflammation (e.g. tendinitis, bursitis).

Joint Mobilization - Passive traction and/or gliding movements applied to joint surfaces that maintain or restore the joint play normally allowed by the capsule, so that the normal roll-slide joint mechanic can occur as a person moves.

Lateral Collateral Ligament (LCL) - Ligament of knee attaching lateral femoral condyle to the fibula head. It provides lateral stability to the knee.

Ligament - Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) - Provides highly detailed pictures of the body's interior, using highly magnetic fields. MRI does not require radiation.

Malleolus - Rounded projections on either side of the ankle joint.

Medial - Pertaining to or near the middle.

Medial Collateral Ligament (MCL) - Ligament of knee attaching to medial femoral condyle to medial tibia. It provides medial stability to the knee.

Meniscectomy - An intra-articular procedure at the knee by which meniscus (fibrocartilage) is removed surgically.

Metatarsals - Five long bones of foot, just below toes.

Myositis - Inflammation of a muscle.

Myositis Ossificans - Inflammation in muscle resulting in the formation of bone-like substance.

Necrotic - Relating to death of a portion of tissue.

Neuritis - Inflammation of a nerve.

Orthotic - Any device applied to or around the body in the care of physical impairment or disability, commonly used to control foot mechanics.

Osteochondritis Dissecans - A piece of bone and/or cartilage loosened from its attachment after trauma as a cause of a lesion.

Osteomyelitis - An inflammatory disease of bone caused usually by infection with streptococcus or staphylococcus.

Parasthesia - Sensation of numbness or tingling, indicating nerve irritation.

Patella - The kneecap.

Patella Tendinitis - Inflammation of the patella tendon.

Pathology - Study of the nature and cause of disease.

Pectorals - Chest muscles beneath the breast, leading up to shoulder.

Peroneal - Muscles of the lateral lower leg responsible for everting the foot.

Plantar Fascia - The tight band of muscle beneath the arch of the foot.

Plica - A fold of tissue in the joint capsule and a common result of knee injury.

PNF (Proprioceptive Neuromuscular Facilitation) - An approach to therapeutic exercise based on the principles of functional human anatomy and neurophysiology.

Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL) - Ligament of the knee attaching to posterior tibial plateau and anterior lateral aspect of femoral condyle. It provides stability in keeping the lower leg from going backward.

Quadriceps (Quads) - The four powerful muscles in the front of the thigh, responsible for extending the knee joint.

Radiography - Taking of X-rays.

Radius - Forearm bone on thumb side.

Reconstruction - Surgical rebuilding of an injured joint.

Rotator cuff - Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area; supraspinatus, infraspinatus, teres minor, and subscapularis. Often irritated by overuse.

S-C joint - Sternoclavicular joint; articulation between the sternum and the clavicle.

Sacroiliac - Relating to the juncture of the hip bone and lower part of the spine.

Scan - Injection of radioactive fluid (equal in radioactivity to about one x-ray) which may then be displayed on a computer/monitor or film (e.g. bone scan).

Scapula - The shoulder blade.

Sciatic Nerve - Largest nerve in body located in back of leg which controls most of its function.

Sciatica - Irritation of the sciatic nerve, resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside of the cap.

Sesamoid Bones - Lies within and adds strength to tendons as they cover bony surface. The most commonly known is the kneecap.

Spasm - Sudden, violent, involuntary contraction of a muscle.

DOWN RIGHT OFFENSIVE

Despite changes at quarterback and running back, the San Francisco 49ers have maintained one of the most explosive offenses in the NFL over the last four years. The 49ers rank third in the NFL in total offense since 1997, trailing only Denver and Minnesota. The 49ers have averaged 364.6 yards per game during that stretch.

Total Offense

1. Denver	23,801
2. Minnesota	23,372
3. San Francisco	23,332

COLLECTIVE BARGAINING AGREEMENT TERMS

ACCRUED SEASON

A player receives one accrued season when he is on full pay status for a total of six or more regular season games. This does not include players placed on the Exempt Commissioner Permission List, the Reserve PUP List as a result of a non-football injury, or the practice squad.

RESTRICTED FREE AGENT

Any veteran player with less than four accrued seasons in a Capped Year is considered a restricted free agent at the expiration of his Player Contract. Any such player is free to negotiate and sign with any team, but is restricted under the terms of the Collective Bargaining Agreement. In order to receive right of first refusal and/or draft choice compensation the prior club must tender the player a qualifying offer on or before the first date of the restricted free agent signing period.

UNRESTRICTED FREE AGENT

Any player with four or more accrued seasons in a Capped Year becomes an unrestricted free agent at the expiration of his Player Contract. Any such player is completely free to negotiate and sign a Player Contract with any team.

EXCLUSIVE RIGHTS FREE AGENT

Any player with less than three accrued seasons in a Capped Year whose contract has expired may negotiate or sign a Player Contract only with his prior club, if his prior club tenders the player at least a one-year contract at or above the minimum salary applicable to that player. If the prior club does not make or withdraws the required tender by that date, the player is free to negotiate and sign a contract with any club.

FRANCHISE PLAYER

Each team is permitted to designate one of its players, who would otherwise be an unrestricted free agent, as a franchise player. The designation restricts the player from negotiating or signing a contract with another club. The designation will remain with that player for the duration of the contract signed. It may be removed by the club at the conclusion of the contract. Franchise players are guaranteed at least a one-year NFL Player Contract for the average of the five largest prior year salaries for players at the position the designated player played the most games the prior league year, or 120% of his prior year salary, whichever is greater.

TRANSITION PLAYER

Each team is permitted to designate one of its players, who would otherwise be an unrestricted free agent, as a transition player. The player is free to negotiate and sign a player contract with any club, but the designation gives the prior club right of first refusal on any contract the player signs. Transition players are guaranteed at least a one-year NFL Player Contract for the average of the 10 largest prior year salaries for players at the position the designated player played the most games the prior league year, or 120% of his prior year salary, whichever is greater.

OFFER SHEET

When a restricted free agent receives and agrees to an offer to sign a Player Contract from another NFL club, the player must submit a certificate which contains the principal terms of the contract (offer sheet) to the prior team. The prior club has seven days from the time it receives the offer sheet to exercise or not exercise its right of first refusal.

PHYSICALLY UNABLE TO PERFORM (PUP)

Players placed on Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform may attend team meetings, but are ineligible for all games and all practice sessions. Players on the PUP list are allowed to begin practicing with the team after the conclusion of the sixth regular season weekend and continuing after the conclusion of the ninth regular season weekend. The practice period is not to exceed 21 days. Any time during that 21-day period, teams are allowed to restore the player to the Reserve/PUP list or to the active roster.

MINI CAMPS

Each team is allowed to hold one mandatory mini camp for veteran players. If a team hires a new head coach it is allowed to hold two additional voluntary mini camps for veteran players. There is no limitation on the number of mini camps a club may hold for rookie players. Each mini camp can be three days in length and no pads, excluding helmets, are allowed.

TRAINING CAMP

No veteran player, other than quarterbacks and injured players, will be required to report to a team's official training camp earlier than 15 days prior to the first scheduled preseason game or July 15, whichever is later. The July 15 date does not apply to teams participating in the Hall of Fame Game or any American Bowl game.

ACTIVE LIST

Each club is allowed to carry no more than 53 players on its active roster during the season. For each regular season game, the active list limit is 45 players per team. If a team carries the full squad limit of 53 players, it has to place eight players on the inactive list prior to each game.

PRACTICE SQUAD

Each team is allowed to establish a practice squad of no more than five players on the Monday after the final roster cutdown. Players who have served more than one season on the practice squad or have one accrued season of free agent credit are not eligible for the practice squad. A player who gained his one season of accrued free agent credit while being on the Reserve/Injured or Reserve/PUP list for an entire season is eligible for the practice squad.

Jason Webster started 11 games at right cornerback as a rookie in 2000.

MEDIA SERVICES

Interview Requests: All interview requests for 49ers players, coaches or members of the administration should be made through the 49ers public relations department. Head coach Steve Mariucci will hold his weekly press luncheon during the season, Monday at noon. He will be available to the media after practice Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, and following each game throughout the season. The locker room will be open for player interviews Wednesday and Thursday from 12:30-1:00, and after practice Monday, Friday and Saturday.

Credential Requests: All home game credential requests must be submitted in writing on letterhead to Kirk Reynolds or Cindy Jensen no later than Tuesday before the requested game. Media members applying for credentials must call the 49ers public relations department beginning Thursday after 10:00 a.m. to verify approval. Credentials will be left at Press Will Call Gate A on game day, unless other arrangements are made.

Practice Policy: 49ers practices are open to local media only. Visiting and national media will not be permitted to attend practice. Photographers will be allowed to shoot up to and including stretching exercises.

TRAINING CAMP

The University of the Pacific became the seventh summer training camp home for the San Francisco 49ers in 1998. Located on 175 acres next to the Calaveras River in Stockton, CA, the campus provides players and coaches all the necessary elements to prepare for the upcoming season.

Location: University of the Pacific
3601 Pacific Avenue
Stockton, CA 95211

Camp Dates: July 25 through August 18

Veterans report July 28.

Camp Facts: The San Francisco 49ers will open training camp when rookies and selected veterans report to Stockton, CA Saturday, July 25, 2001. The 49ers spent 17 years (1981-97) at Sierra College in Rocklin, CA before making the move to the University of the Pacific last year. The 17-year Rocklin stint tops the 13-year stay (1955-67) at St. Mary's College in Moraga, CA as the longest training camp visit in team history. San Francisco has trained at Menlo College (1946-54), UC Santa Barbara (1968-75), San Jose State (1976-78) and Santa Clara (1979-80).

UOP Facts: Founded in 1851 as the first chartered university in California, the University of the Pacific is comprised of 11 schools and colleges on three campuses. Two specialty schools, UOP's School of Dentistry in San Francisco and the McGeorge School of Law in Sacramento, complement the main campus in Stockton. Pacific provides its 6,000 students 80 major fields to choose from and an average class size of under 30. The main campus features the central liberal arts division, schools of music, engineering, education, pharmacy, business and public administration, international studies, a graduate school and University College, which is designed specifically for adult re-entry students.

Stockton Facts: The Stockton metropolitan area has a population of over 230,000. It is surrounded by over 1,000 miles of waterways, making it the largest inland seaport in California.
